"My first game at what was then Hemingway Stadium was in 1960 when Ole Miss played LSU, and I had never been more excited than I was that day. Of course, the stadium is much larger and more impressive now than when I played. I love the on-campus experience at Ole Miss, starting with The Grove, the team taking the short walk to the stadium and the overall atmosphere of gameday."

- Archie Manning

BOWL SUCCESS

Dexter McCluster rushed for 99 yards and a touchdown and caught six passes for 83 yards en route to offensive MVP honors as Ole Miss knocked off Texas Tech in the 2009 Cotton Bowl.

Ole Miss is tied for 10th nationally with 23 bowl victories, tied for 18th with 36 bowl appearances and third with a .639 bowl winning percentage.

See pages 158-173 for the Rebels' full bowl history.

Ray Brown rushed for 157 yards and two scores to lead Ole Miss to its first Sugar Bowl title with a 39-7 win over Texas in 1958.

Archie Manning earned offensive MVP honors at the 1970 Sugar Bowl after he passed for 273 yards and a TD to guide Ole Miss to a 27-22 win over Arkansas.

Senquez Golson became the 56th first team All-America selection in school history in 2014. After leading the SEC and tying a school record with 10 interceptions (including this game-clinching grab to beat No. 1 Alabama), he was named a unanimous All-America first team pick. His contributions helped Ole Miss boast the No. 1 scoring defense in the country.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

SUCCESS AT THE NEXT LEVEL

- 281 Rebels taken in the Pro Draft since 1936
- 27 Rebels selected to at least one Pro Bowl
- 19 Rebels chosen in the NFL Draft's first round
- 16 Super Bowl Champions
- 2 Super Bowl MVPs
- 2 Pro Football Hall of Fame members

Former Ole Miss Rebels had the highest average yearly salary in the NFL ($4.1 million) in 2014, according to a Sporting Intelligence report.

See pages 128-133 for a complete history of Rebels with the pros.

HUGH FREEZE - HEAD COACH

- First head coach in Ole Miss history to direct the Rebels to a bowl appearance in each of his first three seasons
- The Rebels have increased their win total in each year under Freeze, including their first nine-win season and final national ranking since 2009 last year
- Landed three straight top-15 signing classes, including a 2013 class that ranked as high as No. 2 nationally
- Led Arkansas State to the 2011 Sun Belt Conference Championship and earned Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors

COREY BATOON - SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

- A 19-year veteran in the college coaching ranks, Batoon served as Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for Recruiting Operations the last two seasons after being the Assistant A.D. for Player Development in his first year in Oxford
- Helped the Rebels land three straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 haul that was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation

MAURICE HARRIS - RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR OFFENSE/TIGHT ENDS

- Coached tight end Evan Engram to All-America honors in 2014 and All-SEC honors in 2013 and 2014
- Tabbed as one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by 247Sports after helping Ole Miss land a top-five signing class in 2013
- Coached two all-conference tight ends at Arkansas State

GRANT HEARD - WIDE RECEIVERS

- Helped Donte Moncrief and Laquon Treadwell become two of the all-time great Ole Miss receivers
- A former Rebel wide receiver who helped lead Ole Miss to four bowl games and graduated as the Rebels' all-time leader in career receptions and touchdowns

CHRIS KIFFIN - RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR DEFENSE/DEFENSIVE LINE

- Tabbed the 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com after helping Ole Miss land a top-five signing class
- Helped develop one of the deepest and most talented defensive lines in not only the SEC, but the nation in 2014
- Has coached Issac Gross, Robert Nkemdiche and Marquis Haynes to Freshman All-America honors

MATT LUKE - CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

- Mentored Laremy Tunsil to All-America honors in 2014, as well as All-SEC and Freshman All-America honors in 2013
- Coached an offensive line that helped pave the way for Ole Miss to rack up 500 or more total yards in four games in 2014
- Started 33 games at center for Ole Miss from 1995-98

JASON JONES - CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/CORNERBACKS

- In 11 seasons as a college coach, his teams have earned a bowl berth every year
- His cornerbacks helped Ole Miss lead the nation in scoring defense and fewest touchdowns allowed and rank fifth nationally with 22 interceptions in 2014
- Mentored Senquez Golson, who tied the school record with 10 interceptions in 2014 and earned consensus first team All-America honors
- 2014 FootballScoop National DBs Coach of the Year (with Dave Wommack)

DERRICK NIX - RUNNING BACKS

- Has coached the Rebel running backs for seven years, which includes five bowl games and four wins
- Tutored three of the most productive backs in school history in Brandon Bolden, Dexter McCluster and Jeff Scott
- Helped McCluster become the SEC's first player with 1,000 rushing and 500 receiving yards in a season

DAN WERNER - CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

- A 31-year coaching veteran, including eight years at Miami where he helped the Hurricanes to four national championship games and three national titles
- Under Werner's tutelage, Bo Wallace broke Ole Miss records for total offense, 300-yard passing games, completion percentage and pass efficiency; he also ranks top 10 in SEC history in total offense and passing yards
- Mentored 1992 Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torretta

DAVE WOMMACK - DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

- Coached teams to 21 bowl games and been a part of 31 winning seasons
- Has 19 years of experience as a defensive coordinator
- A nominee for the 2014 Broyles Award, Wommack helped Ole Miss lead the nation in scoring defense and fewest touchdowns allowed
- Coached free safety Cody Prewitt to All-America honors in 2013 and 2014

REBELS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The Ole Miss brand is frequently featured on such well-known media outlets as ESPN, CBS, SEC Network, FOX Sports, CNN, New York Times, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, Sirius/XM Radio and many others.

REBEL FAMILY

"The word F-A-M-I-L-Y is a big part of our program. The 'F' stands for faith in one another. We have to care more about the guy sitting next to us if we are going to be successful. 'A' stands for attitude. We have to define who we are to ourselves and not pay attention to how others define us. 'M' is for mental toughness. We will change the lives of young men and make them mentally tough for all that life has to throw at them. 'I' is for integrity. We have to tell each other the truth. The 'L' is my favorite. It stands for the love we have to have. We are going to love one another. 'Y' is for you. It is for everyone who loves this place."

- Head Coach Hugh Freeze

"When Patrick left home to attend Ole Miss, we had the comfort of knowing that he would be cared for as part of his new family. That was never more evident than when Patrick lost his brother. His Ole Miss family was there to provide the support he needed at his lowest point. At Ole Miss, family is not just a word. It is real."

- Chris and Julie Finley
Patrick Willis' parents

"Coach Freeze, I can entrust him with my child. And the coaching staff has treated us so well. There's a warmth that we get when we come over. And the Grove experience is just so awesome."

"The coaching staff is just awesome from the top down. It's been wonderful. I think God has chosen the perfect place for us."

- Bola and Bayo Adeboyejo

REBEL PRIDE

Former Ole Miss student-athletes can be found across the country, and even the world, proving successful in many areas of business, education, athletics, medicine, law, and the list goes on. Those who have donned the Red and Blue for the gridiron Rebels include Jackson-based attorney Jesse Mitchell (pictured); renowned Johns Hopkins professor and physician Alan Partin; former University of Mississippi Chancellor Dr. Robert C. Khayat; former NCIS special agent James Reed; former NFL star and revered football figure Archie Manning; and many others, some of whom may be lesser known, but no less important in their communities and workplaces.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, “Landshark” is a term adopted by the Rebel football team’s defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of “fins up” also contributes to the players’ persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the “Landshark” celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have also performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team.

Roots of the “Landshark” at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

TONY FEIN

Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term “Landshark” originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the “Landshark.”

"I've never been a quitter. It's not in my heart to give up. I don't think it should be in anybody's heart. I may give out, but I'll never give up."

Chucky Mullins

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

Roy Lee "Chuck" Mullins was born on July 8, 1969, in Russellville, Alabama. After his mother's death when he was in the seventh grade, and at his request, Chucky was placed under the guardianship of Carver and Karen Phillips.

Chucky graduated from Russellville High School in 1988. He earned all-conference, all-area and all-state honors in football as a junior and senior. He was team captain and most valuable player on his high school team. He also earned three letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Because of his athletic and leadership abilities, Chucky was awarded a four-year scholarship to Ole Miss, and he arrived on campus in the summer of 1988. He was redshirted in 1988 but later saw action as a "nickel" defensive back for the Rebels and was rapidly emerging as a defensive force in the Southeastern Conference.

Tragically, his injury on Oct. 28, 1989, in the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt ended his football career and left him paralyzed. He was treated at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis until February 1990, when he was transferred to Spain Rehabilitation Center in Birmingham.

Chucky's battle with his physical disability and his undefeatable spirit changed the University of Mississippi. For months after the tragic accident, Chucky endured the grueling challenges of rehabilitation. During the difficult time, Chucky's gritty determination and positive spirit touched the lives of literally hundreds of people. More than a million dollars was raised for the Chucky Mullins Trust Fund. He was visited in the hospital and later at home by such stars as Walter Payton, Janet Jackson and President George Bush. Chucky's accident and his unbroken spirit transcended football. The people of Mississippi, the South and the entire United States rallied around this remarkable young man.

When Chucky returned to Oxford in August 1990 to begin living in the specially-equipped house built by the Trust Fund donations, he announced a determination to return to Ole Miss and pursue a degree. Against all odds, in January of 1991, he did return to the classroom. However, on May 1, 1991, as he prepared for class, he suddenly stopped breathing. Rushed to the hospital, he never regained consciousness and died five days later from complications resulting from a blood clot.

While Chucky did not have a long life, it was a particularly special one. His teammates and coaches said Chucky was a teacher. He taught others how to live their lives to the fullest and how to maintain their focus on the truly important aspects of a precious life. In the state of Mississippi, Chucky Mullins will be forever young and never forgotten.

In the spring of 1990, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity at Ole Miss initiated the Chucky Mullins Courage Award to be given each spring to an outstanding defensive player, who is chosen by the Rebel coaching staff.

Recipients are presented the award at the Chucky Mullins Courage Award banquet, with the proceeds from the banquet going to a special fund created to help Ole Miss students that are involved in serious accidents.

Each award recipient receives a framed Mullins jersey and has the honor of wearing Mullins' No. 38 on the field the following season. In 2006, the number was officially retired, joining Archie Manning's No. 18 as the only retired numbers in the Rebels' storied football history. A 38 patch, rather than the jersey number, was worn from 2006 until 2010. The decision was made in March 2011 for the jersey to remain retired and be worn only by the Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner each year.

On Sept. 26, 2014, Coliseum Drive on the Ole Miss campus was renamed Chucky Mullins Drive, honoring his life and influence in the most visible and enduring way.

Senior defensive back Mike Hilton is the 25th different player to win the Chucky Mullins Courage Award and will wear #38 on the field this fall. An undersized DB, much like Mullins, Hilton has proven tough and versatile. He's started at least one game at every backfield position in his career and was the leading tackler on the nation's No. 1 scoring defense from his cornerback position in 2014.

THE HOLY GRAIL - OF - TAILGATING SITES

THE GROVE

Regarded as one of the world's top sporting traditions, tailgating on football Saturdays at Ole Miss is one of those activities that every sports fan should take the opportunity to indulge in at some point in their life. Ten acres of lush green grass, watched over by majestic oak trees in the middle of the Ole Miss campus, are transformed from a tranquil picnic spot into tailgating paradise when thousands of football fans crowd into every corner of the land. Weaving through the myriad of red and blue tents, one is bound to encounter a few of the most extravagant set-ups in all of tailgating - fine china, chandeliers, big-screen satellite TVs. Of course, many tents are a bit simpler, but the unique atmosphere still encourages sundresses and high heels for the ladies and coats and ties for the men. Food and drink are abundant. "Hotty Toddy" can always be heard chanted among the trees. Champions walk through it. There is nowhere else like it. It is ... The Grove.

WALK OF CHAMPIONS

Rebel players and coaches have paraded through The Grove and been greeted by thousands of admirers approximately two hours before each football game since 1983.

"I can say in definitive terms that there isn't a better place to spend a college football Saturday than at The Grove, followed by an SEC battle at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium."

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM

Rebel fans packed Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field to capacity nearly every game over the past two years. Last season's attendance record of 430,829 shattered the previous record of 415,750 in 2013. The 2015 season marks the third straight for Ole Miss to sell out of season tickets while improving its win total each year under head coach Hugh Freeze.

FORWARD TOGETHER CAMPAIGN

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium is in the midst of a facelift that will provide Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. As part of the $150 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone is being renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites are all being refinished. While those updates will be in place for 2015, the facility's biggest changes are in store for 2016, when the north side of the stadium will be transformed into an exciting new "front door," complete with a plaza and bell tower. A green space will also extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove all the way to the new plaza. Closing in the north end zone seating will bring stadium capacity to 64,038 and put the polishing touches on one of the nation's elite college football facilities.

Visit ForwardTogetherRebels.com for more information on the campaign. See page 200 for more information on Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

MANNING CENTER

The Rebels' luxurious indoor practice facility that the football team has called home since 2004 was made even more spectacular with a $12.5 million renovation and expansion in 2013. It also received a new name: the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center, to honor the mother and father of the "First Family of Football." Ole Miss boasts some of the most exquisite facilities in the country. Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall named the Grill at 1810 that provides a daily nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes. The Rebels also enjoy an impressive new team meeting room, renovated and expanded locker room, renovated and expanded weight room, and an interactive foyer to welcome recruits and other guests.

LOCKER ROOM

The Rebels' locker room is no ordinary one. A massive renovation and expansion now gives the players access to new lounge areas with video games, arcade games, pool and ping pong tables, computer work stations, a kitchenette and an abundance of couches and chairs. Renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room, it gives Ole Miss players easy access to the indoor field, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room and the training room.

See page 201 for more information.

SEC COMPETITION

SEC COMPETITION

- The SEC has won seven of the last nine national championships, nine of the 17 BCS-era national championships and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll).
- Four different SEC schools have won the National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2003) also won the former BCS crown.
- The SEC led the nation for the ninth straight year with 54 selections in the 2014 NFL Draft.
- The SEC West has had more NFL Draft picks in the past three years (90) than every conference but the ACC (120) and Pac-12 (101).
- During the last nine NFL Drafts, the SEC has a nation-leading 81 players taken in the first round, including Ole Miss' Patrick Willis, Michael Oher and Peria Jerry.
- The SEC led all leagues in total attendance for the 34th straight year with a record 7.6 million fans in 2014.

FedEx STUDENT ATHLETE
ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

"At the core of the FedEx Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a group of committed and energized professionals with a singular mission, to promote academic excellence and graduation of student-athletes. Not only will we motivate our student-athletes to strive for excellence on the field, we will offer top-notch support for them to succeed at a high level academically as well."

Derek Cowherd, Senior Associate AD for Student-Athlete Development

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Under Derek Cowherd, the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development, the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support has made great strides in improving the environment for Ole Miss student-athletes. Numerous full-time academic counselors, learning specialists and tutors assist Cowherd, and the FedEx Academic Support Center provides the perfect environment for learning.

Last year, Ole Miss football had more than its share of student-athletes named to the school's various academic honor rolls, while placing 27 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. Deterrian Shackelford was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete semifinalist and made the Hampshire Honor Society.

With Ole Miss athletics taking its place among the best in the nation, the Student-Athlete Academic Support staff hopes that Ole Miss graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETICS

From Olympic gold medalist to Super Bowl winner to World Series champion, Ole Miss Rebels can be found at the pinnacle of many sports.

Ole Miss was the only SEC school with a winning league record in football, men's hoops and baseball in 2014-15.

Ole Miss was one of two schools in the country to make a New Year's Six bowl, the NCAA men's basketball tourney and NCAA baseball tourney in 2014-15 (along with Oregon).

OLE MISS IN 2014-15

21 All-America selections
27 All-Conference selections
165 Academic All-Conference selections

20 National academic honorees
12 Postseason team participants
5 Professional draft picks

ENROLLMENT

- Ole Miss is 26 percent larger than it was just five years ago.
- The last freshmen class was 48 percent larger than five years ago.
- Students hail from all 50 states and 92 countries around the world.
- We're the fastest growing university in Mississippi.
- With more than 23,000 students, we're also the state's largest university.

ACADEMICS

- The leading reason Americans say they would pick Ole Miss for college is the university's academic reputation. 40 percent said academics here is #1. In second place was "Southern culture," at 39 percent.
- Our School of Accountancy is ranked #6 in the country.
- The Medical Center is home of the world's best-selling medical physiology textbook, which has been translated into 18 languages (and counting).

IMPROVEMENTS

- $301 million of construction projects are under way or out to bid.
- The buildings and furniture/contents on the Oxford campus are valued at $2.065 billion
- We have $287 million of new facilities on the drawing board, with several starting this year.
- The Student Union will double in size over the next three years.
- The Honors College will double in size early next year.
- A 9,500-seat arena is under construction.
- There are 14,377 parking spaces on campus.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION

- Three certified arborists manage the thousands of trees on campus, ranging from bald cypress to Yoshino cherry. Our campus includes 100 acres of native woods and 1,000 total acres of land.
- Color is a big part of campus beauty. We plant 20,000 annuals, including tulips and daffodils, each spring. We have about 10,000 square feet of perennial beds on campus, and groundskeepers change out colors each spring and fall.
- After the last home football game, our landscaping team used 4,500 pounds of tall fescue seed to replace the 10 acres of grass in the Grove.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the “Cultural Mecca of the South”, creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford’s rich history, small town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants options, from down home cooking to upscale culinary creations.

“Oxford is a lovely, incongruously eccentric little island. A mutation. A college town. A magnet for writers, thinkers and oddballs.”

- Anthony Bourdain, CNN's Parts Unknown

“I love going to Ole Miss. Everybody who’s a football fan or a fan of the art of writing with William Faulkner’s hometown there – anybody who appreciates the English language and literature – should get a chance to go to Oxford.”

- Verne Lundquist, CBS Sports announcer

Celebrities such as Samuel L. Jackson and Woody Harrelson can be spotted in Oxford from time to time.

Oxford’s thriving music scene has recently welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Zac Brown Band, Three 6 Mafia and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford’s Lyric was recently named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The people of Oxford offer tremendous support to the Ole Miss athletics teams, and the Rebel student-athletes return that support by being actively involved in both the Oxford and University communities. Among the worthwhile activities that Ole Miss student-athletes regularly participate in are assisting with reading programs at local schools such as "Reading with the Rebels," visiting patients in area hospitals, being mentors to elementary school students, visiting senior adults at local retirement centers, holding several "Meet the Rebels" days throughout the year, and giving numerous talks on subjects such as drug awareness and staying in school to area students. And for the last three spring breaks, members of the football team have traveled abroad to do mission work in Panama and Haiti.

See page 204 for more information.

HUGH FREEZE

Hugh Freeze refers to his tenure at Ole Miss as a "journey."

Suffice it to say the journey has moved at a quicker pace than even Freeze could have imagined.

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

In the time since Freeze inherited a team coming off a two-win season and 14 straight Southeastern Conference losses, the Rebels have made three straight bowl appearances and won more games in each season.

He is the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first three seasons.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze's three-year tenure:

- 24-15 record
- Two bowl wins
- 22 weeks ranked in the nation's top 25
- At least one win over every other SEC West team
- Three straight top-15 ranked recruiting classes
- Three straight Vaught-Hemingway Stadium season ticket sellouts and season attendance records
- 77 graduated players

The foundation that was laid in 2012 and 2013 led the way for a memorable campaign last year. Ole Miss played in the very first of the inaugural New Year's Six bowl games - the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl vs. TCU. The Rebels got there on the strength of the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (16.0 ppg allowed) and wins over four 10-win teams (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis, Mississippi State) and three conference champions (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis). Freeze led Ole Miss to its most regular-season wins over ranked teams since 1969 and its highest national ranking (No. 3) since 1964.

October 4, 2014 will forever be remembered by Rebel

Nation as the day ESPN's College GameDay and pop singer Katy Perry put Oxford in the national spotlight, and the Rebels knocked off the No. 1 Crimson Tide 23-17 for the program's first ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team.

A 2014 finalist for the Bear Bryant Award and Dodd Trophy, Freeze seems to get the most out of his players every game by emphasizing the importance of playing for the love of teammates instead of self. His leadership has also seen a rise in the team's grade point average and involvement in service opportunities both locally and abroad, such as spring break mission trips to Panama and Haiti.

The Rebels' 8-5 record after defeating Georgia Tech 25-17 in the 2013 Music City Bowl gave Ole Miss consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since the 2008-09 seasons. For his efforts, Freeze was named the 2013 Grant Teaff Coach of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

The fans that filled Vaught-Hemingway Stadium each Saturday were treated to another exciting offensive season in 2013. The Rebels eclipsed 500 total yards of offense in four of their final five home games, including a program-record 751 yards in a rout of Troy. The Rebel offense finished the season with a school-record 6,153 total yards and ranked 21st nationally and fifth in the SEC in total offense (473.3 ypg).

A month after the Rebels capped off the 2012 season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

The Rebel offense saw a dramatic turnaround under Freeze in 2012. With many of the same players, he took a team that had ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the league and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

The 2012 Rebels soared up the school record books and cracked the top four single-season totals in scoring, total offense and passing.

The Rebels' 7-6 record could have been even better had they not lost three tight SEC games (Texas A&M, Vanderbilt, at LSU) by a combined 10 points.

The offensive school record books have received a makeover in three years under Freeze, including most total yards and first downs in a season (2013) as well as quarterback Bo Wallace's records for total yards in a season (2013) and career, among others.

Freeze has led a resurgence in team attitude and effort that extends to the defensive side of the ball, as well. The 2014 group led the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and led the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

In 2012, an undersized, but feisty Rebel D finished first among SEC teams and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game).

Recruiting elite talent and developing players to maximize their abilities, Freeze and his staff have seen 11 players earn All-SEC honors, including All-Americans Cody Prewitt, Senquez Golson, Evan Engram, Robert Nkemdiche and Laremy Tunsil. Freshmen have played a large role on all three teams, including when Laquon Treadwell was named Ole Miss' first ever SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Rising Through the Ranks

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 20 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. The 10-2 overall record marked the program's first 10-win season since 1986, when ASU was a member of the I-AA Southland Conference.

In the best debut season ever by an A-State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. He also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005.

Freeze was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year, while 13 of his pupils earned all-conference honors, including both the Offensive Player of the Year in junior quarterback Ryan Aplin and the Defensive Player of the Year in senior lineman Brandon Joiner.

While dominating the Sun Belt statistical categories, the Red Wolves finished the season ranked top 25 in the nation in total offense (24th), total defense (24th), passing offense (16th), rushing defense (13th), pass efficiency defense (21st), scoring defense (25th), tackles for loss (eighth) and sacks (15th). They were also one of only two teams in the NCAA to lead their conference in both total offense and defense.

Freeze's high-octane offense saw Aplin shatter the school record for career pass completions. He established new single-season standards for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense. Wide receiver Dwayne Frampton broke the Red Wolves' single-season record for receptions and ranked 13th nationally.

The Freeze defense also impressed in 2011 led by Joiner, who tied for third in the NCAA in sacks and 10th in TFLs. Senior DB Darryl Feemster registered six interceptions and tied for 14th in the nation in that category.

Freeze's first season in Jonesboro saw him serve as Arkansas State's offensive coordinator, guiding the Red Wolves' offense to a record-breaking year in 2010.

He made an immediate impact on ASU's program, leading the offense to a No. 43 national ranking in total offense one year after the Red Wolves finished toward the bottom of the NCAA FBS rankings at No. 95. In just their first year under Freeze's up-tempo offense, the Red Wolves broke nine offensive school records that included 4,841 yards of total offense, which ranked No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference.

ASU, ranked 42nd in the nation in scoring offense, finished the season averaging 30 points a game and recorded at least 20 points in 11 consecutive games for the first time in school history. Freeze's offense scored 46 touchdowns for the fourth-most in school history and the most since the 1975 season.

In addition to working as ASU's offensive coordinator, Freeze was also the quarterbacks coach for the Red Wolves. Under Freeze's direction, Aplin exploded onto the scene in 2010 to emerge as a Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year candidate as a sophomore. Aplin not only broke the ASU records for total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, he posted numbers that rank among the top 10 in Sun Belt history in the same categories.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

Freeze was named the American Football Coaches Association's Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2009

COACHES & STAFF

after leading the Eagles to their best regular season in school history with an 11-0 record. Under Freeze's direction, Lambuth won the Mid-South Conference West Division, advanced to the second round of the NAIA playoffs for the first time since 1999, finished the year with a 12-1 mark and ascended to the No. 6 ranking in NAIA.

The Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year oversaw the offense and called plays for a Lambuth team that averaged more than 40 points per game and ranked ninth nationally in total offense (465 ypg). The Eagles also ranked first in the nation in fourth-down conversions, fourth in first downs per game and third-down conversions, fifth in passing and eighth in scoring offense.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

In his first year as recruiting coordinator, he helped bring in the nation's ninth-ranked recruiting class, the highest recorded rank in the history of the program at that time. Ole Miss' 2007 signing class was tabbed 25th nationally, and he was responsible for nine commitments in the 2008 signing class.

While maintaining his duties as recruiting coordinator, he moved to wide receivers coach in 2007 and tutored current NFL star Mike Wallace to a top-10 SEC finish in receiving yards. Freeze also coached Shay Hodge, who later became Ole Miss' first 1,000-yard receiver, and Dexter McCluster, who went on to become the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

High School Teacher and Coach

Before going to Ole Miss, Freeze served 13 years at Briarcrest Christian School (Memphis, Tenn.) as a classroom teacher, coach and administrator. He was the Saints' head football coach from 1995 to 2004, running the no-huddle "spread system" for six years that led to six straight state championship games.

Freeze compiled a 99-23 record while at Briarcrest, which included an undefeated season in 1996 and led the school to state championship titles in 2002 and 2004. Briarcrest won regional titles in 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2001 and 2002, and Freeze was named the Region 8-AA Coach of the Year five times and Associated Press Coach of the Year four times.

Among his talented pupils during that period were eventual Rebels and current NFL starters Michael Oher and Greg Hardy.

Before assuming the role of head coach at Briarcrest, Freeze served as the teams' offensive coordinator and defensive backs coach from 1992-94, as the Saints reached the TSSAA state semifinals twice.

Mississippi Native

A 1988 graduate of Senatobia High School, Freeze received an associate's degree from Northwest Mississippi Community College in 1990 and was a two-year letterwinner on the Ranger baseball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a minor in coaching and sports administration from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1992.

It was while attending USM that he became active in mission projects, serving as a missionary in Houston, Salt Lake City, St. Petersburg, Russia and Australia. Freeze also served as the state president for the Mississippi Baptist Student Union.

Born in Oxford and raised in Independence, Mississippi, Hugh, 45, and his wife, Jill, are the parents of three daughters: Ragan (16), Jordan (15) and Madison (12).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT FREEZE

ARCHIE MANNING

SEARCH COMMITTEE CO-CHAIR
NFL QB (1971-84), TWO-TIME PRO BOWLER
OLE MISS (1968-70), TWO-TIME ALL-AMERICAN

"Coach Freeze impressed me immediately with his energy, passion, excitement and very detailed plan to build a championship program at Ole Miss. His leadership and integrity, his approach to recruiting and his understanding and love of Ole Miss set him apart from other candidates. He has been very successful and earned great respect everywhere he has been, and it's clear that he is a rising star in the head coaching fraternity."

MICHAEL OHER

BALTIMORE RAVENS, TENNESSEE TITANS,
CAROLINA PANTHERS (2009-PRESENT)
OLE MISS (2005-08), 2008 ALL-AMERICAN

"Coach Freeze knows the game inside-out. His track record speaks for itself. He's been successful everywhere he's been. Players will love him. He's a player's coach, but he's going to be hard on you, because he wants to get the best out of you. As he's being hard on you, you're going to learn to love him, because you know he wants the best for you. Offensively, he has the mind of a genius. I'm looking for Ole Miss to be in the top half of the conference, if not the nation, in points per game."

BRUCE FELDMAN

COLUMNIST/COMMENTATOR, FOX SPORTS

"When I talk to people who are unfamiliar with Hugh Freeze, the first thing that I bring out is that he is probably the best speaker I've ever been around. That's no hyperbole. If you get a chance to see Hugh Freeze give a speech to a team or a group, it will really make an impression on you. He will get people's attention. I think he's a good recruiter because he's committed to it. He knows the area. ... He knows what Ole Miss has to offer. He knows the pulse of that region, and I think that's important."

GUS MALZAHN

AUBURN HEAD COACH

"Hugh is really good at what he does. He's a great coach. He's a great communicator. He's got great vision. (Ole Miss' success) doesn't surprise me because he is one of the best at what he does."

KIRK HERBSTREIT

COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST,
ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY

"Hugh Freeze has proven he can do more than recruit. Ole Miss has a bright future with him. I am really impressed."

COREY BATOON

ASSISTANT COACH | SAFETIES SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | 1ST SEASON

Corey Batoon, who has been a member of Hugh Freeze's Ole Miss staff since February 2012, was promoted to assistant coach for safeties and special teams coordinator in January 2015.

A 19-year veteran in the college coaching ranks, Batoon had served as Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for Recruiting Operations in 2013 and 2014 after being the Assistant A.D. for Player Development in his first year in Oxford. He helped the Rebels land back-to-back top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 haul that was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation by 247Sports. He also contributed to the program advancing to three straight bowls for the first time since 1998-2000.

Batoon arrived in Oxford after three seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas State, where he coached cornerbacks, safeties and special teams during his tenure. Serving under Freeze in 2011, Batoon tutored cornerbacks Darryl Feemster and Darron Edwards to All-Sun Belt Conference honors, as A-State led the league in total defense (331.46 ppg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg).

In 2010, Batoon coached First Team All-Sun Belt Conference safety M.D. Jennings, who recorded 84 tackles, three interceptions, four pass break-ups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble in 2011. Jennings and Kevlie McCray ranked second and third on the team in tackles, respectively, as the duo combined to post 163 tackles during the 2011 season. Both Jennings and fellow safety Adrian Hills were named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week once in 2011, and the safety corps was responsible for seven of ASU's 11 interceptions.

His first season at ASU saw the Red Wolves' secondary help lead the defense to a No. 1 ranking in total defense and No. 2 ranking in passing defense in the Sun Belt.

Batoon came to Arkansas State after spending the previous 11 seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Northern Arizona. He also spent time as the special teams coordinator during his time with the Lumberjacks.

Batoon went to NAU after a year at Montana working with the defensive line. Prior to that, he was special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Central Missouri State after two years at Saint Mary's (Calif.) and a three-year stint at Pierce Junior College in Los Angeles.

Batoon played at San Diego City Junior College and later at Long Beach State (1988-89). He graduated from LBSU with a degree in political science in 1991, later earning a master's in health, physical education and recreation from Saint Mary's in 1996.

Born in Honolulu, Batoon and his wife, Stacy, have two daughters, Brandy and Summer.

MAURICE HARRIS

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR OFFENSE | 4TH SEASON

Maurice Harris returned to Ole Miss with Hugh Freeze as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for offense on Dec. 8, 2011. This marks Harris' second stop at Ole Miss as he served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Internal Football Operations for the Rebels in 2006.

Harris has helped develop Evan Engram into one of the best tight ends in school history and among the best in the nation right now. Engram has proven to be a mismatch for opposing defenses and a difference-maker with the ball in his hands.

A semifinalist for the John Mackey Award as well as an All-America and All-SEC pick in 2014, Engram led all SEC tight ends with 662 yards receiving and topped the nation's tight ends with 17.4 yards per catch.

Engram's 662 receiving yards are the most in a season by an Ole Miss tight end and his 930 career receiving yards is the second-most all-time by an Ole Miss tight end.

With uncertainty at the tight end position entering the 2013 season, Harris helped turn the question mark into an exclamation point with the play of a rookie Engram.

Before going down with an ankle injury, Engram turned in one of the best seasons ever by a freshman pass catcher with 20 catches for 265 yards and three touchdowns. Despite missing half the season, he was honored by the AP with second team All-SEC honors, becoming one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be named All-SEC.

In 2012, Harris worked to improve the tight ends unit, which recorded a combined 313 receiving yards, along with four touchdowns. They also provided blocking for a vastly improved Rebel offense that finished top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total yards and passing yards.

His efforts on the recruiting trail have helped Ole Miss land three straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 haul that was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation by 247Sports. Harris was tabbed one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by that media outlet in 2013.

In 2011, Harris was part of an Arkansas State offense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total offense (447.85 ypg) and scoring (32.46 ppg). His tight ends unit also helped an A-State rushing attack that ranked second in the conference in yards (154.23 ypg).

During his time in Jonesboro, Harris coached All-Sun Belt Conference selections David Johnson, who was also drafted by the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, and J.T. Jordan. Harris also helped develop Kedric Murry into a starting tight end for the Red Wolves as a redshirt freshman in 2009, and Trevor Gillott ranked third on the team in receptions, while setting individual career-best marks last season under his watch.

Murry continued to develop under Harris, recording career-high numbers for both receptions and touchdowns as a sophomore in 2010. Harris also mentored Jeff Blake as he made the move from fullback to tight end for his senior season. Blake became a big factor in ASU's blocking attack that helped ASU post a school-record 4,481 yards.

During Harris' first two seasons, the tight ends were responsible for 90 receptions for 1,166 yards and 12 touchdowns.

His 2009 tight ends corps helped lead the way for 21 rushing touchdowns, the third-most in the Sun Belt Conference, and paved the way for three different ASU players rushing for more than 100 yards in at least one game. The tight ends were a big part of ASU's line that helped the team to its most yards of total offense (484) against an FBS opponent since the 2007 season.

The tight ends were also heavily involved in the ASU running game that ranked No. 18 in the nation and No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference in 2008.

Harris returned to his alma mater as tight ends coach after serving as Alabama State's offensive coordinator and running backs coach during the 2007 season.

Harris worked with Alabama State Head Coach Reggie Barlow to design the overall offensive game plan and call plays. Harris helped the offense improve its total yards and points from the previous season and coached the Southwestern Athletic Conference's leading rusher and MVP in Jay Peck.

Prior to his return to Alabama State, where he also served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 2004-05, Harris spent the 2006 season at Ole Miss.

During his first stint at Alabama State, Harris helped lead the football team to a 10-2 record in 2004 and the SWAC Championship. In addition to his duties as a position coach, Harris was responsible for organizing and planning the Hornets' recruiting strategy.

Harris was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, including the 1996 season when he recorded a team-high 100 tackles from his safety position. After earning his bachelor's degree from ASU in 1998, he went to Whitehaven High School in Memphis, Tennessee, as an assistant coach.

Harris headed Whitehaven's offense, which was tops in the area, and improved its yardage by more than 100 yards per game from the previous season. He was promoted to head coach at Whitehaven two years later and was named West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading his team to the city and region championships in 2001.

He followed the 2001 campaign with another city title in 2002 and was named assistant coach in two all-star games. He was named head coach for the Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game in Tennessee.

During his three seasons as head coach at Whitehaven, Harris posted a 23-12 record and had 32 players sign scholarships to play college football.

Harris and his wife, LaQuesha, have two children, Arami, Cortlynn, and a Godson, DeVonte'. The Harrises are involved in a number of charity efforts, and Maurice went with several members of the Ole Miss team and staff on a spring break mission trip to Haiti in 2015.

GRANT HEARD

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS

4TH SEASON

Grant Heard is in his fourth year on the Ole Miss staff after being hired by Hugh Freeze on Jan. 9, 2012 as wide receivers coach.

A former Rebel player and graduate assistant, Heard is at his fourth stop with Freeze, having served as his quarterbacks coach and passing-game coordinator at Arkansas State, offensive coordinator at Lambuth and graduate assistant at Ole Miss.

Recruiting and developing talent at a high level since he arrived in Oxford, Heard has helped stockpile the Rebel receiving corps into one of the deepest and most talented in the country, led by preseason All-American Laquon Treadwell.

The Rebels set a school record with four straight games boasting a 100-yard receiver last fall, a stretch that included 100-yard receiving games from Treadwell, Vince Sanders and Cody Core.

Having to replace Donte Moncrief, now a member of the Indianapolis Colts, Heard helped Ole Miss rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (443.3 ypg) and fourth in passing offense (275.6 ypg) in 2014.

Ole Miss was the only SEC school to place three receivers in the top 12 in touchdown catches, led by Sanders and Core with six each, followed by Treadwell with five. Sanders moved up to ninth in school history with 11 career touchdown catches and 17th with 107 career receptions.

Treadwell was on his way to a record-breaking season before suffering a broken leg and dislocated ankle against Auburn. Despite the injury, he still ranked among the SEC's best in receptions per game (5.3) and receiving yards per game (70.2). In just two seasons, he ranks 13th in school history with 120 career receptions and tied for seventh with three career 100-yard receiving games.

Ole Miss wide receivers flourished in 2013 as Treadwell (5.58) and Moncrief (4.42) each ranked inside the top eight of the SEC in receptions per game, and Moncrief was No. 6 in the SEC in receiving yards per game (68.8).

As a team, Ole Miss broke school records for total offense (473.3 ypg), pass completions (310) and pass attempts (490) in 2013. The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

Treadwell, the 2013 SEC Freshman of the Year, had the best rookie campaign by an Ole Miss receiver in program history, setting freshman records in catches (67), receiving yards (557) and touchdown catches (5). Treadwell led all freshman receivers in the SEC in catches, yards and touchdowns and broke the Ole Miss freshman record with nine catches at Vanderbilt in his first game wearing a Rebel uniform.

Moncrief declared for the NFL Draft after his junior year and finished his career in the top three in school history in catches, yards and touchdowns by a receiver. He was selected by the Indianapolis Colts with the 90th overall pick (third round).

In 2012, with many of the same faces at receiver as the previous year, Heard helped turn the Rebel offense around, improving the team's passing average from 173.3 yards per game in 2011 to 249.9 in 2012.

Heard also helped turn Moncrief into a superstar during his sophomore campaign, as he averaged 75.3 yards per game (fifth-best in the SEC) with 10 touchdowns, tying the school record for TD catches in a season.

Heard helped Arkansas State to a record-breaking year in 2011 led by his star pupil, Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Ryan Aplin. The junior quarterback established school single-season records for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense.

Heard's passing attack ranked 16th in the nation, and the Red Wolves were 24th in total offense en route to a Sun Belt championship and an appearance in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

Heard spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Lambuth. During the 2008 campaign, the Eagles offense accumulated 5,861 yards while becoming the No. 1 offense in NAIA. Lambuth finished third in the nation in scoring offense and fourth in passing efficiency.

A wide receiver during his collegiate career (1996-2000), Heard helped lead Ole Miss to four bowl games and graduated as the Rebels' all-time leader in career receptions and touchdowns. He earned his bachelor's degree in 2001.

Following his college days, Heard was signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002 and sent to play in NFL Europe. In 2001, he appeared in several preseason games for the San Francisco 49ers.

Heard began his coaching career as the quarterbacks, wide receivers and special teams coach at Jackson (Miss.) Preparatory High School in 2002 before moving on to Hargrave Military Academy where he coached wide receivers and helped them to an 8-1 record in 2003. He joined the college ranks in 2004 as an offensive graduate assistant at N.C. State.

He returned to Ole Miss as an offensive graduate assistant in 2005-06, when he assisted in coaching the receivers and tight ends. He tutored future NFL players Mike Wallace, Shay Hodge, Marshay Green, Mike Espy and Taye Biddle.

Heard spent the 2007 season with Western Michigan coaching the Broncos' wide receivers. He mentored First Team All-MAC honoree Jamarko Simmons, the 15th-ranked receiver in the nation, and the receiving corps gained over 3,000 yards and scored 23 touchdowns.

Heard is married to the former Renata Nowacki, who was a four-year letterwinner on the Ole Miss volleyball team (1997-2000), and the couple has a son, Jayden, and a daughter, Avery. Heard's brother Ronnie was also a standout for the Rebel football team and in the NFL.

JASON JONES

ASSISTANT COACH | CORNERBACKS

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 3RD SEASON

Ole Miss ranked third in the SEC and 16th nationally in passing defense (192.1 ypg), more than 23 fewer yards per game allowed than the previous year. The Rebels also led the SEC and ranked eighth nationally, forcing 32 turnovers, including 22 interceptions, the most in the SEC and fifth-most in the nation.

For his efforts, Jones was tabbed by FootballScoop as the National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year, along with Dave Wommack.

One of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Award, presented annually to the national defensive player of the year in college football, cornerback Senquez Golson was a consensus first team All-American. He led the SEC and ranked second nationally with a school record-tying 10 interceptions. He was also tied for first in the SEC and fourth nationally with 18 passes defended.

Cornerback Mike Hilton and Huskie Tony Conner were the Rebels' top two tacklers in 2014 with 71 and 69 tackles, respectively.

In his first year with the Ole Miss cornerbacks, Jones helped teach a young and exciting unit that allowed 31 fewer passing yards per game (215.5 ypg) than a year earlier (246.5 ypg). Despite a number of injuries to the team's corners, Jones helped guide Golson and Hilton to strong seasons.

Jones arrived in Oxford after five seasons at Oklahoma State, where his teams amassed a 49-16 record.

In his time in Stillwater, Jones coached three different Cowboy corners to First Team All-Big 12 honors and a pair of Thorpe Award semifinalists in Perrish Cox (2009) and Brodrick Brown (2011). Cox was a first team All-American in 2009, as well.

With Jones serving as position coach, Cox led the nation in passes defended per game in 2009 and Brown ranked third in the same category in 2011. As a team, OSU led the nation with 44 turnovers forced in 2011 and was fifth with 34 in 2010.

Jones also helped develop former high school QB Justin Gilbert, who became the eighth overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft as a cornerback.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense was among the nation's most opportunistic from 2009-12, as the Cowboys forced 130 turnovers to rank second nationally in that span.

Jones came to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2007. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA championship and an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

His first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearance in the Music City Bowl.

Born Nov. 13, 1977, Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. He was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three bowl teams, an SEC West championship in 1996 and SEC championship in 1999.

Jones earned a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005. He and his wife Kysha have four children, Andrew, Jace, Jarah and Jathan.

CHRIS KIFFIN

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR DEFENSE | 4TH SEASON

Joining the Rebel staff on Dec. 8, 2011, Chris Kiffin is in his fourth season as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for defense under Hugh Freeze.

Kiffin has paid huge dividends on the recruiting trail. He was tabbed the 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com after helping Ole Miss land a top-five signing class that ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports. He was also tabbed one of the nation's top 50 recruiters by 247Sports and has helped the Rebels land two more top-15 classes since then.

Kiffin helped develop one of the deepest and most talented defensive lines in not only the SEC, but the nation in 2014. Their work in the trenches helped Ole Miss top the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24), while also leading the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

Defensive tackle Robert Nkemdiche was an All-America choice by multiple outlets, as his constant pressure and collapsing the pocket caused havoc for opposing quarterbacks.

Freshman All-American Marquis Haynes led the team with 9.0 tackles for loss and an Ole Miss freshman record 7.5 sacks, which was fourth-most among all freshmen in the country last fall.

With Kiffin guiding him, Nkemdiche made a major impact on the defensive line in 2013 by ranking third on the team in tackles for loss (8.0) and second among SEC freshmen in TFLs per outing (0.73). Nkemdiche was named first team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman.

Kiffin helped coach a much-improved Rebel front line in his first year in Oxford. His unit helped Ole Miss rank first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game). Those numbers were dramatic improvements over 4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game in 2011.

Under Kiffin, defensive end C.J. Johnson saw tremendous improvement from his rookie campaign as he recorded 6.5 sacks, tied for eighth-most in the SEC, versus just one sack in 2011. Nose tackle Issac Gross was named first team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman after he tallied 10.0 TFLs (second-most by an SEC freshman behind teammate Denzel Nkemdiche) and 2.5 sacks.

Kiffin spent the previous season as Arkansas State's defensive line coach.

The younger brother of former Southern Cal head coach and current Alabama offensive coordinator Lane Kiffin, and son of coaching legend Monte Kiffin, he helped coach an ASU defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.46 ypg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.62 pg) and tied for 15th in the NCAA in QB sacks (2.69 pg).

In 2011, Kiffin mentored Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner, who tied for third in the nation in sacks and 10th in TFLs. He also coached Dorvus Woods to second team all-conference honors.

Kiffin joined the A-State coaching staff after serving as an administrative assistant for the USC defense in 2010. The Trojans finished the year 8-5 with a 28-14 victory over UCLA in Rose Bowl stadium.

Prior to joining the staff at USC, Kiffin was in charge of offensive quality control at Nebraska from Feb. 2008 through Feb. 2010. During his two seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers compiled a 20-8 record and played in two bowl games, including a 33-0 victory over Arizona in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Kiffin was a quality control intern with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006. During his time with the Bucs, Kiffin gained experience working with the defensive line during off-season OTAs and mini-camps.

A four-year football letterman as a defensive tackle at Colorado State from 2000-05 under then-head coach Sonny Lubick, Kiffin earned his bachelor's degree from the school in 2005. Following his time at Colorado State, he was a student assistant at Idaho during the 2005 and 2006 campaigns.

Chris and his wife, Angela, have four children: daughters, Grace, Taylor and Bella, and son, Christian.

MATT LUKE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE
CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 8TH SEASON

Ole Miss alum Matt Luke is in his fourth season as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach on Hugh Freeze's staff and eighth season overall.

Having to replace three starters due to graduation, Luke helped the 2014 Rebel squad rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (419.1 ypg) and yards per play (6.0). The offensive line also helped the Rebels rank fifth in the SEC and 37th nationally in passing offense (263.6 ypg).

Laremy Tunsil was named All-America by several outlets and won the second-ever Kent Hull Trophy, presented to the most outstanding offensive lineman in Mississippi. In two years of college, Tunsil has played in 23 games with 20 starts at left tackle and has surrendered only two sacks.

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for Ole Miss to rack up 500 or more total yards in four games last year, including a season-high 640 total yards, the second-most in school history, against Presbyterian.

In 2013, Luke helped oversee a Rebel offense that broke the school record for total offense (473.3 ypg). The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for the Rebels to rack up 500 or more total yards in five games, including a program-record 751 against Troy.

His guidance of the offensive line included plugging in star freshman Tunsil to the starting lineup early in the 2013 season and seeing immediate results. One of only two true freshmen in the country to be a full-time starter at left tackle, Tunsil allowed just one sack while protecting quarterback Bo Wallace's blind side. When Tunsil was named to the AP All-SEC second team, he became one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be tabbed All-SEC (along with TE Evan Engram).

In his first season under Freeze, Luke helped Ole Miss improve in almost all offensive categories from the 2011 season, including total yards per game (281.3 in 2011 to 423.8 in 2012) and points per game (16.1 in 2011 to 31.5 in 2012). Luke developed an inexperienced offensive line into a unit that could hold its own in the SEC, as the Rebels ranked fifth in the league in rushing (173.9 ypg), up from 10th the previous year (129.6 ypg).

A former Rebel player and assistant coach, Luke spent the previous four seasons as Duke's offensive coordinator/running game while coaching the offensive line. His line ranked among the ACC's top five in fewest sacks allowed throughout his tenure, including finishing third in 2009 and 2010.

Luke's 2010 offensive front helped Duke to its highest yards per game average since 1989 as Sean Renfree became the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a single season. Nearly doubling its rushing totals from the previous year, the Blue Devil run game produced 19 touchdowns - Duke's highest total since 1995 - and the squad repeated that total again in 2011.

Behind All-ACC quarterback Thaddeus Lewis in 2009, Duke led the conference and finished ninth nationally in passing offense, while Lewis and wide receiver Donovan Varner ranked first in the ACC in total offense and pass receptions, respectfully.

Under Luke's guidance, both guard Dave Harding and tackle Perry Simmons received Freshman All-America honors in 2010. In 2009, guard Brian Moore was a Freshman All-ACC pick by Sporting News. Guard Laken Tomlinson went on to be the 28th overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. During his two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with an SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

In 2007, Tennessee tight end Chris Brown caught 41 passes for 282 yards and six touchdowns while fellow end Brad Cottam's 31-yard touchdown reception proved to be the difference in the Vols' 21-17 win over Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl.

On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best in the country by Scout.com.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Miss., and the couple has two sons, Harrison and Cooper. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is also on the Ole Miss football staff as assistant athletics director for player development.

At Ole Miss, Nix has tutored three of the most productive backs in school history in Dexter McCluster, Brandon Bolden and Jeff Scott, while the Rebels have ranked top three in the SEC in rushing twice.

With a variety of running backs with different styles and strengths at his disposal, Nix helped last year's Ole Miss squad rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (419.1 ypg) and yards per play (6.0). The Rebels topped 500 yards of total offense in four games and 150 yards rushing in seven games.

Jaylen Walton emerged as the leader of the group, rushing for 586 yards and averaging a career-best 5.5 yards per carry. He enters his senior season with 3,354 career all-purpose yards, sixth-most in Ole Miss history.

DERRICK NIX

ASSISTANT COACH | RUNNING BACKS 8TH SEASON

In 2013, Nix helped the Ole Miss offense rank top five in the SEC and top 25 nationally in total offense (473.3 ypg), which also broke the school record. Led by a bevy of talented rushers, the Ole Miss ground game was a headache for many opposing defenses to try and stop.

Scott averaged 61.6 yards per game in eight contests before going down with injury. In his stead, young backs I'Tavious Mathers and Walton each played well, setting respective career highs for rushing yards in a game and each topping the 100-yard plateau in a game. Walton, a threat on runs, catches and returns, ranked ninth in the SEC with 111.8 all-purpose yards per league game.

In 2012, Nix helped Scott, who finished the season with career-best totals of 846 yards and six touchdowns, develop into more of a feature back while the Rebel run game increased its average by 40 yards from 2011 to 2012. The Rebels finished fifth in the SEC with 173.8 rushing yards per game.

Nix also helped with Randall Mackey's transition from quarterback to running back, where as a senior Mackey ran for 325 yards and four touchdowns while also lining up at slot receiver.

The Nix backfield stable helped Ole Miss register the third-best ground game in the SEC in 2010 (207.58 ypg), while Bolden ranked No. 5 in the league in rushing (976 yards). A Nix pupil for the duration of his career, Bolden finished second in school history in both total touchdowns (33) and rushing TDs (27), third in all-purpose yards (3,681) and fourth in rushing yards (2,604).

In 2009, McCluster became the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards (1,169) and 500 receiving yards (520) in the same season. The first team All-American recorded the second-highest rushing total in school history and went on to be drafted in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In his first season with the Rebels, Nix helped construct a running attack that ranked second in the SEC. Using a balanced attack, the Rebels featured three rushers that piled up at least 500 rushing yards in McCluster (655), Cordera Eason (647) and Bolden (542). McCluster was also named a second team All-SEC selection as an all-purpose player.

Before arriving in Oxford, Nix spent 2007 in the NFL as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

Nix, one of the best-known players to ever wear a Southern Miss uniform, began his four-year stint on the Golden Eagles sidelines as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003. The following year, Nix was promoted to tight ends coach before being appointed to the running backs coaching position, where he spent two years.

In 2006 under Nix's direction, the Southern Miss running backs ran for 2,378 yards and scored 23 touchdowns, the first time the Golden Eagles ran for over 2,000 yards since 1987. True freshman Damion Fletcher, who earned first team All-Conference USA honors and Freshman All-American honors, ran for 1,388 yards and scored 11 touchdowns, the second-most yards in a season in school history. Fletcher set the freshman rushing record at Southern Miss and for Conference USA, and he was also named a finalist for the Conerly Trophy, signifying the top player in the state of Mississippi.

In 2005, Nix got career-best years from youthful players Larry Thomas and Cody Hull. Thomas posted three 100-yard rushing performances, while Hull started the final two games of the year and recorded his first 100-yard rushing day in the New Orleans Bowl with 161 yards on 37 carries, setting the Bowl record and the Southern Miss all-time bowl record. Hull's 37 carries tied for the fourth most in school history, matching Nix's own 37-carry performance against Nevada in 1998.

As the Golden Eagles' tight ends coach in 2004, Nix's crew, used primarily as blockers in the offensive scheme, was successful.

A three-time all-conference selection, Nix was a record-setting running back throughout his Southern Miss playing days and was named to the USM "Team of the Century." He recently became one of only five players in the history of the football program to become a member of the Southern Miss Legends Club.

Nix was the first Golden Eagle ever to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his freshman and sophomore campaigns and the only Southern Miss and C-USA player ever to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three seasons. His career achievements at Southern Miss also included being the C-USA Freshman of the Year and a first team Freshman All-American in 1998.

The Attalla, Alabama, native was born Feb. 22, 1980 and is a 2002 Southern Miss graduate with a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Nix is married to the former Allison Story of Frankfort, Kentucky, who also attended USM and played forward on the women's basketball team.

worked alongside Freeze on the Rebels' offensive staff in 2006 and 2007.

Under Werner's tutelage, quarterback Bo Wallace broke Ole Miss school records for total offensive yards (10,478), 300-yard passing games (11), completion percentage (63.0) and pass efficiency (140.8) and went 24-15 as the Rebels' starting quarterback. In just three years as a starter, Wallace ranked in the SEC's top 10 all-time in total offense and passing yards.

Wallace was named a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award after passing for 22 touchdowns and putting up more gaudy stats in 2014. He finished fourth in the SEC in passing (245.7 ypg) and total offense (261.0). He also ranked fifth in completion percentage (60.1), passing touchdowns (22) and pass efficiency (142.2).

Ole Miss ranked seventh in the SEC in total offense (419.1 ypg) and yards per play (6.0) last year, while the passing game was fifth in the SEC and 37th nationally (263.6 ypg).

Wallace also excelled in 2013 under the leadership and guidance of Werner, who was a nominee for the Broyles Award, which is given annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Wallace finished third in the SEC and 26th nationally with 257.4 passing yards per game, and was also third in the SEC and 26th nationally in total offense with 284.7 yards per game as an individual.

As a unit, the Ole Miss offense again scored more than 30 points per game. Ole Miss broke school records for total offense (473.3 ypg), pass completions (310) and pass attempts (490). The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

In 2012, Werner helped turn around a Rebel offense that ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

Wallace shined in his first year under Werner's tutelage. The 2012 Conerly Trophy winner ranked fifth in the SEC and 45th in the NCAA in total offense (260.3 ypg), fourth in the SEC in points responsible for (14.3/game) and fifth in passing (230.3 ypg).

In his first stint in Oxford, Werner's offense fueled BenJarvus Green-Ellis to a record-breaking two-year run. The future NFL running back became only the second player in school history to reach the 1,000-yard single-season mark twice, and he ended his tenure No. 5 on the Rebels' career rushing list.

As quarterbacks coach, Werner developed Seth Adams from a walk-on to the SEC's seventh-ranked passer with 1,979 yards in 2007. That season also saw future NFL receivers Mike Wallace and Shay Hodge each haul in six TD passes, while Dexter McCluster and Marshay Green were key offensive weapons.

Werner boasts three decades of coaching experience, including a total of eight years in two terms at the University of Miami when he tutored outstanding quarterbacks and directed some of the best offenses in college football.

Werner helped Miami to eight bowls, four national championship games and three national titles during his combined tenure. He also played an integral part in the development of several of the Hurricanes' greatest QBs, including 2001 Maxwell Award winner Ken Dorsey, 1992 Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torretta as well as Heisman candidates Steve Walsh and Craig Erickson.

The Miami passing game flourished under Werner's guidance. In 2001 and 2002, Dorsey posted totals impressive enough to place high in voting for the Heisman Trophy both years. In 2004, he tutored Brock Berlin to a resurgence, as Berlin moved into the Miami record book with single-season rankings of seventh in touchdown passes, ninth in passing yards, and 10th in total offense.

Over his last five seasons (2001-05) at Miami, Hurricane quarterbacks threw for more than 14,500 yards and 114 touchdowns under Werner, giving balance to an offensive philosophy predicated on equality between the run and the pass. The 2005 Canes finished 9-3 and ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense (27.1) and pass efficiency (133.6).

Werner's second stint in Coral Gables was preceded by a spectacular 2000 season as offensive coordinator at Murray State. He built the Racers offense into one of the most potent on the FCS level, as the team ranked 11th nationally in total offense (452 yards per game) and 13th nationally in passing yardage (276 yards per game).

Prior to his lone season at Murray State, Werner was an offensive consultant to Auburn Head Coach Tommy Tuberville during the 1999 season. Before the job at Auburn, Werner was an assistant coach at James Madison University for four seasons from 1995-98. He began his tenure at JMU as assistant head coach/quarterback coach/passing game coordinator in 1995. In 1997 he was promoted to offensive coordinator/assistant head coach. From 1991-94, Werner coached at Louisiana Tech, where he was an assistant coach in charge of running backs and inside receivers. In 1993, he was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterback coach.

Werner joined the coaching staff at UNLV in the spring of 1990. At UNLV, he was an assistant coach in charge of quarterbacks. In the fall of 1990, Werner left the college game for one season to serve as offensive line coach at Miami's Southridge High School.

As a graduate assistant at Miami during the 1987-88 seasons, Werner worked with UM quarterbacks Steve Walsh, Craig Erickson and Gino Torretta during an era in which the Hurricanes went 23-1 and won the 1987 national championship. In 1989, he was a volunteer assistant coach working with the wide receivers on another Miami national championship team.

Werner began his college coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at Cornell University. Prior to that, Werner coached five seasons on the high school level.

Werner graduated from Western Michigan University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in education in 1983. He attended Parkway Central High School.

He has two children, Maya and Ian.

Dave Wommack, who is in his 36th year as a college coach, has coached teams to 21 bowl games and been a part of 31 winning seasons, as he serves in his fourth year as Ole Miss' associate head coach for defense/defensive coordinator.

Wommack directed an Ole Miss squad that led the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24) a year ago. With talent and high-flying energy at every level of the defense, the Rebels also led the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

DAVE WOMMACK

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR DEFENSE | LINEBACKERS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 4TH SEASON

For the fourth time in his career, Wommack was a nominee for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the most outstanding assistant coach in college football. He also earned National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year honors from FootballScoop, along with Jason Jones.

A number of players stood out in that 2014 defense, including All-Americans Senquez Golson (CB), Cody Prewitt (FS) and Robert Nkemdiche (DT). Do-everything Mike Hilton led the team in tackles (71) while mostly playing cornerback, while Huskie safety Tony Conner earned All-SEC distinction. Marquis Haynes was a factor as a true freshman, leading the team with 7.5 sacks and 9.0 tackles for loss.

Among Wommack's safeties, Prewitt became a two-time All-American and All-SEC pick from his free safety position, while Conner and Trae Elston were consistent playmakers, too.

As a unit, the Ole Miss defense continued its improvement in 2013, allowing four fewer points per game (23.7) than it did the previous year and ranking top 40 nationally in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense.

Under Wommack, Prewitt enjoyed one of the best seasons of any defensive back in the country. He was selected first team All-America and All-SEC after leading the league and tying for seventh nationally with six interceptions. He topped the Ole Miss defense with 13 passes defended and was second with 71 tackles.

After ranking last in the SEC in total defense in 2011 (419.3 ypg), Ole Miss improved to seventh (375.9 ypg) in Wommack's first year in Oxford.

Following a 38-17 BBVA Compass Bowl win over Pitt, the Rebels finished the 2012 season first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game), dramatic improvements from 2011 (4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game).

Wommack, a native of Kimberling City, Missouri, spent 15 years as a secondary coach before shifting to coach linebackers this season. The 1999, 2000 and 2011 Broyles Award nominee has coached on nine teams that won a conference championship and also participated in trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1989 and 1990. He boasts 19 years of experience as a defensive coordinator, also holding the position at Georgia Tech, Arkansas, Southern Miss, UNLV, Missouri State and Bemidji State.

In 2011, Wommack led an Arkansas State defense that topped the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.5 ypg) and scoring defense (20.8 ppg), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.6/game) and tied for 15th in sacks (2.7/game).

He also helped coach four defensive players to first team All-Sun Belt Conference honors and three more players to second team all-conference honors, including Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner.

Before going to Arkansas State, Wommack spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, helping lead the Yellow Jackets to the 2009 ACC championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl. Georgia Tech's defense was ranked No. 28 in the nation his first year at the school when the Yellow Jackets were ACC Coastal Division co-champions and appeared in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. He coached three defensive players that went on to play in the NFL, including defensive back Morgan Burnett, defensive end Derrick Morgan and defensive lineman Michael Johnson.

Wommack spent two different stints at Southern Miss, the last in 2007 as linebackers coach when the Golden Eagles ranked first in scoring defense and second in total defense in Conference USA and played in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. He also coached future NFL player Gerald McGrath in 2007.

His first stop in Hattiesburg covered the 1994-2000 seasons, leading a Southern Miss defense that ranked among the top eight in the nation his final two years as coordinator. While he was defensive coordinator for both the 1999 and 2000 seasons, he was also elevated to assistant head coach in 2000. The Golden Eagles ranked eighth in the nation in total defense in 1999 and won the Liberty Bowl. The 2000 squad won the GMAC Bowl while ranking second in the nation in total defense. He coached the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year both seasons, Cedric Scott in 2000 and Adalius Thomas in 1999.

He was the Golden Eagles' defensive backs coach from 1994-98, tutoring five future NFL players that were among a secondary that consistently ranked top 20 in the nation. The Golden Eagles ranked first in the nation in turnovers gained in 1994 and fourth in 1995. The 1996 team ranked first in Conference USA in turnovers and the 1997 team ranked first in the league in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. The 1998 squad ranked 18th in the nation in total defense and 22nd in scoring defense.

Following his initial seven years at Southern Miss, Wommack spent 2001-04 at Arkansas before joining the South Carolina staff for the 2005 and 2006 seasons. His first year with the Razorbacks, Wommack was the defensive backs coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator his final three seasons at the school. He was a part of three bowl teams at Arkansas that competed in the Cotton Bowl, Independence Bowl and Music City Bowl. The 2002 team won the SEC West.

During his time as Arkansas' defensive coordinator, the Razorbacks led the SEC in turnovers (2002 and 2003) and ranked second in the SEC in rushing defense (2002) and third in sacks (2002) and red zone defense (2002). The 2003 squad also ranked 21st in the nation in pass defense and 36th in total defense. He coached three NFL players, including Caleb Miller, Ken Hamblin and Ahmad Carroll.

Wommack coached defensive backs and outside linebackers for two years (2005-06) at South Carolina before returning to Southern Miss for the 2007 season. During his time with the Gamecocks, Wommack helped coach a defense ranked 22nd in the nation in pass defense and seventh in pass efficiency defense. He coached several All-SEC players at South Carolina, including the conference's top tackler among defensive backs in Ko Simpson.

Wommack coached at UNLV from 1992-93, serving as the Rebels' defensive coordinator. During his time there, the Rebels enjoyed their first winning season in seven years and he coached six all-conference defensive players.

Prior to making the jump to NCAA Division I-A, Wommack was defensive coordinator at Missouri State from 1986-91.

Wommack earned his bachelor's degree from Missouri Southern State College in 1978 before going on to earn his master's degree from the University of Arkansas. Dave and his wife, Leslie, have two children, son Kane and daughter Hayley, and two grandchildren. Kane is the defensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois.

DAVIS MERRITT
GRADUATE
DEFENSE

Davis Merritt is in his second year as a defensive graduate assistant. He helps coach the defensive backs, a unit which was key in the Rebels leading the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24) last season.

In 2013, Merritt served as a volunteer assistant, working with the defense as well.

Davis came to Ole Miss from Mississippi State, where he served as a student assistant from March 2011 to March 2013, working with the defensive backs. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in May 2013.

Merritt, a native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, was wed to Kathleen Carollo on June 14, 2014. He is pursuing a master's degree in journalism and news media.

ROBERT RATLIFF
OFFENSE

After a four-year playing career at Ole Miss, Robert Ratliff is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant, helping with the quarterbacks.

Ratliff was a reserve quarterback in his four years as a Rebel player, seeing action in three games as a senior. He was active on the sidelines throughout his college career as someone coaches depended on to relay play calls to the field.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, he played quarterback as a true freshman at Sewanee University in 2009. He led Nolan Catholic High School to a pair of state titles during his prep career, throwing for 8,049 yards with 83 touchdown passes and 13 touchdown runs.

Ratliff, a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member, earned a bachelor's degree in managerial finance from the University of Mississippi in 2013. He received a Master of Business Administration degree from Ole Miss in May 2014.

CHRISTIAN ROBINSON
GRADUATE
DEFENSE

Christian Robinson, a former SEC linebacker, is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He will work primarily with the defensive line.

Robinson spent the previous two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant and quality control assistant as his alma mater, the University of Georgia. He helped the Bulldogs lead the SEC in turnover margin and rank among the nation's best pass defenses in 2014.

A native of Norcross, Georgia, Robinson played in 51 games with 17 starts as a linebacker during his Georgia career from 2009-12, compiling 159 tackles, 22.5 TFLs and 4.5 sacks. He was a part of back-to-back SEC Eastern Division title teams in 2011 and 2012.

Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Georgia in 2012 and attended mini-camp with the St. Louis Rams before pursuing a coaching career. He is the son of Ken and Lori Robinson. His father played linebacker at South Carolina and with the NFL's Washington Redskins.

JOHN MILLER

Hugh Freeze added great experience to his Rebel support staff with the addition of John Miller as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in January 2012.

Miller oversees the day-to-day operations of the Ole Miss football office, which includes administrative duties with academics, player development, recruiting, facility management, team travel and other areas.

His behind-the-scenes work has supported the team's improvement on the field, which has resulted in three straight bowl appearances, including a 2014 New Year's Six bowl.

Miller came to Ole Miss after 12 years at Southern Miss, including the final seven as operations director. Prior to that, he worked as an assistant with the recruiting department and also spent time assisting with the defensive backs.

While overseeing the day-to-day operations of the USM football office, Miller also assisted with all areas of fundraising within the football program and served as Southern Miss' liaison with NFL Scouts and oversaw the player timing days.

The Golden Eagles received a bowl invitation in all but one of Miller's seasons in Hattiesburg, including each of the final 10 years. The 2011 squad finished top-20 in the national polls and captured the C-USA Championship.

Before entering the football profession, Miller was in the United States Army, where he worked in the criminal investigation division. He received two Army Commendations, a National Defense Award for Desert Storm and a Cold War Era Award for Desert Storm.

After serving for four years in the Army, Miller worked as an assistant coach at Clinton High School under David Bradberry.

A 1999 graduate of Southern Miss, Miller is the son of Walter and Mary Miller of Clinton. He has two sons, Jonathon and Josh.

BARNEY FARRAR
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE RELATIONS

In his second stint with the Rebel football staff, Barney Farrar was named Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for High School and Junior College Relations on December 12, 2011.

He plays a vital role in recruiting, which has helped Ole Miss land three straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 haul that was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation by 247Sports.

Farrar spent the 2011 campaign as the head of Southern Miss' player development program and led USM's charge in building and maintaining relationships at the high school level.

Farrar moved into that role after three seasons as the tight ends coach for the Golden Eagles. In his second year, Farrar fought cancer and was able to return to 100 percent.

He was also named by Rivals.com as one of the top "Non-Big Six" Recruiters of the Year for the class of 2010 and was one of only four C-USA coaches selected.

Farrar's tight ends were instrumental to the success of USM's passing attack in each of the three years he mentored the group as they were the top targets year after year.

Prior to coming to the Golden Eagles, Farrar had stops at Iowa State, Rice, Clemson and Ole Miss, where he served as Assistant A.D. for External Affairs in 2006.

The native of Kossuth, Mississippi, played his collegiate football at Northeast (Miss.) Junior College and at Delta State. As a Statesman, Farrar helped DSU accumulate a 12-8 record in 1981 and 1982 while also serving as a captain as a senior.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983 and a master's degree in physical education in 1985, both from DSU.

Farrar has a son, Clint, and a daughter, Cari.

ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR PLAYER
DEVELOPMENT

Former Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke returned to his alma mater in May 2013 when head coach Hugh Freeze hired him as Assistant Athletics Director for Player Development.

The brother of Ole Miss offensive line coach and co-offensive coordinator Matt Luke, he oversees various aspects of academics and campus life for Rebel players.

Luke has helped the Rebels reach bowl games in each of his two seasons, including a berth in a New Year's Six bowl in 2014. In his first year, the Rebels won the 2013 Music City Bowl against Georgia Tech to cap an 8-5 season.

Luke was Ole Miss' coordinator of football operations from 2004-05 under David Cutcliffe and Ed Orgeron. He had spent the last few years in the sporting goods business.

He spent 12 years teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy prior to his first stint on the Ole Miss staff.

Luke earned three letters (1989-91) while playing quarterback at Ole Miss, but suffered three concussions during his career, which led to his decision to pass up his senior year and accept a coaching position on the high school level.

He ended his career ranked 17th in passing with 1,524 yards, completing 86 of 178 passes with 10 interceptions. At the time, he also ranked 17th in career total offense with 2,078 yards (554 rushing and 1,524 passing).

As a sophomore in 1990, he developed into one of the most versatile quarterbacks in the Southeastern Conference and shared starting duties with Russ Shows his final two seasons as both battled injuries in the option offensive attack. His 82-yard touchdown pass to Tyrone Ashley against Tennessee in 1991 remains one of the longest in Ole Miss history.

Selected Player of the Year in 1990 by the Ole Miss Quarterback Club, Luke also excelled off the field as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll three times, while also being named to the Chancellor's Honor Roll, Dean's List and U.M.A.A. Honor Roll. He also received the NCAA

COACHES & STAFF

Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award for having the highest grade point average among graduating Ole Miss student-athletes.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Ole Miss in 1992, Luke began teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy. He served as quarterbacks coach the first three years and then as offensive coordinator from 1995-2003. During his nine years as offensive coordinator, Jackson Academy won four Mississippi Private School Association state championships and was twice runner-up for the state crown.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Jackson Academy baseball team, working five seasons as pitching coach, and from 1995 to 2001 was the head baseball coach. As head coach, Jackson Academy won two MPSA state championships. He was selected Metro Coach of the Year by The Clarion-Ledger in 1999 when he was also named as MPSA All-Star Coach. He was Mississippi "State Games" Coach in 2000.

Luke is married to the former Angie Pope of Clinton, Mississippi, also an Ole Miss graduate and former Rebelette in "The Pride of the South" marching band. They are the parents of one son, Cale, and two daughters, Carson and Cayden. Cale is currently a wide receiver at Ole Miss.

Tom's father, Tommy, earned three letters in football at Ole Miss from 1964-66 and then played one year for the AFL Denver Broncos. His brother, Matt, also played at Ole Miss from 1995-98.

PAUL JACKSON
HEAD FOOTBALL
CONDITIONING COACH

Describing him as "one of the young and up-and-coming stars in strength and conditioning," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze named Paul Jackson strength and conditioning coach for his first Rebel staff on Jan. 9, 2012.

Now in his fourth season, Jackson's hard work and leadership have helped the Ole Miss program improve each year. With players that are noticeably stronger, faster and better able to run Freeze's tempo offense, the Rebels have achieved three straight bowl appearances, including a New Year's Six bowl in 2014.

Jackson came to Oxford after spending 2011 at Southern Miss, where he oversaw the strength and conditioning for the entire USM athletics department with direct responsibility over the football program. His one season in Hattiesburg saw the football team soar to its best record in school history at 12-2, a Conference USA championship and a victory in the Hawaii Bowl.

Jackson arrived in Hattiesburg after serving the 2010 season as the Director of Athletic Conditioning for Football at Miami (Ohio). In his lone season at Miami, Jackson helped lead the Redhawks to the 2010 MAC championship and a victory in the 2011 GoDaddy.Com Bowl, while becoming the only team in NCAA history to go from double-digit losses one year to double-digit wins the next (1-11 in 2009 to 10-4 in 2010).

From 2007-10, Jackson served as an assistant strength coach at LSU, working directly with the Tigers football and volleyball teams. During his time in Baton Rouge, Jackson won an SEC and national championship with the football team as well as three consecutive SEC Western Division and one SEC championship with the volleyball team. While working for the Tigers, Jackson worked under and was mentored by strength and conditioning legend Tommy Moffitt.

A native of White Plains, New York, Jackson got his start in the business as a Professional Intern Strength Coach with the NFL's New York Giants. He also spent time as a Performance Enhancement Specialist at the Parisi Speed School in Garwood, N.J., where the focus is sport-specific speed and agility training as well as combine preparation.

Jackson is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

During his college days at Montclair State (N.J.), Jackson lettered in football, spending time at both fullback and line-backer. He earned a B.S. in physical education in 2006 and later received an M.S. in kinesiology from LSU in 2009.

He is married to the former Kristina Hull, who played softball at Georgia Tech and has been a Winter Olympic hopeful in the skeleton. The couple met when they were both on the strength and conditioning staff at LSU.

THE JOURNEY

If the Ole Miss football program's path to success was a race, it would look more like a quick sprint than a marathon.

In three years under the leadership of head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss has ascended to one of the premier college programs in the country, perhaps faster than anyone would have thought.

Freeze teaches his offense to run up-tempo and likes his defense to play with speed. Apparently, he teaches them to win fast, too.

Last year's team was ranked in the top 25 the entire season, rising as high as No. 3 in the polls after dispatching No. 1 Alabama in the program's first win over the nation's top-ranked team. That was the program's highest national ranking since 1964.

After defeating four teams that finished with 10 or more wins (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis, Mississippi State), Ole Miss capped the year with its selection to the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, one of the inaugural New Year's Six bowl games. Playing against No. 6 TCU, Ole Miss came away with an unfavorable result at the Georgia Dome, leading some to question if the Rebels are really that good.

If Freeze and Co. have proven anything, it may be dangerous to underestimate the Rebels.

Built upon the values of brotherly love for their teammates and tackling each day with great attitude and effort, Freeze's program has Ole Miss student-athletes excelling on the field, in the weight room, in the classroom and in the community at a high level.

Rebel fans who come watch the team play this fall get to enjoy the world-renowned pregame experience in The Grove, as well as a first-class gameday atmosphere inside Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

What used to be a better kept secret is starting to leak out: Ole Miss is a destination. Fans love to travel here. Players want to play here. Coaches want to coach here.

For those who can't make it to Oxford, every game is aired on national TV, making it difficult to miss the imprint Ole Miss is making on the landscape of college football.

SEASON OUTLOOK

A bevy of upperclassman leaders on this 2015 squad should keep the Rebels firmly in the national spotlight (see last year's ESPN College GameDay visit to Oxford and Ole Miss on the cover of Sports Illustrated). The team's overall talent and depth may result in the bar rising even higher.

"We have a chance to be a good football team," Freeze said at the end of spring practice. "Like everything else, this league is so difficult and so evenly matched that you have to make the most of your time between now and the next opportunity you have to be a team."

After winning two games in 2011, the year before Freeze arrived, Ole Miss has posted seven, eight and nine victories the last three seasons. This year's squad is hungry for more.

Don't blink. They might do it faster than you think.

OFFENSE

Nine of 11 starters return from last season, but one of those holes is a glaring one.

Bo Wallace set numerous records in three years under center and was the first Rebel quarterback to earn three straight bowl berths since Romaro Miller in 1998-2000.

If one of the three candidates to replace Wallace - sophomore Ryan Buchanan, sophomore DeVante Kincade and junior transfer Chad Kelly - can effectively take the reins and distribute the ball to the team's plethora of playmakers, the Rebel offense could shift into overdrive in 2015.

Jaylen Walton and Jordan Wilkins, last year's two top rushers, return to lead the backfield corps. The duo combined to account for 947 rushing yards and 1,543 all-purpose yards a year ago. Walton's speed and Wilkins' power will be assisted by backfield mates Eugene Brazley, Akeem Judd and incoming freshman Eric Swinney.

Ole Miss could boast one of the country's top receiving corps this fall, headlined by All-American tight end Evan Engram and preseason All-American wide receiver Laquon Treadwell.

Engram, a junior, is a two-time All-SEC pick who last year set the school record for receiving yards by a tight end (662) and already ranks top four among tight ends in every career receiving category. His big-play ability led him to rank first among all the nation's tight ends with 17.4 yards per catch a year ago.

Treadwell, also a junior, is one of the most respected receivers in the country for his playmaking skills, toughness and superior outside blocking. By the season opener, he should be fully recovered from the broken leg and dislocated ankle that ended his season in the most brutal way at the end of the Nov. 1 Auburn game last year. Before that, he was among the SEC leaders with 48 catches, 632 yards and five touchdowns.

A very deep receiving corps also includes returning starter Cody Core (41 catches, 558 yards, 6 TDs), along with Quincy Adebeyejo, Markell Pack and Derrick Jones. Newcomers Damore'ea Stringfellow, DaMarkus Lodge and Van Jefferson should compete to further open the field for whichever quarterback is fortunate enough to pass them the ball.

Headlined by All-American left tackle Laremy Tunsil, the offensive line has all five starters back. Throw in some highly rated young talents, and the competition for who gets to block SEC defenders this fall should be intense.

Another star in the Rebels' celebrated junior class, Tunsil is a two-time All-SEC pick at left tackle and projected by most to be a high first-round selection when he is eligible for the NFL Draft. He is looking to regain full strength after breaking his ankle in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The other returning starters - left guard Aaron Morris, center Ben Still, right guard Justin Bell and right tackle Fahn Cooper - will be pushed by the deepest collection of offensive line talent Oxford has seen in several years.

Robert Conyers (center, right tackle) and Rod Taylor (right guard) received regular snaps last year and should compete for those again. Youngsters Javon Patterson, Daronte Bouldin and Jordan Sims intensify the battle at the guards, while Christian Morris and Sean Rawlings should provide length and depth at the tackles. Jeremy Liggins, a fan and media favorite because of the 300-pounder's presence as a Wildcat quarterback, could help at both tackle and tight end this fall.

DEFENSE

It will be hard to top last year's defensive performance, but that won't stop the Rebels from trying.

Seven starters and 25 lettermen return from the unit that led the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and touchdowns allowed (24). The Landshark D also topped the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

It all starts in the trenches, where Ole Miss should again boast one of the nation's best groups.

All-American junior defensive tackle Robert Nkemdiche anchors the middle with his impressive blend of size (6-4, 296), speed and power that makes opposing quarterbacks cringe. He is joined in the middle by returning starting nose tackle Issac Gross, who has one of the most explosive first steps in college football. Helping to clog the middle of the field is senior Woodrow Hamilton, who will be joined by redshirt-freshman Breeland Speaks and junior transfer D.J. Jones this fall.

Defensive end Marquis Haynes made a splash in his debut last fall, leading the team with an Ole Miss freshman record 7.5 sacks on his way to Freshman All-America honors. Returning starter Fadol Brown is one of the more imposing defensive ends in the country at 6-foot-4, 280 pounds. They will be joined on the edge by senior Channing Ward and junior John Youngblood, among others.

Ole Miss has to replace a pair of starting linebackers in Deterian Shackelford and Serderius Bryant. To do so, the coaches moved former starting DE C.J. Johnson, a fifth-year senior and team leader, to Mike linebacker this spring. Johnson transitioned well and is penciled in as the starter there entering fall camp. Christian Russell and Temario Strong will compete for playing time in the middle.

At the outside linebacker spot the Rebels call Stinger, two-time All-SEC pick Denzel Nkemdiche looks to bounce back from a broken ankle he suffered at LSU and return to all-league form. Also competing for playing time are sophomore DeMarquis Gates and junior transfer Terry Caldwell.

The secondary was a major strength of last year's team and could be again, but will have to replace the playmaking of departed All-Americans Senquez Golson and Cody Prewitt. Golson, a unanimous All-American cornerback, led the SEC with 10 interceptions and was drafted in the second round by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Prewitt was a two-time All-America selection as a free safety and was signed to a rookie free agent deal by the Tennessee Titans.

Still, the Rebels return starters and top producers Mike Hilton (71 tackles, 3 interceptions), Tony Conner (69 tackles, 9.0 TFLs) and Trae Elston (59 tackles) to the backfield.

Conner is a preseason All-American safety who has been a full-time starter at the Rebels' Huskie position in each of his first two seasons. One of the most versatile players on the field, Conner will cover deep, line up in the box, and do everything in between.

Hilton and Elston transitioned to new roles in the spring and looked comfortable doing so. Hilton, the 2015 Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner, moved from cornerback to Rover, while Elston shifted from Rover to free safety.

C.J. Hampton, A.J. Moore and C.J. Moore are young talents who could earn valuable playing time behind those veterans this fall.

The cornerback position will look quite different from last year, but Ole Miss has added length in talented newcomers Tony Bridges (6-0) and Tee Shepard (6-1). Kendarius Webster, Carlos Davis and Kailo Moore are three of the fastest players on the team and will provide quality depth on the edges.

SPECIALISTS

Ole Miss utilized a pair of freshmen as the primary place-kicker and punter last year. With that valuable experience, strong-legged sophomores Gary Wunderlich (kicker) and Will Gleeson (punter) should be primed to make an even bigger impact this season. Wunderlich could also see some situational punting duties again, while sophomore Andy Pappanastos will push Wunderlich at placekicker.

Ryan Buchanan will continue to hold for placekicks and PATs, while the Rebels will introduce a new long snapper in either junior Will Few or freshman Chadwick Lamar after the graduation of four-year snapper Will Denny.

SCHEDULE

The 2015 slate features six games against SEC West teams that all have the talent to rank among the nation's top 25, as well as SEC East foes Vanderbilt and Florida, and some competitive non-conference opponents.

The Rebels open the season at home vs. UT Martin on Sept. 5 and play 10 straight Saturdays until their Nov. 14 bye week. Among that stretch are SEC home games against Vanderbilt (Sept. 26), Texas A&M (Oct. 24) and Arkansas (Nov. 7), as well as league road tilts at defending league champion Alabama (Sept. 19), Florida (Oct. 3) and Auburn (Oct. 31). The Rebels also travel to play defending Conference USA champion Memphis (Oct. 17).

The final two games of the season are against historic rivals LSU (Nov. 21 in Oxford) and Mississippi State (Nov. 28 in Starkville).

#18 OLE MISS 35, BOISE STATE 13

Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game • Game #1 • Aug. 28, 2014
Attendance: 32,823 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Cody Core

ATLANTA - Beauty, as they say, is in the eye of the beholder. For No. 18 Ole Miss, it wasn't always pretty at the Georgia Dome, but at the end of the night the Rebels accomplished their goal and sit at 1-0 after a 35-13 victory over Boise State in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game.

For those who love strong defense, the Rebels opened the season with flying colors. For the folks who love seeing touchdowns, the first three quarters were forgettable, while the fourth quarter was a thing of beauty. Either way, Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze knows his team has room to improve, and it will do so with a victory in hand.

The Ole Miss defense caused three turnovers in the opening half, all interceptions, and despite the Broncos recording seven plays inside the Ole Miss 5-yard line, the Rebels held Boise State to just three points and went into the half with a 7-3 lead.

After the Broncos cut the Rebels' lead to one on a field goal with 1:02 remaining in the third quarter, Ole Miss broke the game open in the fourth quarter. After scoring just seven points in its first 59 plays, the Ole Miss offense then scored 28 points over a nine-play stretch.

The Rebels' 28 fourth-quarter points were the most points in a quarter by an Ole Miss team since scoring 28 in the fourth quarter against Memphis in the 2009 season opener.

With interceptions from Senquez Golson, C.J. Johnson, Cody Prewitt and Tony Conner, Ole Miss recorded its most interceptions in a game since picking off four passes against Southern Illinois in 2011. On the ground, Ole Miss racked up eight tackles for loss and three sacks.

In special teams play, redshirt-freshman punter Will Gleeson hit four punts for a 47.2-yard average. Three of Gleeson's punts landed inside the 20-yard line, including a long punt of 70 yards which settled on the Broncos' 7.

So while the first half was a struggle at times, and the number of penalties was eyebrow-raising, Ole Miss was still able to come away with a convincing victory on a big stage on college football's opening night. Now that is a thing of beauty.

#15 OLE MISS 41, VANDERBILT 3

Attendance: 43,260 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Bo Wallace

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - No. 15 Ole Miss scored early and often, while the Rebel defense gave up only a field goal in the fourth quarter en route to a dominating 41-3 win over Vanderbilt in both teams' SEC opener.

With the exception of that first half against Boise State, Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze is very happy with how his Rebels have started this season.

Bo Wallace threw for 320 yards and a touchdown to lead the charge. He is now one passing touchdown shy of Jevan Snead (46) for second place on the Rebels' all-time list.

The Rebels (2-0) have beaten Vanderbilt in Nashville in consecutive seasons after the Commodores had won five of the previous six. The Rebels won in dominating fashion with their largest margin of victory against an SEC opponent since beating Mississippi State 45-0 in 2008.

Ole Miss scored on seven of its first eight possessions with the shortest drive covering 67 yards, and the Rebels never punted. Jaylen Walton started the scoring with a 20-yard TD, and I'Tavius Mathers and DeVante Kincade also ran for TDs.

Wallace put the Rebels up 20-0 with a 20-yard TD pass to Cody Core, and he was sacked as the first half ended with Ole Miss threatening to score again. Playing an hour north of his hometown in Pulaski, Tennessee, Wallace had 249 yards by halftime, and his day was done after Mathers' TD with 9:29 left in the third quarter.

Ole Miss outgained Vandy 331-76 in total offense at halftime and finished 547-167. The Rebels also piled up 34 first downs -- the most in a game under Freeze.

Cliff Coleman returned an interception 39 yards less than a minute into the second half, and Mathers, from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, padded the lead to 34-0 with a 2-yard TD run.

Vanderbilt didn't get past midfield against the Rebels until the final couple minutes of the third quarter, and the Commodores had to settle for a field goal after recovering Kincade's fumble at the Ole Miss 5 in the fourth quarter.

#14 OLE MISS 56, LOUISIANA-LAFAYETTE 15

Game #3 • Sept. 13, 2014
Attendance: 60,937 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Senquez Golson

OXFORD, Miss - On a cloudy Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, Ole Miss' offense and defense shined brightly, shutting down the Louisiana-Lafayette offense and shredding the Ragin' Cajun defense en route to a 56-15 victory in the Rebels' home opener.

The Rebel offense accumulated 554 total yards, including 340 yards through the air and 214 yards on the ground. The defense held Louisiana-Lafayette to 322 total yards, including just 129 through the air. The Rebels' "Landshark Defense" has now allowed just 189 yards passing over the past two games combined, and has allowed just two touchdowns all season.

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace completed 23 of his 28 pass attempts for 316 yards, four touchdowns and one interception. With his four touchdown passes, the Pulaski, Tennessee, native passed Jevan Snead for second all-time in Ole Miss history with 49 career touchdowns. Saturday was also the 10th 300-yard passing game of Wallace's career, which ties him with former Rebel great Eli Manning for the most in program history.

Ole Miss had a balanced rushing attack, as juniors Jaylen Walton and I'Tavius Mathers totaled 146 yards and two touchdowns on just 10 carries. Walton's day was highlighted by a career-high 71-yard touchdown run, while Mathers opened the scoring for Ole Miss with a 56-yard scamper to the endzone.

Through the air, senior Vince Sanders had a career day with eight receptions for 125 yards and two touchdowns (all career highs). Even more impressive, all of the Macon, Mississippi native's production came in the first half of the game.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson picked off two passes Saturday, and returned one of the two interceptions 59 yards for a touchdown.

#10 OLE MISS 24, MEMPHIS 3

Game #4 • Sept. 27, 2014
Attendance: 61,291 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Deterrian Shackelford

OXFORD, Miss - On a night where the Ole Miss offense couldn't avoid the dreaded turnovers, the Rebel defense bowed up to shut down the visiting Memphis Tigers for a 24-3 victory at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

"Our kids showed great resolve and I'm extremely proud of our defense," said Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze, whose birthday was Saturday. "We haven't had a better effort than that in our two and a half years here. They were phenomenal, and Memphis is a team that has been putting up really good numbers."

Ole Miss (4-0) recognized the M-Club Class of 2014 at halftime, and celebrated the career and life of former player Chucky Mullins, after renaming Coliseum Drive in his honor on Friday. It was fitting then that the defense was led by linebacker Deterrian Shackelford, the only two-time recipient of the Chucky Mullins Courage Award. Shackelford, who wears the No. 38 jersey in Mullins' honor, led the Rebels with eight total tackles, including four solo tackles and one tackle for loss.

The Rebels allowed just 104 total yards the entire evening, including 23 rushing yards on 31 carries. Excluding one 42-yard pass play by Memphis (2-2) in the first quarter, the Rebel defense allowed just 62 total yards on the other 61 plays from scrimmage.

Sophomore Tony Conner and junior Denzel Nkemdiche each had two tackles for loss, while junior C.J. Johnson, freshman Marquis Haynes, senior Bryon Bennett and senior Lavon Hooks each had a sack. Haynes also forced a fumble, which junior Issac Gross recovered, and junior Trae Elston recorded an interception.

The Ole Miss offense generated 426 total yards, but 10 penalties for 117 yards, four turnovers and two missed field goals limited its final score. Sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell had five catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns, while junior running back Jaylen Walton had 10 carries for 78 yards and a touchdown. Senior quarterback Bo Wallace finished 22-37 for 248 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions.

Ole Miss opened the game's scoring on a 63-yard strike from Wallace to Treadwell with 12:01 remaining in the first quarter. The first quarter ended with the Rebels leading just 7-3 though, as Memphis hit a 40-yard field goal with 2:51 remaining.

The Rebels didn't get on the board again until the fourth quarter, but they scored 17 points in the final frame to stretch their lead out to 21 points. Following a 19-yard field goal from senior Andrew Fletcher, Walton ran 23 yards to pay dirt, and Treadwell caught a 17-yard pass in the back of the end zone with 1:18 remaining.

#11 OLE MISS 23, #1 ALABAMA 17

Game #5 • Oct. 4, 2014

Attendance: 61,826 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Jaylen Walton

OXFORD, Miss - There are times in people's lives when they will say to themselves, 'I will never forget this moment.' For the 61,826 fans that packed Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, No. 11 Ole Miss' thrilling 23-17 victory over No. 1 Alabama was a moment that won't soon be forgotten.

On one of the biggest weekends in Ole Miss football history, the Rebels' impressive defense stood tall once again, and the offense rallied and took advantage of opportune turnovers to top the Crimson Tide. It was the first win over a top-ranked team in program history, and it was the Rebels' first win over Alabama (4-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) since 2003.

A weekend that began with Ole Miss' (5-0, 2-0 SEC) first appearance on ESPN's popular pregame show "College GameDay," was closed out in style by outscoring Alabama 20-3 in the second half to move to 5-0 for the first time since 1962, and send thousands of the Rebel faithful onto the Hollingsworth Field in euphoria.

The Ole Miss defense's first string allowed its first touchdown of the season Saturday, but not much else, despite facing an opponent that entered the game averaging 42.0 points. The Rebels held Alabama to 3.8 yards a carry, which is nearly two yards fewer than its season average. The opportune Landshark Defense also created two turnovers, one of which the Rebels ultimately won the game on, and the other effectively ended the game as senior Senquez Golson picked off Alabama quarterback Blake Sims with 37 seconds left in the game.

Ole Miss senior quarterback Bo Wallace went 18-31 for 251 yards, three touchdowns and no turnovers. The oft-critiqued senior from Pulaski, Tennessee, showed his moxie late in the game, completing each of his final three pass attempts for 57 yards and two touchdowns.

"Sometimes these kids take way more criticism than they deserve," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "I don't know that they get the equal treatment on the other side of it. ... In the second half, he made some big-time plays. He just played so solid. On that last touchdown, that ball was right where it needed to be for us. Who knows what the next week holds, but tonight, Bo led his team to defeat the No. 1 team in the country. He deserves credit for being a big part of that."

#3 OLE MISS 35, #14 TEXAS A&amp;M 20

Game #6 • Oct. 11, 2014

Attendance: 110,633 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas

Cody Prewitt

COLLEGE STATION, Texas - If No. 3 Ole Miss' win over Alabama last week was a statement win, the 35-20 thumping of No. 14 Texas A&M on the road was a validation victory.

Throughout the week, the Rebels (6-0, 3-0 SEC) faced questions as to whether they would experience a hangover of sorts coming off such a big victory as the one against Alabama. Those questions were answered quickly in front of a record-breaking crowd of 110,633 at Kyle Field.

Ole Miss scored 14 points in the first quarter and shutout the Aggies 21-0 in the first half, marking the first time ever that a Kevin-Sumlin coached team at Texas A&M had been shutout in the opening half. The win over Texas A&M (5-2, 2-2 SEC) was the Rebels' first-ever against the Aggies, and it marked the first time in program history Ole Miss had defeated AP top-25 ranked opponents in back-to-back weeks.

"I'm really pleased to come into Texas A&M, a very hostile environment, and I thought our kids handled it very well," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "They handled the preparation all week long very well. To come out of here with a victory in this difficult environment against a very difficult, talented team is very exciting for our program and our fans. We have some great fans who made the trip. I could hear them all night. You get into this deal to play in atmospheres like this and it was awesome to see."

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace went 13-19 for 178 yards, one touchdown and no turnovers, and ran for another 50 yards and two touchdowns on 14 rushes.

Sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell had five catches for 53 yards, while fellow sophomore wideout Quincy Adeboyejo had two catches for a career-high 64 yards and a touchdown. On the ground, junior running back Jaylen Walton had nine carries for 49 yards.

Defensively, the Rebels forced three turnovers, upping their season total to an SEC-high 13, and returned two of the turnovers for scores. The front seven also had a very strong night. In addition to recording two sacks, Ole Miss held Texas A&M to 54 yards rushing, which is 134 yards shy of its season average.

#3 OLE MISS 34, TENNESSEE 3

Attendance: 62,081 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Marquis Haynes

OXFORD, Miss. - Gosh almighty, that defense is good.

As it has done all season, No. 3 Ole Miss displayed an impressive performance en route to a victory, and as has been the case throughout the year, it was the Rebels' famed "Landshark" defense that shined brightest. Holding the visiting Tennessee Volunteers to zero yards rushing, Ole Miss cruised to a 34-3 victory and improved to 7-0 on the year and 4-0 in the SEC.

"I'm really proud of a lot of things tonight. There are also a lot of things that will most certainly keep us grounded," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "We need to work on some things to be more efficient and get better. We're a team that plays to our strengths until we get the right opening.

We're playing so well right now. We held them to zero rushing yards. Our punt and coverage unit is playing so solid. ... We found some things right before the half and were able to get more efficient rushing the ball. Offensively, we didn't turn the ball over. That's huge in league games. Hopefully that trend will continue."

Playing in front of the third-largest crowd in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium's history (62,081), Ole Miss forced four turnovers and a turnover on downs. As a unit, the Rebels now have 15 interceptions on the year, which leads the country, and the Ole Miss defense has forced a turnover in 30 straight games, which is the second longest active streak among FBS schools.

Individually, CB Senquez Golson continued his fantastic senior campaign by picking off two passes, giving him seven on the year, tied for fourth most in a season in program history. Similarly, DE Marquis Haynes continued his fantastic freshman year with 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery.

With the defense playing as well as it is, Freeze said it has allowed them to be a bit more conservative with their offensive play calling so as to not give the opposition a shorter field with a turnover.

"You can tell from our play calling that we're comfortable as long as the defense is playing like they are," Freeze said. "We're very cautious at times. You have to figure if we can score 17-20 points then we have a chance to win a lot of games with the way we're playing."

Senior QB Bo Wallace threw for 199 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers. Wallace still has yet to turn the ball over in SEC play, while throwing seven touchdowns and running in another two.

Junior RB Jaylen Walton led Ole Miss on the ground with 60 yards and one touchdown, while senior WR Vince Sanders paced the Rebels through the air with 108 yards receiving and one touchdown.

#23 LSU 10, #3 OLE MISS 7

Attendance: 102,321 • Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.

Mike Hilton

BATON ROUGE, La. - No. 3 Ole Miss forced four turnovers at No. 23 LSU, but the Ole Miss offense couldn't find a rhythm and the Rebels (7-1, 4-1 SEC) lost their first game of the season, 10-7.

While the Ole Miss "Landshark" defense further cemented itself as one of the best in the country, the offense couldn't get enough points to support it, proving to be the difference in the game.

Seniors Deterrian Shackelford and Cody Prewitt each forced fumbles in the first half, while senior Senquez Golson and junior Mike Hilton each picked off passes in the second half.

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace finished 14-33 for 176 yards, with one touchdown and one interception. Wallace also ran for a team-high 40 yards on a dozen rushes.

Sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell led Ole Miss through the air with 70 yards receiving on four catches. Junior wide receiver Cody Core had four catches for 45 yards, and scored Ole Miss' lone touchdown.

The Rebels hadn't allowed an opponent to top 200 rushing yards all season, but couldn't stop the Tigers' three-headed monster of Leonard Fournette, Kenny Hilliard and Terrence Magee, who led the way for LSU en route to 264 rushing yards. In doing so, LSU (7-2, 3-2 SEC) won the time of possession battle by 12 minutes despite logging just three more total plays.

Ole Miss was fortunate in the first quarter to escape with a 7-0 lead. On its opening drive, LSU drove down to the Rebels' 12-yard line, but missed wide left on a 28-yard field goal attempt. Then, on its second drive of the game, LSU again drove down the field, but fumbled at the 1-yard line and Prewitt recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback.

The Rebels' offense took advantage of the turnover, going 80 yards in six plays, finishing with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Wallace to Core. It was Core's team-leading fifth touchdown reception of the year.

LSU got on the board with 2:47 remaining in the half on a 21-yard field goal to cut the Ole Miss lead to 7-3 going into the break.

After a scoreless third quarter, LSU seized the lead in the fourth quarter with a 3-yard touchdown pass to senior tight end Logan Stokes with 5:07 remaining.

Ole Miss couldn't answer the Tigers in the fourth quarter, as Wallace was intercepted with two seconds left, marking the first time all year he has been picked off in SEC play.

The Ole Miss defense, which entered Saturday night tied for the lead nationally with 15 interceptions, now has 17 picks. The Rebels have also now caused a turnover in 31 consecutive games, which is the second longest active streak in the country.

#3 AUBURN 35, #4 OLE MISS 31

Game #9 • Nov. 1, 2014

Attendance: 62,090 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Laquon Treadwell

OXFORD, Miss. - The No. 4 Ole Miss football team played a hard-fought game against No. 3 Auburn at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, but two fumbles on the Auburn 1-yard line in the fourth quarter proved to be too costly to overcome and the Rebels lost 35-31.

Trailing by four with less than two minutes to play, sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell caught a pass down the middle and broke for the end zone. Dragging a defender, Treadwell fought his way toward the goal line, but had his ankle rolled over and fumbled into the end zone, and the Tigers (7-1, 4-1 SEC) recovered the ball. The play left the crowd of 62,090 in stone silence and the Rebels' hopes of victory shaken.

Ole Miss got the ball back with 35 seconds remaining, but couldn't advance the ball in the waning seconds.

Treadwell, a preseason first team All-SEC selection, finished the night with a career-high 10 receptions for 103 yards and one touchdown. The complete extent of his injury was not known immediately following the game, but Freeze did say it was definitely a fracture.

Though marred by 19 penalties, the game was highly entertaining as the two sides traded leads throughout the second half.

Ole Miss (7-2, 4-2 SEC) senior quarterback Bo Wallace completed 28-of-40 passes for 341 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for another 56 yards and one touchdown on 14 rushes. In total, the Rebels accumulated 492 yards, while the Tigers had 507 — the most by an Ole Miss opponent all season.

In addition to Treadwell's 103 yards receiving, sophomore tight end Evan Engram (123 yards, one touchdown) and senior Vince Sanders (105 yards) also topped the century mark. It is the first time Ole Miss has had three receivers top 100 yards in the same game in the Freeze era.

#11 OLE MISS 48, PRESBYTERIAN 0

Game #10 • Nov. 8, 2014

Attendance: 60,546 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Jordan Wilkins

OXFORD, Miss. - The No. 11 Ole Miss football team (8-2) rushed for 402 yards and passed for another 238 as it cruised to a 48-0 victory over Presbyterian (5-5) at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Redshirt-freshman Jordan Wilkins rushed for a career-high 171 yards on 10 carries and one touchdown, and sophomore Mark Dodson logged a career-high 128 yards on just three carries, thanks to a pair of touchdown runs over 60 yards.

"It's a happy locker room in there," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "Some of the joyous things that happened today are seeing kids like John Ratliff get a catch, who has spent years as a walk-on in this program.

Lakedrick King broke up a pass on third down. It was a lot of fun to see our teammates be successful. It was quite rewarding."

Ole Miss' 640 total yards is its second-highest total in program history.

The Rebels' 402 rushing yards were their most since 2010.

Ole Miss posted its first shutout since 2012, and racked up a season-high 12 tackles for loss. Presbyterian gained just 67 yards through the air and 89 yards on the ground. The Rebels were especially stingy on third downs, holding the Blue Hose to a 2-for-12 conversion rate.

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace went 11-15 for 140 yards and two touchdowns, and also ran for one touchdown. The Pulaski, Tennessee, native was taken out at halftime, and redshirt-freshmen Ryan Buchanan and DeVante Kincade handled the second half.

Senior wide receiver Vince Sanders caught four passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore wide receiver Derrick Jones caught his first five career passes for 55 yards and his first touchdown, a 31-yard grab from Kincade.

On the defensive side of the ball, senior defensive end Carlos Thompson led the Rebels with a career-high seven tackles. Senior linebacker Serderius Bryant picked off the first pass of his career, extending Ole Miss' nation-leading turnover streak to 33 games in the process and giving Ole Miss 19 interceptions, which also leads the country. Junior defensive end Channing Ward caused a turnover, forcing his third fumble of the year, which ties him for the lead in the SEC.

ARKANSAS 30, #8 OLE MISS 0

Attendance: 64,510 • Razorback Stadium • Fayetteville, Ark.

Quincy Adebeyejo

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — A strong opening quarter by Arkansas and six turnovers were too much to overcome for No. 8 Ole Miss, and the Rebels lost 30-0 on a rainy afternoon at Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Paced by a strong rushing attack and favorable field position throughout much of the first half, the Razorbacks (6-5, 2-5 Southeastern Conference) jumped out to a 17-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. Entering Saturday's game, Ole Miss (8-3, 4-3 SEC) had outscored its opponents 83-10 in the opening quarter, the fifth-best mark in the country.

"It was a tough one," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "They put it to us pretty good. I was concerned all week, for whatever reason, that we weren't locked in totally. I think that showed in the beginning of the game."

Ole Miss was plagued by turnovers throughout the game, throwing four interceptions and also fumbling the ball twice. The Ole Miss defense forced a fumble, extending its streak of games with at least one turnover caused to 34 games, which is the longest such streak in the country.

"You can't turn it over the number of times that we did and expect to win," Freeze said. "I just kept hoping we could get something good going and cut that thing to a score or two and I think our defense would have played well enough to give us a chance but we never did."

Saturday's game between Ole Miss and Arkansas had large postseason implications on the line. With Arkansas' win, every team in the SEC Western Division is now bowl eligible for the first time in conference history.

Despite the loss, several Rebels put their names in the school record book. Sophomore Evan Engram had five catches for 65 yards, taking over the single-season school record for receiving yards by a tight end with 475 yards. With 218 yards of total offense in the game, senior quarterback Bo Wallace surpassed Eli Manning as the all-time school record holder with 10,090 career total offensive yards. Wallace also moved past Johnny Manziel into ninth place all-time in SEC history. Finally, junior running back Jaylen Walton returned two kicks for 40 yards and surpassed Mike Wallace for the all-time Ole Miss record with 1,429 career kickoff return yards.

After going into the halftime break trailing 17-0, Ole Miss allowed 10 more points in the third quarter to enter the final frame trailing 27-0. Arkansas would tack on an 18-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to give the game its final score of 30-0.

#18 OLE MISS 31, #4 MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

Game #12 • Nov. 29, 2014
Attendance: 62,058 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Evan Engram

OXFORD, Miss. — In the face of adversity, whether it was season-ending injuries or heartbreaking losses, Ole Miss reclaimed the Egg Bowl with a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State to cap a 9-3 regular season, their best regular season since 2003.

"To win a rivalry game against a very good football team and reclaim the prize of this program in the Egg Bowl, it's a priority we have every year," head coach Hugh Freeze said. "To get that done tonight facing some adversity with injuries and other things, I'm so proud of our young men that put everything in the trash and prepare for this one with clear hearts, mind and eyes."

No. 18 Ole Miss (9-3, 5-3 SEC) held Mississippi State (10-2, 6-2 SEC) to 17 points, tied for their fewest points scored in a game this season, and a red-zone stand sealed the win for the Rebels. Offensively, senior quarterback Bo Wallace threw for nearly 300 yards, and junior running back Jaylen Walton and sophomore tight end Evan Engram turned in career games.

Walton finished with a career-high 148 yards on 14 carries, including a highlight-reel 91-yard touchdown run that proved to be the game-winning score for the Rebels.

With injuries to Laquon Treadwell and then to Vince Sanders, who suffered a knee injury in the second quarter, Engram stepped up, hauling in five catches for a career-high 176 yards, the fourth-most receiving yards in a game in school history. He moved into second place on the school's all-time list in receiving yards among tight ends.

Despite those injuries, the Rebels accumulated 532 yards of total offense, their fourth game with 500-plus total yards this season and the second-most against an SEC opponent.

Ole Miss struck first, as Wallace found Engram over the middle for a 46-yard to the 1-yard line. On the next play, Wallace punched it in for the 7-0 lead.

State answered with a 45-yard field goal on its next drive, the last scoring play before halftime. The Rebels held the Bulldogs to 128 total yards and just 3.6 yards per play in the first half.

Coming out of halftime, the Bulldogs took their first lead, 10-7, on a 1-yard touchdown run by junior quarterback Dak Prescott. The Rebels would score on their next three drives to build a 24-17 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Looked to be stopped for no gain, Jaylen Walton reversed field, made a couple of State defenders miss, and took it 91 yards to the house, the third-longest touchdown run in school history.

#6 TCU 42, #9 OLE MISS 3

Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl • Game #13 • Dec. 31, 2014
Attendance: 65,706 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

C.J. Johnson

ATLANTA — A dominant effort by No. 6 TCU on both sides of the ball was too much to overcome for No. 9 Ole Miss, as the Rebels (9-4) lost 42-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The nation's second-leading offense, the Horned Frogs (12-1) scored early and often, and the defense suffocated the Ole Miss offense, holding the Rebels to a season-low 10 first downs and 129 yards of total offense.

Senquez Golson tied the school record with his 10th interception of the season, the 16th of his career, tied for third-most in Ole Miss history. It also set up the Rebels' lone score of the game, a 27-yard FG by Gary Wunderlich.

Playing in their third straight bowl game for the first time since 1998-2000, Ole Miss had its six-game bowl winning streak snapped, which was tied with Florida State for the longest in the nation. The Rebels' nine wins are the most since 2009.

TCU scored on each of its first two drives, both courtesy of running back Aaron Green. The Horned Frogs used a trick play for the first score, as Trevone Boykin threw a screen pass to Kolby Listenbee behind the line of scrimmage, who then hit Green for a 31-yard score. Green later found the end zone on a 15-yard run. TCU stretched its lead to 28-0 by halftime after another touchdown pass and an interception in the end zone.

The Southeastern Conference leader in interceptions and turnovers forced, Ole Miss forced three first-half turnovers, including two interceptions, but the Rebels were unable to turn them into any points, as they were outgained 226-59 in the half.

Boykin tossed a pair of touchdown passes in the third quarter to make it a 42-0 game in favor of the Horned Frogs. Boykin, who was named the game's offensive MVP, finished 22-of-30 for 187 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions.

In the fourth quarter, taking advantage of great starting field position at the TCU 11 after Golson's interception, the Rebels avoided the shutout with a 27-yard field goal by Wunderlich.

Playing in his final college game, senior quarterback Bo Wallace was 10-of-23 for 109 yards with three interceptions and was sacked five times.

SEC HISTORY

The Southeastern Conference begins its 83rd season of play in 2015. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Missouri and Texas A&M joined in 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

The SEC sponsors championships in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

2014 SEC NOTES

- The SEC has won seven of the last nine national championships, nine of the 16 BCS National Championships, two runner-up finishes and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). The SEC appeared in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) also won the BCS crown. Auburn also appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game. A team from the SEC Western Division has advanced to five consecutive national championship games. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.

- Since 2006, half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (10 of 20). The Big Ten has three and the Big 12 has two, while the ACC and Pac-10 each have one.

- An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 27 of the last 36 quarters of National Championship Game play.

- Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 36 of the 65 weeks, and every week of the CFP Poll era, with five different teams holding the top spot, including four from the SEC West. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for 19 weeks, Mississippi State for four, Auburn for three and LSU for 10 weeks. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 15 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for six weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri and Kansas State once) and the Pac-10 four weeks (all Oregon). The Big Ten (Ohio State) held the top spot in the final poll in 2014.

- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 13 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006. Vanderbilt is the only team to not appear in the BCS/CFP rankings during this time, however, the Commodores finished ranked in the Top 25 in both 2012 and 2013 after bowl games with 9-4 records. The BCS/CFP does not produce a poll following bowl games.

- Since 2006, the SEC has posted 10 wins BCS - now New Year's Six/Access bowls - more wins than any other conference. The conference's .651 bowl winning percentage is first among FBS leagues during that time.

- With conference limits being removed in 2014 with the College Football I Playoff, the SEC became the first conference to place three teams in CFP/BCS postseason bowls: Ole Miss (Chick-fil-A Peach); Mississippi State (Orange); Alabama (Sugar/National Semifinal).

- Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 442-98 record, an 81.9 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last eight seasons (2006-2014). This season, the SEC was 55-12 (.821), the highest percentage among FBS conferences (2006-2013). Last season, the SEC was 54-12 (.818), the highest percentage among FBS conferences).

HISTORY OF OLE MISS FOOTBALL

The University of Mississippi boasts a long and colorful football history, which includes the formation of the first football team in the state, as well as one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate football.

In its 122-year history, the Ole Miss football program has claimed three national championships (1959, 1960 and 1962), six Southeastern Conference titles (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, and 1963), and one SEC Western Division title (2003). In addition, Ole Miss has produced 56 first-team All-America selections and 168 First Team All-SEC selections, appeared in 36 bowl games with 23 wins, and sent more than 300 players into the professional ranks.

REBEL FOOTBALL BEGINNINGS

The beginnings of the program can be traced all the way back to 1890 when Dr. A.L. Bondurant, who would later serve as Dean of the Graduate School, urged Ole Miss students to help in the formation of an Athletic Association in the interests of football, baseball and tennis. Such a group became a reality a short while later, and in 1893, a football team was organized, with Bondurant serving as the manager-coach.

That first squad set a precedent that was to become an Ole Miss tradition, winning four of five games during that maiden season, including a 56-0 victory over Southwest Baptist University of Jackson, Tenn., in the inaugural game on Nov. 11, 1893.

Early financial matters were the responsibility of the manager. Support came largely from the Athletic Association, which was made up of a combination of students and faculty members willing to back the athletes by payment of a small fee.

Although it has never been documented, it is thought that C.D. Clark of Tufts was the first paid football coach at Ole Miss. His name appears as manager of the team, as shown in the Ole Miss Magazine, dated November 1894.

THE PRE-WWII YEARS

Prior to 1925, a total of 22 coaches took their turn as head coach at Ole Miss with only seven heading up the program for more than one season. Those early years were characterized by periods of both prosperity and difficulty: 1883-95, 12-3; 1896-1908, 24-36-1; 1909-14, 33-17-4; and 1915-24, 30-48.

Since the formation of the Athletics Committee in 1925, the Rebels have had just 14 head coaches, with three of those also handling the dual responsibility of athletic director. The establishment of the committee on a faculty-alumni basis (a student representative has since been added) seemed to re-establish alumni support for the football program and a bright future lay ahead.

Homer Hazel of Rutgers served as the head coach from 1925-29, winning 21 games, losing 22 and tying three before being succeeded by Ed Walker, a Stanford graduate, in 1930. While Walker's record was a modest 38-38-8 over his eight-year stay, he firmly established the direction of the football program. He took Ole Miss to its first bowl game in 1935, with the Rebels falling to Catholic University, 20-19 in the Orange Bowl. He also coached the Rebels' first All-America first-teamer, Bruiser

First Ole Miss All-American Bruiser Kinard (left)

Kinard, in 1936. Kinard, who also earned All-America first-team honors in 1937, would be the first of 46 Rebels to earn the prestigious national accolade.

Under Walker's tenure, Ole Miss took another step to help cement a solid future for Rebel football and other athletic teams when they became a charter member of the SEC in 1933. The Rebels have competed in the league ever since. Prior to joining the SEC, Ole Miss had competed in the Southern Conference from 1922-32.

Harry Mehre, from Notre Dame, became the head coach in 1938 and put together a pre-war record of 39-26-1, which included several notable victories. Mehre led Ole Miss to its first ever victory over Vanderbilt in 1939, its first win in 11 years over LSU in 1938, and its first win over Tulane in 25 seasons in 1941.

The post-war period would prove to be the Rebels' most glorious era as C.M. "Tad" Smith, a member of the Ole Miss athletic family since 1929, succeeded Mehre as director of athletics. Smith would serve as athletic director for 25 years before retiring on Feb. 1, 1971.

Harold (Red) Drew of Bates was brought in as head coach in 1946 and Ole Miss football stood on the verge of becoming one of the most powerful and respected programs in the country. A long-time assistant coach at Alabama, Drew remained at Ole Miss just one season before returning to Tuscaloosa as head coach, but his brief stay would prove to change the course of Rebel football.

VAUGHT PLACES OLE MISS ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL MAP

John Vaught, a line coach under Drew and a former All-American at TCU, remained in Oxford as head coach in 1947 and led the Ole Miss program to national prominence over the next 24 years.

In his first season at the helm in 1947, the Rebels posted a 9-2 record and won the first of six SEC crowns (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, 1963). That 1947 season also saw Ole Miss great Charlie Conerly become the first Rebel player to be a contender for the Heisman Trophy, placing fourth in the voting for the prestigious honor. Vaught's first year proved to be a sign of good things to come for Ole Miss. During his 24-year tenure, the Rebels would have only one losing campaign.

Vaught's squads, however, didn't stop at just winning league titles. The Rebels also claimed three national championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. Ole Miss won the 1959 Dunkel System national crown, the 1960 Football Writers Association of America, Dunkel System, Williamson System national championships, and the 1962 Litkenhous Ratings national title. Vaught's 1959 squad, which was honored as the "SEC Team of the Decade," was ranked the third best collegiate football team from 1956 to 1995, according to the Jeff Sagarin Ratings released in January of 1996.

The Rebels were also among the winningest programs in the country under Vaught during the 1950s and 1960s. From 1950-59, Ole Miss posted an 80-21-5 record (.778 winning percentage). The 80 wins and 77.8

winning percentage were second to only Oklahoma during that decade. In the 1960s, Vaught guided the Rebels to a 72-20-6 record and a 76.5 winning percentage, which was the fourth best during that decade.

Under Vaught's guidance, Ole Miss made Hemingway Stadium (later named Vaught-Hemingway Stadium) one of the toughest places in the nation for opposing teams to play. In his 24 seasons at the helm, Vaught's teams compiled an impressive 57-6-2 record in Oxford for an astounding 89.2 winning percentage. From 1952-1964, the Rebels put together an incredible 34-game homefield unbeaten streak (33-0-1), including 21-straight victories from 1952-59.

In the 1950s and 1960s under Vaught, Ole Miss was a fixture in the national polls. The Rebels were ranked atop the Associated Press poll for three weeks during the 1960 season and one week during the 1961 campaign. In 1964, Ole Miss was ranked preseason No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

Vaught also made going to postseason play the norm rather than the exception for the Rebel football program. Ole Miss played in 15 consecutive bowl games from 1957-71 which, at that time, was a national record. In all, Vaught led Ole Miss to 18 bowl game appearances, posting a 10-8 record in those contests. For his efforts, Vaught was named SEC Coach of the Year six times (1947, 1948, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962).

During his time at the helm, Vaught coached some of the best players ever to wear the Red & Blue. In 24 seasons, Vaught produced 26 All-America first-teamers. He also coached four players who finished in the top five in the Heisman Trophy voting. Along with Conerly in 1947, Charlie Flowers (5th in 1959), Jake Gibbs (3rd in 1960) and Archie Manning (4th in 1969, 3rd in 1970) were in the running for college football's top honor.

Failing health forced Vaught to resign his position in 1970 and the reins of the Ole Miss football program were turned over to Billy Kinard.

THE POST-VAUGHT YEARS

Kinard became the first Ole Miss alumnus to lead the football program, while Frank "Bruiser" Kinard, an offensive line coach under Vaught since 1948, was named to replace Smith as athletic director that same year.

The Rebels went 16-9 under Billy Kinard, including a 10-2 record and a 41-18 Peach Bowl victory over Georgia Tech in his first year in 1971. Kinard's 10 victories in '71 are tied for fourth most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history.

Kinard coached the Rebels through the 1972 campaign and the third contest of the 1973 season before startling developments following the Sept. 22, 1973, game with Memphis State saw both Kinards replaced by Vaught. Vaught returned to the field to guide the Rebels through the remainder of the 1973 season while also taking on the responsibility of athletic director.

Following the 1973 football campaign, Vaught resigned once again as head coach, but remained on as athletic director. His final record with the Rebels was an amazing 190-61-12. The 190 victories still rank Vaught among the top 25 winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, and he is the fourth-winningest coach in SEC history behind Bear Bryant's (Alabama) 323 wins, Lou Holtz's (South Carolina) 238 wins and Vince Dooley's (Georgia) 201 victories. In 1979, Vaught was inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Cooper, an assistant under Kinard since 1971, was named head coach on Jan. 17, 1974, and took Ole Miss through the 1977 season. Cooper compiled a 21-23 record during his four years at the helm, and his tenure is probably best remembered for one hot and humid day in September 1977. In one of the most memorable games in Rebel football history, Ole Miss upset Notre Dame, 20-13 in Mississippi Memorial Stadium on Sept. 17, 1977, in Jackson. That loss was the Irish's lone setback of the Following the 1977 season, Steve Sloan was hired as the new Rebel boss and began his five-year stint in 1978. Sloan posted a 20-34 record from 1978-82.

BREWER RETURNS

After stepping outside the Ole Miss family football tree the previous nine seasons, Ole Miss looked for a familiar face to lead the football program, and the Rebels found that person when Billy Brewer returned to Oxford to take over as head coach in December of 1982.

In his first season in 1983, Brewer put the Ole Miss program on the road back to national prominence. Brewer guided the Rebels to their first winning regular season since 1977 with a 7-4 mark. The Rebels received their first bowl game invitation since 1971 and met Air Force in the Independence Bowl. Ole Miss dropped a 9-3 decision to the Falcons and finished with a 7-5 record.

Brewer followed his first season with 10 more at the helm of the Rebel program. During his tenure, he led the Rebels to five more winning seasons and four additional bowls, including Ole Miss' 1990 New Year's Day Gator Bowl appearance. The Jan. 1 bowl game was the program's first since 1969. Brewer was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1986 (8-3-1 record) and 1990 (9-3 record), and the 1986 season saw the Rebels return to the national rankings for the first time in over a decade. In his 11 seasons, Brewer also led Ole Miss to eight Egg Bowl victories over rival, Mississippi State.

Brewer coached 11 years (1983-93) and compiled a 67-56-3 record, making him the second winningest Ole Miss football coach behind Vaught. Brewer was dismissed just prior to the 1994 season, and Joe Lee Dunn took over as interim coach, directing the Rebels to a 4-7 record under difficult circumstances.

REBELS ON THE RISE

In the mid-1990s Ole Miss football was somewhat down, but not out, and it needed a boost of energy to revitalize the program. On Dec. 2, 1994, Tommy Tuberville was selected as the coach in charge of getting the Rebels on the right track.

After serving as an assistant coach on the collegiate level for nine seasons (eight at Miami and one at Texas A&M), Tuberville began creating excitement in his first season in 1995, finishing the campaign with a 6-5 record and an Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State.

That excitement grew to a fever pitch in 1997, when Ole Miss recorded its best season since 1992 with an 8-4 record, a thrilling 15-14 Egg Bowl victory and a Motor City Bowl win over Marshall. The bowl appearance was the program's first since 1992, and the Rebels earned a final national ranking of No. 22 in both polls.

The revitalized Ole Miss program continued its winning ways in 1998, despite a coaching change following the regular season. David Cutcliffe took over as head coach on Dec. 2, 1998. Cutcliffe, who came to Ole Miss from his offensive coordinator post at Tennessee, took over the reins just 29 days before the Rebels' Sanford Independence Bowl date versus Texas Tech. Despite the short preparation time for the game, Cutcliffe led the Rebels to a 35-18 victory over the Red Raiders, quite arguably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS OVER OXFORD

Cutcliffe, who is recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate football, brought a high-powered offensive style that had Rebel fans waiting with anticipation for each season to start.

In his six seasons, the Rebels averaged more than 350 points per year, including shattering the record for points scored in a season during the 2003 campaign with 442. The previous mark was 391 points by the 2001 squad. During Cutcliffe's tenure, the Rebels set numerous game, season and career records.

Cutcliffe's football philosophy also translated into wins for the Rebel program. Under Cutcliffe, Ole Miss posted 44 overall victories, including four wins in the postseason.

In the time from 1997-2003, the Rebels played in six bowl games, which tied them with Arkansas for the most bowl appearances among SEC Western Division schools during that span. The only SEC teams that made bowl appearances all seven years were Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, all Eastern Division squads.

In 2003, Cutcliffe guided the Rebels, who many picked to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division, to a 10-3 overall mark and a share of the SEC West title with eventual BCS National Champion LSU. The title was the Rebels' first league football title of any sort since winning the conference crown in 1963. Following their 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the SBC Cotton Bowl Classic, the Rebels ended the 2003 campaign with a No. 13 national ranking. It was Ole Miss' first New Year's bowl since the 1991 Gator Bowl against Michigan.

Cutcliffe preceded his 2003 campaign with four winning seasons in 1999 (8-4), 2000 (7-5), 2001 (7-4) and 2002 (7-6), becoming the first Rebel mentor since Harry Mehre (1938-41) to post winning marks in his first five years. Cutcliffe also directed Ole Miss to four bowl appearances in his first five seasons, and is the only head coach in Ole Miss history to do so.

HISTORY & RECORDS

REBEL RECRUITING RAMPS UP

On December 16, 2004, Ole Miss turned to one of college football's premier recruiters and defensive line coaches in Ed Orgeron. Orgeron took control of the Rebel program after serving the previous seven seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Southern California, where he played a key role in Pete Carroll's Trojans winning back-to-back national championships in 2003 and 2004. Orgeron also served as USC's recruiting coordinator from 2001-2004 and was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

Orgeron's talent as a recruiter created a buzz among Rebel fans and drew national attention when Ole Miss' 2006 signing class finished as high as ninth in the rankings. All three of his recruiting classes were listed among the best in college football.

NUTT LEADS REBELS TO CONSECUTIVE COTTON BOWLS

The Ole Miss football program sought a proven winner when Houston Nutt was introduced as the Rebels' 36th head coach on Nov. 28, 2007.

After guiding Arkansas to three SEC Western Division titles and eight bowl berths in his decade in Fayetteville, Nutt immediately reversed the Rebels' fortunes and guided Ole Miss to success that had not been experienced in Oxford in a half century.

Nutt's first two years at the helm produced consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time since 1961-62 and back-to-back January bowl victories for the first time since 1960-61.

In his first season in Oxford, Nutt led the Rebels to a 9-4 record (5-3 in the SEC), second in the West, a 47-34 win over Texas Tech in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic and a No. 14 final national ranking.

Rising as high as No. 4 in the national rankings in 2009, Nutt's Rebels knocked off No. 8 LSU, Tennessee and Arkansas en route to a second straight Cotton Bowl berth, in which Ole Miss prevailed over No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7. The Rebels finished 20th in the AP poll.

MISSISSIPPI NATIVE TABBED TO RETURN TITLES

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

He is the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first three seasons.

* First Overall Pick

Freeze guided the Rebels to their first nine-win regular season since 2003 and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Ole Miss was nationally ranked throughout the entire 2014 season, rising as high as No. 3 for the first time since 1964.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze's three-year tenure:

- 24-15 record
- Two bowl wins
- 22 weeks ranked in the nation's top 25
- At least one win over every other SEC West team
- Three straight top-15 ranked recruiting classes
- Three straight Vaught-Hemingway Stadium season ticket sellouts and season attendance records
- 77 graduated players

The foundation that was laid in 2012 and 2013 led the way for a memorable campaign last year. Ole Miss played in the very first of the inaugural New Year's Six bowl games - the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl vs. TCU. The Rebels got there on the strength of the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (16.0 ppg allowed) and wins over four 10-win teams (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis, Mississippi State) and three conference champions (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis). Freeze led Ole Miss to its most regular-season wins over ranked teams since 1969 and its highest national ranking (No. 3) since 1964.

October 4, 2014 will forever be remembered by Rebel Nation as the day ESPN's College GameDay and pop singer Katy Perry put Oxford in the national spotlight, and the Rebels knocked off the No. 1 Crimson Tide 23-17 for the program's first ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team.

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium is in the midst of a facelift that will provide Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. As part of the $150 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone is being renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites are all being refinished.

While those updates will be in place for 2015, the facility's biggest changes are in store for 2016, when the north side of the stadium will be transformed into an exciting new "front door," complete with a plaza and bell tower.

A green space will also extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove all the way to the new plaza. Closing in the north end zone seating will bring stadium capacity to 64,038 and put the polishing touches on one of the nation's elite college football facilities.

The tradition continues for a program with a proud and storied history.

NOTE: Blocked punts and loss of yardage credited to team rather than individual after the 1954 season. Averages for Hapes (3 blocked), Conerly (4), Wilson (2), Day (1), Hovious (5), and Dillard (1) adjusted to conform. Prior to 1965, punters not given credit for 20 yards (touchback) assessed when punt carried over goal line.

THE PERFECT TEAM

1962 ... The year stands as a benchmark of change in the life of Ole Miss.

Legendary Rebel Head Coach John Vaught and his football team not only put together the only perfect season in the history of Ole Miss football, but they also captured the Billingsley, Litkenhous and Sagarin ratings national titles and their fifth SEC championship. The season's highlight came when the Rebels were invited to the prestigious Sugar Bowl, where they defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks 17-13. Vaught garnered SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Those associated with the 1962 team donated the funds for the "Walk of Champions" arch, located at the entrance to the Grove near the Student Union plaza. The site is the route for the football team's traditional "walk through The Grove" on game days. It was dedicated in the fall of 1998.

The purpose of the arch is to remind all athletes that they play for national championships, SEC championships and Ole Miss pride. The names of the coaches, players, trainers and managers who won the hearts of Rebel fans with their spirit and tenacity are listed on a plaque.

"Joe Wilkins, Larry 'Leo' Johnson and I first discussed the idea of an arch in the fall of 1997 while we were visiting in the Grove, and we agreed to pursue it," said Samuel W. Owen of Nashville, a member of the 1962 team. "We want the arch to stand as a symbol of what can be accomplished with teamwork, loyalty and trust."

(NOTE: Modern Ole Miss records, dated from 1933, are presented elsewhere in the Rebel Football Guide. Few team records were kept prior to the formation of the Southeastern Conference. Individual statistical achievements can be presented, however, and the table above is an effort in that direction. Original material, if documented, will be welcome.)

THE LONGEST GAME

The November 3, 2001 contest between Ole Miss and Arkansas in Oxford kicked off at 6:06 p.m. (CT), and four hours and 14 minutes later, coaches, players, fans, media members and an ESPN2 national audience saw a game that will go down in the college football record books.

The Rebels and Razorbacks stood toe-to-toe in an epic, seven overtime battle, that saw the Hogs come out on top 58-56. It is tied for the longest OT game in NCAA history, and it remains the highest scoring game (both teams combined) on the Ole Miss all-time charts.

FIELD GOALS

Prior to 1959, modern-era college field goals were measured from the line of scrimmage to the goalposts. Since 1959, they have been measured from point of origin to the goalposts. To adjust, all goals kicked prior to 1959 were lengthened by seven yards. This rule was a suggested optional in 1958.

THE BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

The following is the background as to how the Ole Miss-Mississippi State football game came to be known as the "Battle of the Golden Egg" or even "The Egg Bowl." Many of the excerpts are reprinted from the book "Mississippi Mayhem," written by William Banner, III.

1926

Up until the 1926 meeting in Starkville, Ole Miss had only claimed five victories in the previous 23 football contests between the Rebels and Bulldogs. Thus, when Ole Miss claimed a 7-6 victory over then Mississippi A&M College, a celebration was due at Scott Field after that '26 contest.

Oddly, huge roars went up from both sides at the final whistle, not just from the Ole Miss stands. While the A&M players walked slowly off the field with heads bowed, wrote one newsman, the Maroon student section stood and sang the alma mater.

But on the east side, pandemonium. Well wishers rushed "like madmen onto the field," Webb Burke said in his 1957 interview. Some fans made a dash for the goal posts. Irate Aggie supporters took after the ambitious Ole Miss group with cane bottom chairs, and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered.

As explained by the Reveille, A&M yearbook, "A few chairs had to be sacrificed over the heads of these to persuade them that was entirely the wrong attitude."

As described in a story for the Commercial Appeal by Ben Hilbun, who one day would become president of the Starkville school, "The phantom of victory, that for thirteen years eluded Ole Miss, returned to the bearded Berserkers ... and they won over A&M, their traditional rivals, 7 to 6." Ole Miss students fought for the goal posts, he continued, "but were restrained."

Ole Miss fans couldn't believe their victory. Through all their 13 defeats since 1910 (they did not play in 1912, 1913 and 1914) they had only scored in three games, counted just 33 points to A&M's 327, an average of 25-3.

Injuries to players were expected. But not to spectators. Ole Miss and A&M students, shocked by the battle that erupted after the game, vowed that it must not happen again. The result was the Golden Egg, a trophy to cool the heat of battle, instituted the following season by joint agreement of the two student bodies.

1927

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Iota Sigma, an Ole Miss honorary activities fraternity. As thoughts of last year's game, Iota Sigma proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans. One proposal that was rejected was to send the goal posts to the winning side each year.

A&M approved the suggestion of an award, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg", would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Costs of approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. Ole Miss students held a tag day to raise funds.

The joint resolution of the two student bodies declared they agreed on the trophy "in order to effect a better understanding in athletic relations, to foster clean sportsmanship, and to promote a lasting tradition..."

A brand-new series between the University of Mississippi and Mississippi A&M College began on Thanksgiving Day, 1927; the first Battle of the Golden Egg.

Of course, it was the Ole Miss-A&M slugfest, played before a crowd of 14,000 for the first possession of the gold football which was to become symbolic of supremacy in this annual feud-battle.

It was actually the 25th meeting of the two combatants. And for the second time in four years it was Push versus Pass, a heavier line versus a lighter passing attack. And once again the Pushers prevailed, except this time the pushing team was Ole Miss. The score was 20-12.

Unlike the previous year's brawl ending, the 1927 game closed with a highly dignified ceremony, the first presentation of the Golden Egg. As previously agreed in the inception of the egg, the schools first sang their alma maters, Ole Miss, as winner, sang first. The captains of the two teams, presidents of the two student bodies and the heads of the two schools met in the center of the field. B.M. Walker, president of A&M, presented the trophy to Alfred Hume, chancellor of the University, who turned it over to Ole Miss captain Applewhite.

The Egg is one of the most treasured possessions of either school. It is engraved with the score of each year's game and stands in a place of honor. When a tie occurred, the previous year's winner kept it for the first half of the year, then it went to the other school.

1978

The Ole Miss-Mississippi State series took on a new twist in 1978, a season which saw the Rebels 4-6 and the Bulldogs 6-4 heading into the season finale. As Steve Doyle of the Jackson, Miss., Clarion-Ledger reported in the Nov. 20 edition, "In a year in which neither team will be remembered, the Battle of the Golden Egg is a bowl game. Intense, heated, unbelievable in its lore, this one is for supremacy of the season. Bragging rights, recruiting edges and sheer pride are the guts of it. Every cliché you've ever heard about a single game applies to it."

In 1978, with both teams apparently out of the bowl picture, Executive Sports Editor Tom Patterson decided to do something extra to spice up coverage of the annual grudge match, instructing his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was an award winning special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory over the highly-favored Bulldogs. In that game, John Fourcade made his first start at quarterback to become the first Ole Miss freshman since 1945 to receive the starting nod at the signal-caller slot. The special section was a big success and the die was cast. Patterson's idea, for the most part, has been continued by the paper since 1978. Although it's officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual bloodletting simply as the "Egg Bowl."

1983

In one of the series' most memorable battles, Ole Miss claimed a pulsating 24-23 victory over Mississippi State in Jackson, but it took some heroics on the part of the Rebels and a 40 miles-per-hour crosswind to decide the outcome. Down 17-0, Ole Miss got on the board when Timmy Moffett returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 1:21 remaining in the first half. However, the

Golden Egg Trophy Returns to Oxford: Led by career games from Jaylen Walton and Evan Engram, Ole Miss reclaimed the Egg Bowl with a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State to cap a 9-3 regular season, their best regular season since 2003.

Bulldogs added to their lead after the break, and the Rebels found themselves trailing 23-7 to start the fourth quarter. With the wind now at its back, Ole Miss utilized two fumble recoveries and an interception to take a late 24-23 advantage. But State made one last try and moved the ball to the Rebel 10 yardline with 24 seconds left. On fourth down, MSU kicker Artie Cosby attempted a 27-yard field goal, but as true as it was between the uprights, the ball never got there as the wind just slapped it down to give Ole Miss its first on-the-field winning season in eight years at 6-5 and a berth in the Independence Bowl.

1991

"The Battle of the Golden Egg" returned to campus in 1991 as Mississippi State hosted Ole Miss in Starkville. It marked the first on-campus meeting between the two teams since 1972. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford was the site of the 1992 game, which Ole Miss won, 17-10 thanks to a thrilling goal-line stand. The series continues to rotate between campus sites.

1995

Ole Miss rode a school-record rushing performance and a stingy second-half deficit to a 13-10 victory over Mississippi State to regain the Egg Bowl Trophy. The win gave the Rebels a winning season and head coach Tommy Tuberville a triumph over the school's biggest rival in his first Egg Bowl game. Dou Innocent rushed for a record 242 yards on 39 carries to help the Rebels overcome an early 10-0 deficit. The Bulldogs never entered Ole Miss territory in the second half.

1997

The 1997 contest provided another close contest and perhaps the most exciting finish ever in the series. Stewart Patridge hit Andre Rone for a 10-yard TD pass with 25 seconds left and then found Cory Peterson over the middle on the two-point conversion attempt to give the Rebels a 15-14 win over Mississippi State. The win propelled the Rebels to their first bowl game since the 1992 Liberty Bowl when they were rewarded with an invite to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich.

2000

Running back Deuce McAllister rushed for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead Ole Miss to a 45-30 victory on Thanksgiving Night. With it being Senior Night in Oxford, McAllister hooked up with fellow fourth-year Rebel Romaro Miller on a 20-yard halfback option TD toss. McAllister finished with 121 yards rushing on 24 carries, while Miller threw for 127 yards and ran for another 60. The win returned the Golden Egg to Oxford after a two-year absence.

2003

Eli Manning passed for 260 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Rebels to a 31-0 shutout win in his final regular-season collegiate game. The Ole Miss defense held the Bulldogs to only 91 yards passing and picked off one Mississippi State pass in Jackie Sherrill's final game as head coach on a rainy evening in Starkville. The win propelled the Rebels to the Cotton Bowl and their first 10 win season since 1971. The game was also the final of six straight Egg Bowls (1998-2003) played on Thanksgiving and televised nationally by ESPN.

2008

Jevan Snead threw for 213 yards and four touchdowns and Greg Hardy had three of Ole Miss' school-record 11 sacks, as the Rebels beat Mississippi State 45-0 in the most lopsided Egg Bowl in 37 years. The Rebels finished with a school-record minus-64 rushing yards allowed and 14 tackles for loss. Defensive end Greg Hardy and tackle Peria Jerry led the charge. Jerry had four tackles for loss, including two sacks.

2012

Paced by a three-touchdown performance from wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss defeated No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24. Moncrief had seven catches for a career-high 173 yards, the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Quarterback Bo Wallace threw five touchdowns on the night. The Egg Bowl win propelled Ole Miss to its first bowl berth in three years and provided momentum that later saw the Rebels earn a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt in January and land the best signing class in school history the next month.

2014

Bo Wallace passed for nearly 296 yards, Evan Engram had a career-high 176 receiving yards and Jaylen Walton rushed for a career-high 148 yards to lead the No. 18 Rebels to a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State. Of his 14 carries, none were bigger than a highlight-reel 91-yard touchdown run that proved to be the game-winning score for the Rebels. The Egg Bowl win capped a 9-3 regular season for the Rebels and earned them a berth in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

This year's "Battle for the Golden Egg" will take place on Saturday, Nov. 28, at Davis Wade Stadium in Starkville. The match-up will be the 112th meeting between the two schools and the 88th Egg Bowl.

OLE MISS BOWL HISTORY

Ole Miss has a proud tradition of bowling that dates back to 1935, including what once was a national record of consecutive bowl appearances — from 1957 to 1972. It is a high standard of excellence which present-day Ole Miss football teams continue to strive for.

Ed Walker coached the first Ole Miss bowl team, the high-scoring outfit of 1935 which outplayed, but was nipped by Catholic University, 20-19, in the 1936 Orange Bowl.

The next bowl for the Rebels was for the 1947 squad, a 12-year wait. But from there, with Coach John Howard Vaught at the Ole Miss helm, bowls came and kept coming after the Rebels following each season. Vaught took the Rebs to the ill-fated Delta Bowl in 1948, as the 1947 SEC Champions beat Texas Christian 13-9. Vaught had to wait until 1952 to go bowling again, but from that point forward, the Rebel mentor made post-season games a habit that was hard to break.

All-in-all, the Rebels participated in six Sugar Bowls, two Gators, one Cotton, two Bluebonnets, two Liberties, one Sun and one Peach during that run of 15 straight. Vaught's personal bowl record was 10-8, while Billy Kinard's 1971 Rebels, with a 9-2 record, earned a bid to play Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, which produced a 41-18 triumph.

Ole Miss dropped out of the bowl picture after that 1971 Peach Bowl appearance with Georgia Tech. When Billy Brewer became head coach prior to the 1983 season, the Rebels had not been bowling for 12 years. During Brewer's 11 years as head coach, Ole Miss went to five bowls, twice to the Independence, twice to the Liberty, and once to the Gator. Brewer was 3-2 as a coach in bowl games.

The Rebels returned to postseason action in 1997 for the first time since the 1992 Liberty Bowl, and for the first time under Tommy Tuberville, as Ole Miss was invited to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich., where they defeated Marshall 34-31.

The Rebels then followed with what was probably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season, as Ole Miss defeated heavily favored Texas Tech, 35-18, in the Sanford Independence Bowl in head coach David Cutcliffe's debut. Ole Miss went 4-1 in the five bowl games it played in under Cutcliffe as head coach, including three victories in the Independence Bowl, and one victory in the Cotton Bowl (2004).

Ole Miss returned to the Cotton Bowl in 2009 and 2010 under Houston Nutt, who led the Rebels to 47-34 and 21-7 victories, respectively.

Under first-year head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss defeated Pittsburgh 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl on Jan. 5, 2013. The Rebels set a number of BBVA Compass Bowl records, including most points scored by a team (38). Ole Miss followed that with a 25-17 win over Georgia Tech in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tennessee, on Dec. 30, 2013.

Editor's Note: Most of this section on Ole Miss' Bowl History was compiled and written by the late Billy Gates. Gates served as Sports Information Director at Ole Miss for 35 years until his death on Nov. 5, 1976. While serving as SID at Ole Miss, he helped promote 29 Rebels to All-America status in the sport of football and was a charter member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame.

1936 ORANGE BOWL

Catholic University 20
Ole Miss 19

Ray Hapes

In its inaugural bowl game, Ole Miss fell 20-19 to an opportunistic Catholic University squad from Washington, D.C., which at the time ranked as an Eastern power.

The Rebels held a 15-7 advantage in first downs and out-gained the Cardinal 265-172. However, Ole Miss was unable to overcome deficits of 13-0 and 19-7.

Catholic took a 7-0 lead after converting one of four Ole Miss picks on the day into a 51-yard scoring drive, capped by Bill Adamaitis' two-yard touchdown run.

The Cardinal increased its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter when Adamaitis connected with Speck Foley on a 48-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss would pull to within seven at 13-6 before halftime when Ned Peters ran 67 yards for a score.

The Rebels would hold Catholic without a first down in the second half; however, the Cardinal went up 20-7 by scoring a touchdown off a blocked punt.

Ole Miss would get two fourth-quarter scores for the 20-19 final. Dave Bernard scored on a one-yard run to make it 20-12 after the PAT attempt failed, and Herb Baumstein found Buster Poole for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

1948 DELTA BOWL

Ole Miss 13
TCU 9

Dixie Howell

Ole Miss recorded its first bowl victory with a 13-9 win over TCU in front of 28,120 at Memphis' Crump Stadium in the 1948 Delta Bowl.

Charlie Conerly passed for two fourth-quarter scores to rally the Rebels from a 9-0 deficit in their final game in an Ole Miss uniform.

Conerly's first touchdown pass was a 26-yarder to Joe Johnson to cut the Horned Frog's lead to 9-6.

After a Bobby Wilson interception, Conerly hit Johnson for 52 yards to the TCU 13. Conerly then found Dixie Howell from 13 yards for a touchdown. Bobby Oswalt, who missed on his earlier PAT attempt, was accurate his second time around to make it 13-9.

Red Buchanan then sealed the win with an interception at midfield to snuff out any TCU comeback attempt.

1953 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech 24

Jimmy Lear

In its first of eight Sugar Bowl appearances, seventh-ranked Ole Miss dropped a 24-7 decision to No. 2 Georgia Tech.

The Rebels, who brought an 8-0-2 mark into the contest, struck early. Wissy Dillard's four-yard touchdown run and Jimmy Lear's PAT gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead 3:45 into the game.

The Engineers would provide all the scoring the rest of the day. Georgia Tech got a touchdown and a field goal to take a 10-7 lead into intermission and then added a pair of touchdowns in the second half.

Georgia Tech would finish the year 12-0, and through the Sugar Bowl, had not been beaten in 25 starts.

Statistically, the game was even. Georgia Tech held a slight 16-15 advantage in first downs and a 295-287 edge in total offense. However, the Rebels were plagued by six turnovers.

1955 SUGAR BOWL

Navy 21
Ole Miss 0

George Harris

Navy shutdown an explosive Ole Miss offense en route to posting a 21-0 victory over the SEC Champion Rebels in front of 83,000 at the 1955 Sugar Bowl.

Ole Miss entered the game having outscored its opponents 283-47. However, the Midshipmen would outgain the Rebels 442-121, including holding a 295-78 advantage on the ground.

Navy took the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Joe Gattuso to take a 7-0 lead. The Midshipmen would carry the seven-point lead into halftime.

Navy would also score on its first possession of the second half, taking the kickoff and marching 86 yards. John Weaver's 16-yard touchdown pass from George Welsh capped the 11-play drive and extended the lead to 14-0.

Gattuso would complete the scoring with his second touchdown, a one-yard run in the third quarter.

1956 COTTON BOWL

TCU 13

Eagle Day

Quarterback Eagle Day led Ole Miss to its first major bowl win with a 14-13 victory over TCU in the 1956 Cotton Bowl.

Jim Swink staked the Horned Frogs to a 13-0 lead with touchdown runs of one and 39 yards.

Day got the Rebels going with a four-play, 66-yard scoring drive that resulted in Paige Cothren's three-yard TD run to make it 13-7 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter,

Day would engineer another 66-yard scoring match. A 13-yard pass from Day to Cothren on fourth down moved the ball to the Horned Frog 32. Two plays later, Day sprinted 25 yards to the five. Billy Lott then broke around right end for a five-yard touchdown and Cothren's PAT gave the Rebels a 14-13 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Eddie Crawford thwarted any comeback attempt by TCU with an interception. Day would then manage to run out the clock to secure the victory for Ole Miss.

Ray Brown

John Vaught's Ole Miss squad captured its first Sugar Bowl Championship in three attempts by trouncing the Texas Longhorns of the Southwest Conference, 39-7 in front of 77,484 on New Year's Day in New Orleans.

All-SEC quarterback Ray Brown rushed for 157 yards and two scores, including a 92-yarder in the fourth quarter, to earn the game's Outstanding Player Award.

Sophomore quarterback Bobby Ray Franklin added 64 yards rushing in nine carries and a touchdown, as the Rebels rushed for a total of 304 yards.

Ole Miss limited Texas to 206 yards of total offense and forced eight turnovers in the win.

1958 GATOR BOWL

Florida 3

Richard Price

Jim Anderson's one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter proved to be enough as Ole Miss knocked off Florida 7-3 on an over-cast day in the 1958 Gator Bowl.

The Rebels took the game's opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Florida would take the ensuing kickoff and score on Billy Booker's 27-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 7:44 left in the first quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the game.

The Gators had two opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A surprise quick kick by Florida's Bobby Joe Green traveled 76 yards to just outside the Rebel 10 to start the final period. Milton Crain, looking for someone to block, stumbled over the ball, and Dave Hudson covered for the Gators. Florida would move to the two, but Richard Price stuffed a fourth-and-goal attempt for the Gators.

After a short punt, the Gators took over at the Rebel 26 and advanced to the 15 before Bill Churchwell forced and recovered a fumble.

The two teams would then exchange punts, however, Jimmy Dunn bobbed a Rebel punt at the Florida 48 and Ole Miss recovered. The Rebels then ran out the final 3:10 of the game.

1960 SUGAR BOWL

LSU 0

Bobby Franklin

A little over two months after Billy Cannon's famous 89-yard punt return on Halloween night lifted LSU to a 7-3 win over Ole Miss in Baton Rouge, the second-ranked Rebels and third-ranked Tigers were rematched in the 1960 Sugar Bowl.

This time, Ole Miss made sure there would be no heroics from Cannon. The Rebel defense limited the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner to eight yards on six carries. The Tigers managed just 74 yards total on the night and were a -15 in the rushing department.

Ole Miss, led by Bobby Franklin's two touchdown passes, totaled 363 yards of offense and rolled to a 21-0 victory.

Franklin finished 10-of-15 passing for 148 yards and had touchdown passes of 18 yards to Larry Grantham and nine yards to George Blair in the second half. He would garner the game's Outstanding Player honor.

Ole Miss would finish the year 10-1 and was recognized as national champions by the Berryman, Billingsley, Dunkel and Sagarin ratings.

The 1959 squad would also go on to earn "Team of the Decade" honors within the SEC by the Associated Press.

1961 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 14
Rice 6

Jim Anderson

Ole Miss completed its 1960 National Championship season with a 14-6 win over Rice in the 1961 Sugar Bowl. With the win, the Rebels finished the year 10-0-1, with the only blemish coming in the fashion of a 6-6 tie with LSU in October.

Jake Gibbs scored both of Ole Miss' touchdowns with runs of eight and three yards. Gibbs' eight-yard scamper gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Owls used an 18-play, 77-yard scoring drive to make it 7-6 in the third. Butch Blaine completed the march with a two-yard run around the right end on fourth down. However, the PAT attempt failed, leaving the Rebels clinging to a one-point lead.

Ole Miss iced the game in the fourth quarter behind the running of Jim Anderson. Anderson's running helped set up Gibbs' three-yard score with 5:16 left.

Anderson finished the game with 59 yards rushing on 15 carries.

Following the game, Ole Miss was awarded the national title by the Football Writer's Association, and became the first SEC team to win the Grantland Rice Award.

1962 COTTON BOWL

Texas 12
Ole Miss 7

Reed Davis

Playing without All-America fullback Billy Ray Adams, Ole Miss became a 12-7 upset victim to Texas in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

Adams was injured in a car accident two days after the Rebels' 37-7 win over Mississippi State in November, after returning from Jackson to attend a touchdown club meeting.

Ole Miss came into the contest sporting a 9-1 record and having outscored its opponents 326-40. However, without Adams, the Longhorns made sure the Rebels didn't do damage through the air with All-America quarterback Glynn Griffing.

The Rebels held a 319-183 advantage in total offense, but couldn't overcome six turnovers, including five interceptions.

Griffing was 12-of-29 for 163 yards with three interceptions and a touchdown. Doug Elmore was intercepted twice in eight pass attempts.

Ole Miss' only points of the day came in the third quarter when Reed Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Griffing to make it 12-7.

1963 SUGAR BOWL

Arkansas 13

Louis Guy

Ole Miss completed a perfect 10-0 season with a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 1963 Sugar Bowl.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing was a near unanimous selection for the game's Most Valuable Player Award. He connected on 14-of-23 passes for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception to break Davey O'Brien's 24-year-old Sugar Bowl passing yards record.

As effective as Griffing was through the air, it was his one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and put the Rebels up for good.

The Razorbacks could only answer with a 22-yard field goal from Tom McNelly with 1:33 left in the third quarter.

Griffing's 33-yard touchdown pass to Louis Guy gave Ole Miss a 10-3 lead heading into the intermission.

1964 SUGAR BOWL

Alabama 12

Perry Lee Dunn

Four plus inches of snow fell on New Orleans the day before Ole Miss took the field against Alabama in the 1964 Sugar Bowl.

Under the slippery conditions, the Rebels and Crimson Tide combined for 17 fumbles, including nine lost. Unfortunately for Ole Miss, the Rebels would fumble 11 times and lose six.

Alabama would also intercept three Ole Miss passes en route to receiving four Tim Davis field goals and post a 12-7 win.

Ole Miss' lone score would come in the fourth quarter on a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Lee Smith to provide the 12-7 final.

The Rebels ended up with a 248-194 advantage in total offense, but most of the yards came too late. The Crimson Tide held a 112-34 edge in the first half to build a 9-0 halftime lead.

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome passed for 252 yards and a score, and scored on a one-yard touchdown run to lead the Golden Hurricane to a 14-7 win in the 1964 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherly spotted Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a one-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Rhyme's one-yard run tied the game at 7-7 heading into the half, and capped a 72-yard, eight play march by Tulsa.

Rhyme would strike again midway through the third quarter. His 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher put Tulsa up 14-7 and the Golden Hurricane defense would hold the rest of the way.

Tulsa limited Ole Miss to 217 yards of total offense, while the Golden Hurricane totaled 323.

Weatherly was 16-of-24 passing, but managed just 113 yards and was intercepted twice.

Mike Dennis rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 17 carries and also caught nine passes for 114 yards.

Jimmy Keyes' two field goals helped propel Ole Miss to a 13-7 win over SEC-rival Auburn before 38,607 in the 1965 Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

Auburn drove to the Ole Miss nine with 33 seconds left in the game, but Tiger quarterback Alex Bowden was sacked on fourth down.

Keyes' first field goal, a 42-yarder in the second quarter, gave Ole Miss a 3-0 lead. The Tigers would quickly answer with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tom Bryan with 6:58 left in the first half.

Ole Miss would take the lead for good in the third quarter when Doug Cunningham caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Jody Graves.

Keyes would later add a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the 13-7 margin.

Tailback Mike Dennis rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries for Ole Miss, and quarterback Jimmy Heidel added 72 yards on 16 attempts.

Texas 19
Ole Miss 0

Bruce Newell

Ole Miss entered the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl having recorded five shutouts and allowing only 46 points en route to an 8-2 regular season.

However, it was the defense of Texas that would shine in this match-up.

The Longhorns limited the Rebels to 208 yards of offense and posted a shutout in a 19-0 victory.

Texas had scoring drives of 89, 68 and 53 yards.

Ole Miss had only two scoring threats on the day. On the first, Jimmy Keyes' 43-yard field goal attempt was wide. Later in the third quarter, the Rebels were stopped on fourth down at the Texas eight.

Texas running back Chris Gilbert rushed for 156 yards on 26 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run to give the Longhorns a 12-0 lead in the third.

Doug Cunningham had 60 yards on 12 rushes for Ole Miss, and also caught three passes for 17 yards.

Mac McClure

The University of Texas at El Paso scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and used a stingy defense to hand Ole Miss a 14-7 loss in front of 34,685 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

After a scoreless first quarter, Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by quarterback Bruce Newell. After that, the Rebels could manage very little offensively.

The Miners would limit Ole

Miss to just 109 yards of total offense for the game.

Still, the Rebels carried a 7-0 lead into the final 15 minutes.

UTEP, though, would get a five-yard touchdown pass from Billy Stevens to Dave Karns to tie the score at 7-7 with 14:18 remaining.

The Miners would score the game-winning touchdown with 7:52 left when Larry McHenry found the end zone from four yards out.

1968 LIBERTY BOWL

Ole Miss 34
Virginia Tech 17

Steve Hindman

Ole Miss erased a 17-0 first quarter deficit to roll to a 34-17 win over Virginia Tech in the 1968 Liberty Bowl, in front of 42,206 on a bright, bitterly cold afternoon in Memphis.

Archie Manning's 24-yard touchdown pass to Hank Shows early in the second quarter put the Rebels on the board and trimmed the Hokies' lead to 17-7. Manning would later find Leon Felts for a 23-yard touchdown pass to pull Ole Miss to within three at 17-14 heading into the break.

Steven Hindman broke a 79-yard scoring run just 21 seconds into the third quarter to give the Rebels the first lead of the day at 21-17.

Ole Miss would also get a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown by Robert Bailey and a pair of Van Brown field goals.

Hindman finished with 122 yards rushing on 15 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Back.

1970 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 27
Arkansas 22

Bo Bowen

Junior quarterback Archie Manning passed for one touchdown and rushed for another to lead No. 13 Ole Miss to a 27-22 upset of No. 3 Arkansas in the 36th annual Sugar Bowl Classic.

Cloyce Hinton gave the Rebels a 27-12 lead with a 36-yard field goal in the third quarter, before the Razorbacks would begin to rally.

Arkansas received a 35-yard field goal from Bill McClard to cut the Ole Miss lead to 27-15 entering the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks then intercepted a Manning pass and took over at the Rebel 11. Two plays later, Bill Montgomery completed a six-yard touchdown pass to Bill Burnett to pull Arkansas to within 27-22 with 10:15 left.

Later, with 1:15 left in the game, Arkansas moved to the Ole Miss 36. Montgomery threw a strike to Chuck Dicus for 11 yards, however, Glenn Cannon's hit stripped Dicus of the ball and the Rebels recovered to secure the win.

Manning finished 21-of-35 passing for 273 yards with two interceptions. He also added 39 yards rushing to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

1971 GATOR BOWL

Auburn 35
Ole Miss 28

Archie Manning recorded 275 yards of total offense in his final game at Ole Miss, but it wasn't enough to rally the Rebels past Auburn, as the Tigers took home a 35-28 win in the 1971 Gator Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebels' 18th and final bowl appearance under head coach John Vaught.

Behind quarterback Pat Sullivan, the Tigers built a 21-0 second-quarter lead before Manning engineered two touchdown drives before the half to make it 21-14.

The two teams would then trade touchdowns in the second half.

Manning finished completeing 19-of-28 passes for 180 yards with an interception. He connected with Floyd Franks on a 34-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to make it 21-14.

Manning also added 95 yards rushing on 11 carries and scored Ole Miss' first points of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter.

Sullivan passed for 351 yards and two scores for the Tigers. He completed 27-of-43 attempts and was intercepted once.

1971 PEACH BOWL

Georgia Tech 18

Norris Weese

Ole Miss built a 38-6 halftime lead en route to a 41-18 win over Georgia Tech in the 1971 Peach Bowl, played on a soggy field at Atlanta Stadium.

The victory gave first-year head coach Billy Kinard a win in his first bowl game and completed a 10-2 season for Ole Miss.

Quarterback Norris Weese passed for 116 yards and added 32 rushing to earn the Most Valuable Offensive Player trophy. He gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a one-yard run and connected on an 11-yard touchdown pass to Riley Myers to make it 38-6.

Linebacker Crowell Armstrong took home the Most Valuable Defensive Player trophy.

Tailback Greg Ainsworth rushed for a game-high 119 yards on 28 carries.

1983 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 3

Andre Townsend

Ole Miss ended a 12-year drought with an appearance in the 1983 Independence Bowl. However, the Rebels return to the postseason wouldn't be a succesful one as nationally-ranked Air Force used three field goals from Sean Pavlich to forge a 9-3 win on a rainy evening in Shreveport, La.

The Rebels held in check a powerful wishbone attack by the Falcons, one which averaged more than 400 yards per game during the 1983 season. Ole Miss used a gallant goal line stand midway through the fourth quarter to stay within striking range.

Pavlich gave Air Force a 6-0 lead with field goals of 44 and 39 yards. The Rebels got on the board just before halftime on a 39-yard field goal by Neil Teevan with four seconds remaining.

Pavlich's third field goal of the night, a 27-yarder with 7:59 left in the third quarter, marked the end of the scoring.

Air Force held a 348-244 advantage in total offense and had a 37:13 edge in time of possession.

Buford McGee rushed for 11 yards on 22 carries for the Rebels.

The 1983 Independence Bowl marked Ole Miss' first bowl appearance under head coach Billy Brewer.

1986 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 20
Texas Tech 17

Mark Young

Mark Young passed for an Ole Miss bowl record of 343 yards to lead the Rebels to the first bowl victory in 15 years with a 20-17 victory over Texas Tech in the 1986 Independence Bowl.

Young would break five school bowl records, all held by former standout Archie Manning, on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. Young completed 31-of-50 passes and had 314 yards of total offense in 62 plays. All were new Rebel marks.

Ole Miss lead 17-7 at halftime as Bryan Owen hit a 21-yard field goal with one second left in the first half.

Texas Tech pulled to within 17-14 early in the third quarter when Merv Scurlak returned an interception 33 yards for a score. The Red Raiders then tied the game on Scott Segrist's 19-yard field goal with 14:52 left in the game.

Young and the Rebels would answer on the next possession with a 48-yard field goal by Owen with 12:16 remaining to break the 17-17 deadlock.

Air Force 29

John Darnell

In a game billed to be an offensive shootout, Ole Miss outlasted Air Force 42-29 in the 31st annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Chucky Mullins, the defensive back who was paralyzed in an October 28, game with Vanderbilt, visited the Ole Miss locker room prior to the game in his first trip outside Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis since the injury.

The visit seemed to energize the Rebels as they raced to a 28-9 halftime lead.

Liberty Bowl MVP Randy Baldwin rushed for 177 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns, and John Darnell passed for 261 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 55 first downs and 1,046 yards of total offense. Ole Miss held a 30-25 advantage in first downs, and a 533-513 edge in total yards.

Michigan rolled up 715 yards of total offense and broke open a 14-3 game with 21 third-quarter points to roll to a 35-3 win over Ole Miss in the 1991 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

The Wolverines entered the game 8-3, however, Michigan was a combined six points from being a perfect 11-0 and playing for the national championship in the Rose Bowl.

Michigan quarterback Elvis Grbac passed for 296 yards and four touchdowns, while wide receiver Desmon Howard caught six passes for 167 yards and two touchdowns.

Brian Lee accounted for Ole Miss' only points of the game, connecting for a 51-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 8:00 left in the second quarter.

1992 LIBERTY BOWL

Ole Miss 13
Air Force 0

Russ Shows

For the third time in 10 years, Ole Miss and Air Force faced each other in a bowl game. For the second time in four years, that match-up took place in the Liberty Bowl.

Behind the play of linebacker Cassius Ware, Ole Miss held Air Force to 185 yards of total offense to pitch a 13-0 shutout of the Falcons. The shutout marked the first time in 150 games that Air Force had been held scoreless.

Ware was credited with 10 tackles, including two sacks, to earn Liberty Bowl MVP honors.

Dou Innocent gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a five-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Rebels would then receive field goals of 24 and 29 yards from Brian Lee.

Innocent finished with 65 yards on 17 carries and Cory Philpot added 55 yards rushing on 10 attempts.

Quarterback Russ Shows completed 9-of-19 passes for 163 yards.

1997 MOTOR CITY BOWL

Ole Miss 34
Marshall 31

Deuce McAllister

Freshman running back Deuce McAllister's one-yard plunge with 31 seconds remaining lifted Ole Miss to a 34-31 win over Marshall in the inaugural Motor City Bowl, played at the Pontiac Silverdome.

The Motor City Bowl marked the Rebels' first postseason appearance after a four-year hiatus, and was Ole Miss' first under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Senior quarterback Stewart Patridge garnered MVP honors, passing for 332 yards and three touchdowns. He completed 29-of-47 passes and was intercepted once.

The Thundering Herd, of the Mid-American Conference, featured Chad Pennington. Pennington was 23-of-45 passing for 337 yards and three touchdowns, and Randy Moss caught six passes for 173 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 1,000 yards of total offense and the game featured six lead changes.

1998 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 35
Texas Tech 18

Romaro Miller

Sophomore quarterback Romaro Miller returned from a broken collarbone suffered three weeks earlier to pass for 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead Ole Miss to a 35-18 win over Texas Tech in the 1998 Independence Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebel debut of head coach David Cutcliffe, who was hired less than a month before the game from his offensive coordinator position at Tennessee.

Miller completed 14-of-23 passes and was intercepted once. His three touchdown passes set a new Independence Bowl record, and he also garnered Offensive MVP honors.

Junior defensive tackle Kendrick Clancy anchored an Ole Miss defense that limited the Red Raiders to 285 yards of total offense. Clancy would earn the bowl's Defensive MVP honors.

Sophomore running back Deuce McAllister scored three touchdowns on the evening. He scored on a 32-yard pass from Miller in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 14-7 lead. He later scored on a four-yard run to make it 28-10 and capped the scoring by returning an onside kick 48 yards with 38 seconds remaining.

1999 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 27
Oklahoma 25

Les Binkley

Les Binkley's 39-yard field goal as time expired lifted Ole Miss to a 27-25 win over Oklahoma, New Year's Eve night in the 1999 Sanford Independence Bowl. The contest was the final college football game of the 20th century.

The Sooners had taken a 25-24 lead with 2:17 left in the fourth quarter when Josh Heupel found Quenton Griffin for a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Deuce McAllister would return the ensuing kickoff 42 yards to the Ole Miss 43. He then reeled off runs of eight and nine yards to move the Rebels into Sooner territory and helped set up Binkley's game-winning field goal.

McAllister finished with 239 all-purpose yards, including 121 yards rushing on 17 carries. He broke an 80-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 21-3 half-time lead.

2000 MUSIC CITY BOWL

West Virginia 49
Ole Miss 38

Eli Manning

Redshirt freshman quarterback Eli Manning came off the bench to throw three fourth-quarter touchdown passes, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 49-9 deficit as Ole Miss fell 49-38 to West Virginia in the 2000 Music City Bowl. The game was the final one for Mountaineer head coach Don Nehlen's 21-year career at the school.

Leading 35-9 at the half, Shawn Terry returned the second half kickoff 99 yards to extend the West Virginia lead to 42-9. The Mountaineers then made it 49-9 on a 10-yard pass from Brad Lewis to Khorl Ivy.

Romaro Miller scored on a seven-yard run with 7:52 left in the third quarter to make it 49-16 before Manning would take over the offense.

In the final 15 minutes, Manning threw touchdown passes of 23 yards to Jamie Armstrong, 18 yards to Omar Rayford and 16 yards to Toward Sanford.

Manning's three touchdown passes tied an Ole Miss bowl record. He finished 12-of-20 for 167 yards and was intercepted once.

2002 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 27
Nebraska 23

Jesse Mitchell

Jonathan Nichols' 43-yard field goal with 4:36 remaining in the game helped Ole Miss post a 27-23 win over Nebraska in the 2002 Independence Bowl.

Junior quarterback Eli Manning completed 25-of-44 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors.

The Cornhuskers took a 17-7 lead with 2:43 left in the first half when Deluan Groce returned a punt 60 yards for a score.

Manning would engineer a nine-play, 88-yard drive in 1:11, capped by a one-yard run by Toward Sanford to pull the Rebels to within 17-14 at halftime.

Nichols tied the game in the third quarter with a 37-yard field goal and Nebraska answered with a 23-yard field goal by Josh Brown to take a 20-17 lead with 7:06 left in the quarter.

Sanford's second one-yard touchdown run of the day with 3:24 left in the third quarter put Ole Miss on top for good at 24-20.

2004 COTTON BOWL

Ole Miss 31
Oklahoma State 28

Eli Manning

After a 42-year hiatus, the Rebels made a triumphant return to Dallas as 16th-ranked Ole Miss claimed a 31-28 win over 21st-ranked Oklahoma State in the 2004 playing of the SBC Cotton Bowl.

Eli Manning led the charge for the Rebels as the senior quarterback and Heisman finalist passed for 259 yards and three touchdowns on his way to Offensive MVP honors as he rallied the Rebels from a 14-7 deficit in the second quarter.

Manning finished the day 22-of-31 with one interception and two touchdown passes.

With the victory, the Rebels celebrated their first Cotton Bowl appearance since 1962 with a win over a nationally ranked program from the Big 12 and capped off the first 10-win season for the program since 1971 and improved the Rebels to a 2-1 record in the Cotton Bowl.

2009 COTTON BOWL

Texas Tech 34

Jevan Snead

Behind Jevan Snead's passing, Dexter McCluster's squirming runs and some big returns by Marshay Green, No. 20 Ole Miss overcame an early deficit and beat No. 8 Texas Tech 47-34 Friday in the final Cotton Bowl played in the stadium of the same name.

The Red Raiders (11-2) converted a pair of early turnovers into a 14-0 lead, but Snead led the Rebels to touchdowns on their next three drives, followed by a go-ahead field goal shortly before halftime. Once Green returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter, Ole Miss (9-4) was well on its way to capping coach Houston Nutt's first season in grand style.

This was Ole Miss' sixth straight win, matching its longest streak since 2003, when Eli Manning was a senior. That also was the last time the Rebels had been to a bowl.

2010 COTTON BOWL

Ole Miss 21
Oklahoma State 9

Dexter McCluster

Dexter McCluster gave Ole Miss fans a finale to remember, rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

McCluster was the obvious standout, the game's offensive MVP for the second year in a row. He had 34 carries along with five catches for 45 yards. He leaves Ole Miss with 3,923 career all-purpose yards, second in school history behind Deuce McAllister's 4,889.

After becoming only Ole Miss' fourth 1,000-yard rusher on his third carry of the game, McCluster surpassed 500 yards receiving on the final play of the first quarter. Yet, his best was still to come.

McCluster's 86-yard TD run in the second quarter came on a handoff from freshman quarterback Nathan Stanley. McCluster went to the right and through a gap, running untouched for the second-longest run in the 74-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

2013 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Ole Miss 38
Pittsburgh 17

Bo Wallace

Six weeks after closing out its regular season by defeating No. 24 Mississippi State to bring home the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008, Ole Miss (7-6) took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. Freshman running back I'Tavious Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

The Rebels closed out the first half with a 31-yard field goal from Bryon Rose that gave the Rebels a 24-10 lead going into the break. Ole Miss' 24 first-half points tied the BBVA Compass Bowl record for most points scored in a half.

2013 MUSIC CITY BOWL

Ole Miss 25
Georgia Tech 17

Bo Wallace

Ole Miss junior quarterback Bo Wallace threw one touchdown and ran for two more, and the Rebels' defense held the Georgia Tech triple-option attack in check en route to a 25-17 victory at LP Field in the 2013 Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Rebels' victory was their sixth straight bowl victory, which is currently the longest in the country. Auburn and Florida State, which play each other in the national championship game Jan. 6, each have bowl winning streaks of five games.

Wallace, who was named the game's MVP, finished the game 22-32 for 256 yards, as well as a career-high 86 yards rushing on 13 carries. The Pulaski, Tenn., native's 342 total yards Monday pushed his season total to 3,701, topping Eli Manning's school record of 3,572 yards set in 2003.

Junior Donte Moncrief led the Ole Miss receiving corps with six catches for 113 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, junior linebacker Serderius Bryant and sophomore defensive tackle Issac Gross each had eight tackles, while freshman Tony Conner and senior defensive end D.T. Shackelford had seven tackles. Bryant led the Rebels with a team-high six solo tackles, and Gross recorded a team-high three tackles for loss.

2014 PEACH BOWL

TCU 42
Ole Miss 3

Senquez Golson

A dominant effort by No. 6 TCU on both sides of the ball was too much to overcome for No. 9 Ole Miss, as the Rebels (9-4) lost 42-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The nation's second-leading offense, the Horned Frogs scored early and often, and the defense suffocated the Ole Miss offense, holding the Rebels to a season-low 10 first downs and 129 yards of total offense.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson tied the school record with his 10th interception of the season, the 16th of his career, which is tied for third place in Ole Miss history. It also helped set up the Rebels' lone score of the game, a 27-yard field goal by freshman kicker Gary Wunderlich.

Playing in its third straight bowl game for the first time since 1998-2000, Ole Miss had its six-game bowl winning streak snapped, which was tied with Florida State for the longest in the nation.

NOTE: The overall record for each season includes bowl victories. However, the total points for each year through 2001 includes only regular-season contests. For the years the Rebels played in a bowl game prior to 2002, the points are not included because the NCAA did not count bowl game statistics.

OLE MISS PAGEANTRY

THE GROVE

When Billy Brewer became head football coach at Ole Miss in 1983, he was searching for a way to allow his team to experience the atmosphere and pageantry Rebel fans enjoyed in The Grove while tailgating on gameday. The Grove is a 10-acre grassy plot of ground in the center of campus that is heavily shaded by large oak trees.

Taking a different route two hours before kickoff each home game, Brewer would walk with the team from Kinard Hall, the athletic dormitory, across campus to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

In 1985, Brewer started going the same route each Saturday as the team would enter The Grove on the east side of the Student Union and proceed down a sidewalk that runs through The Grove. Ole Miss fans fight for position on both sides of the sidewalk and greet the players with loud cheers. The braver fans even reach out and touch the players as they pass before them.

In the fall of 1998, a "Walk of Champions" arch was erected on the east side of The Grove, where the Rebel players begin their walk for every Saturday home game. The "Walk of Champions" arch was given to the University by the 1962 Rebel football team, which is the only squad in Ole Miss football history to finish a campaign with a perfect record (10-0). The 1962 team won the SEC title and was also named National Champion by the Litkenhous Ratings.

What has become a tradition on Ole Miss football Saturdays continues under head coach Hugh Freeze.

The Grove and Ole Miss produce one of the most unique college football experiences in the South and nationwide. Sporting News ranked it among college football's greatest traditions and described The Grove as "the Holy Grail of tailgating sites." In listing America's top sports colleges, Sports Illustrated named Ole Miss the nation's No. 1 tailgating school.

Widely recognized as one of the best tailgating experiences in the country, The Grove has been featured in such publications as The New York Times, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

OLE MISS

The University's nickname — Ole Miss — became part of the institution over 100 years ago, in 1896, when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by the late Miss Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University and is now a treasured segment of University history. The late Frank E. Everett, Jr., B.A. '32, LLB '34, put it best when he wrote:

There is a valid distinction between The University and Ole Miss even though the separate threads are closely interwoven.

The University is buildings, trees and people. Ole Miss is mood, emotion and personality. One is physical, and the other is spiritual. One is tangible, and the other intangible.

The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regrettably terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss.

REBELS

The name REBELS emerged as Ole Miss' official athletic nickname in 1936. Suggested by Judge Ben Guider of Vicksburg, it was one of five entries submitted to Southern sports writers for final selection from a list totaling more than 200 proposed nicknames. The promotion was a contest sponsored by The Mississippian, the student newspaper. Of the 42 newsmen contacted, 21 responded. "Rebels" was the choice of 18. The University Athletic Committee made the name official with the Committee chairman, the late Judge William Hemingway, stating: "If 18 sports writers wish to use 'Rebels', I shall not rebel, so let it go 'Ole Miss Rebels.'"

RED & BLUE

In 1893, when Ole Miss' first football team was in training for a five-game season, Dr. A.L. Bondurant, organizer and manager-coach, later recalled that "the team had much discussion as to the colors that should be adopted, but it was finally suggested by the manager that the union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Navy Blue of Yale would be very harmonious, and that it was well to have the spirit of both of these good colleges." These were adopted as the football colors, and have since been adopted by the University as its athletic colors. The PMS numbers for the Ole Miss red and blue are as follows: Red 186, Blue 2767.

HOTTY TODDY

Are You Ready?
Hell Yeah! Damn Right!
Hotty Toddy, Gosh Almighty,
Who The Hell Are We? Hey!
Flin Flam, Bim Bam
Ole Miss By Damn!

Ole Miss

Rebel joined the Ole Miss Family in 2010-11. A student-led initiative to find a new on-field mascot concluded with the announcement of Rebel on Oct. 14, 2010, and he made his first public appearance April 5, 2011 at Blair E. Batson Hospital for Children in Jackson, Miss.

HOMECOMING AT OLE MISS

Homecoming at Ole Miss was formed as a weekend when alumni would reunite on the Oxford campus. It wasn't until 1924 that Homecoming became centered around a Rebel football game.

November 22, 1924, is recognized as the first official Homecoming football celebration at Ole Miss. On that day, the Rebels defeated Mississippi College 10-6. Since then, the Homecoming football game and Homecoming weekend have been an annual event at Ole Miss.

Homecoming is a tradition on nearly every collegiate campus. At Ole Miss, it holds a special place in the hearts of all University alumni and current students. In 1928, the University students felt it a privilege to invite all former graduates back to the Ole Miss grounds.

"We bid hearty welcome to the alumni on the campus today," wrote J.P. Dale, the editor of The Mississippian. "It is always a pleasure for the student body to receive you, and to attempt to make you feel at home here as of yore. There are many ties that bind the old grad to his Alma Mater, but the greatest of all the ties, and the one lasting tie, is that feeling of love and veneration of the traditions of Ole Miss."

The first Homecoming parade is believed to have taken place in 1930. That year, students held a pep rally followed by a huge bonfire where freshmen dressed in pajamas and joined the Ole Miss marching band as the procession continued on toward downtown.

The Homecoming parade, which has a wide range of participants from the University, still takes place today with the help of the Oxford community. The University celebrates by inducting five new members into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame. It also honors tradition by selecting a Homecoming Queen and her court.

The Rebels have found much success when hosting a foe on Homecoming. Entering this year's date with New Mexico State, Ole Miss owns an impressive 70-15-2 record in Homecoming games. The Rebels have won 26 of the last 31 Homecoming contests.

ALMA MATER

Way down south in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls

Where among the hills enfolded
Stand ole Alma Mater's halls

Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whisp'ring southern breeze

There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee,
All our loyalty in thine,

And we hail thee, Alma Mater,
May thy light forever shine;

May it brighter grow and brighter
And with deep affection true,

Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee,
Dear old Red and Blue.

May thy fame throughout the nation,
Thru thy sons and daughters grow,

May thy name forever waken,
In our hearts a tender glow,

May thy counsel and thy spirit
Ever keep us one in this,

That our own shall be thine honor,
Now and ever, dear Ole Miss.

Words by Mrs. A. W. Kahle
Music by W. F. Kahle '25
Rev. by Ruth McNeil '37

OLE MISS CREED

The University of Mississippi is a community of learning dedicated to nurturing excellence in intellectual inquiry and personal character in an open and diverse environment. As a voluntary member of this community:

I believe in respect for the dignity of each person
I believe in fairness and civility
I believe in personal and professional integrity
I believe in academic honesty
I believe in academic freedom
I believe in good stewardship of our resources

I pledge to uphold these values and encourage others to follow my example

CHARLIE CONERLY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ole Miss football stand-out Charlie Conerly was an unassuming man — never one to blow his own horn. He rarely celebrated after scoring a touchdown. He would simply hand the ball to the referee and trot to the sideline.

"Charlie was a shy man," said New York Giants teammate Frank Gifford. "He didn't want to stand out. He didn't even like trophies. He was very sensitive about receiving praise."

Off the field, Conerly also remained reserved. Perian Conerly said that her late husband wouldn't understand why the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship at the University of Mississippi was named in his honor, but he would be thrilled about the opportunity the scholarship provided.

"Charlie never would have gone to college without his football scholarship at Ole Miss," she said. "That opportunity changed his life."

One of the greatest football players ever to wear an Ole Miss uniform and a beloved alumnus, Conerly will be remembered for generations to come through the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship. The $100,000 endowment was set up by his wife for deserving student-athletes.

"The endowment is a widow's mite when compared to other donations, but it's a very important scholarship for future players," she said.

A Clarksdale, Miss., native, Conerly passed away Feb. 13, 1996, after a lengthy illness. Affectionately known as Chunkin' Charlie, the former quarterback thrilled Ole Miss fans as he led the Rebels to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in 1947 and a victory over Texas Christian University in the Delta Bowl.

Conerly earned three letters at Ole Miss, playing in 1942, 1946 and 1947, earning All-America honors his senior season and All-SEC accolades twice. He interrupted his undergraduate career to serve with the U.S. Marines in World War II.

After graduation, Conerly joined the NFL's New York Giants, leading them to the 1956 NFL Championship. He was named 1948 NFL Rookie of the Year and the League's Most Valuable Player in 1959. Conerly ended his career in 1961 with 1,418 career completions, including 173 touchdown passes. His Giants number 42 was retired in 1962. "Charlie had an incredible arm and a great feel for the game," said Gifford. "He was a tremendous athlete, and by the end of his career, he was a sports hero for New York." Perian Conerly authored "Backseat Quarterback" (Doubleday 1963), detailing the couple's experiences during his professional football years. After retiring, Conerly and his wife returned to Mississippi, and they often traveled to Oxford on football weekends.

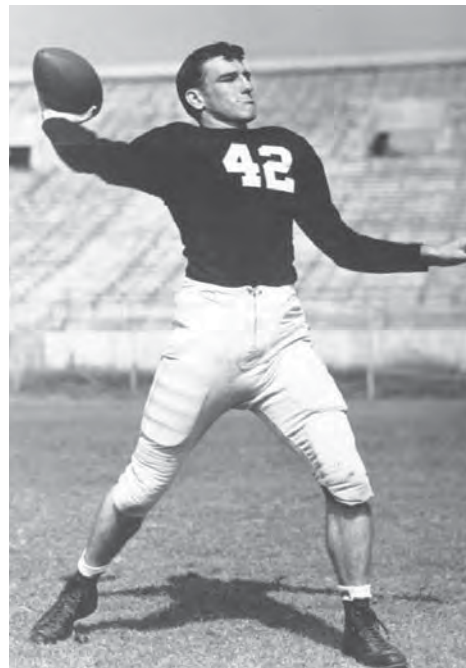

Conerly's honors include induction into the National College Football Hall of Fame, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame, and Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame. He also received the Distinguished American Award from the Ole Miss Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and was selected by Rebel fans as a back on the Ole Miss Football Team of the Century. As a college player, Conerly was also named the Atlanta Touchdown Club's SEC Back of the Year and the Nashville Banner's SEC Player of the Year.

A prestigious trophy named in his honor, the Cellular South Conerly Trophy, is awarded annually to Mississippi's most outstanding collegiate football player. Designed to be the Mississippi equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, the award is open to all Mississippi players, regardless of school size or position. The original bronze sculpture is permanently housed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Jackson, and a replica is on display at Ole Miss in Hollingsworth-Manning Hall, the school's athletics memorabilia area located on the second floor of the Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center.

J.W. "WOBBLE" DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

It's a funny thing about sports and nicknames. They seem to go hand-in-hand. Whether it's quarterbacks named "Easy" or line-men named "Slim", a nickname follows you for the rest of your life. Such was the case with J.W. "Wobble" Davidson.

Never one to let the spotlight hit him, Davidson spent three years playing left end for Ole Miss, before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He gave up the idea of playing pro football to enter the Marine Corps to fight in World War II. He never thought twice about it. He never even left Oxford, returning after the war to spend his days at the place he called home.

Davidson's love for Oxford and his alma mater proved just as great in his family life as it did in his professional life. A proud father of two, Wobble, his wife Sara, son Don and daughter Debra all attended Ole Miss. Davidson spent 11 years as head tennis coach and 23 years as the M-Club Advisor, mentoring student-athletes into productive members of society. He and his family even lived in the athletic dorms on campus.

It was his love for Ole Miss that the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship fund was established. Given to the children of former Ole Miss letterwinners, the scholarship helps make sure that those who love the University as much as Wobble will always have the opportunity for their children to attend Ole Miss.

Davidson graduated from Ole Miss in 1942, earning three letters in football, three in track and two in basketball for the Rebels. A member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame, Davidson also earned his master's degree from Ole Miss.

LARRY L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP

Larry L. Johnson of Jackson wants to help young men benefit from the same opportunity in life he received: a football scholarship to the University of Mississippi that enabled him to participate in the sport he loved while pursuing degrees for a successful career.

The retired BellSouth executive - whose football career at Forest High School in Scott County captured the attention of UM coaches - has established a scholarship endowment with more than $100,000. The first in his family to attend college, Johnson received an athletics scholarship that allowed him to earn two business degrees and play wingback and outside linebacker on three championship football teams (1961, '62 and '63).

Desiring to give back to his college and home community, Johnson's scholarship agreement stipulates that preference should be given to Scott County football signees when possible.

Known to the Ole Miss family as "Larry Leo," Johnson has been active in the M-Club alumni chapter for athletes. He served on the M-Club's board of directors and has organized and directed many team reunions. As Student M-Club president in 1963, Johnson helped establish the J.W. Davidson Scholarship fund to honor the legendary Ole Miss coach and has been a regular contributor since that time. He also is an Ole Miss Athletics Foundation member.

He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business and is a past chair of the Business Advisory Board at the UM School of Business Administration. He is a major contributor to the Business Order and has guest lectured under the business school's Otho Smith Fellows Program.

An active civic leader in Jackson, Johnson continues to give of his time and resources to the community in many areas since retiring from BellSouth in 2000 after 33 years as an executive with the company. Both of Johnson's sons, Rick and Scott, graduated from Ole Miss. Larry and his wife, Rita Parks Johnson, live in Madison, and they have a blended family of five, with multiple grandchildren.

JOEY EMBRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

During football camps under sun-drenched skies on the Oxford campus, Joey Embry decided he wanted to be an Ole Miss Rebel. In 1995, at the end of his stellar prep career at Bruce (Miss.) High School, the scholarship offer came.

Embry was a member of the Rebel football team for two years before his tragic death on May 19, 1998, when he drowned just months before he was expected to be a major contributor on the offensive line.

His Rebel teammates dedicated the 1998 season to his memory and wore Embry's name and number on their helmets.

Family and friends are keeping his spirit alive through the Joey

Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund, established to help student-athletes at The University of Mississippi. "I think Joey would be really proud of the scholarship fund," said his mother, Gwen Embry, "not because it is honoring him, but because it will help so many other students."

Embry's roommate and fellow teammate Bobby Killion, a former Ole Miss center, said, "Joey touched the lives of so many people while having an influence on those who came in contact with him. He was a great man and is missed by a lot of people. I know I'll miss him for the rest of my life."

Embry left a strong impression on the Ole Miss community, providing leadership both on and off the playing field. As a business administration major, he excelled academically, making the UMAA Honor Roll and the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He also was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

In addition to the scholarship fund, Weyerhaeuser Co. donated equipment to Ole Miss' Starnes Athletic Training Center in memory of the Ole Miss football player.

Individuals and organizations can contribute to the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund through The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677; phone 800-340-9542; e-mail umf@olemiss.edu.

WESLEY WALLS SCHOLARSHIP

Former Ole Miss All-America tight end Wesley Walls of Pontotoc, Miss., and his wife, Christy, have endowed a football scholarship at Ole Miss.

The $100,000 gift is used to provide a football scholarship to any Ole Miss signee from Pontotoc County.

Walls, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League, enjoyed a 14-year NFL career, playing with San Francisco and New Orleans prior to joining the Panthers. He retired in 2004 after one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"I received so much from Ole Miss, not only an education and a chance to play college football, but also as a person," Walls said. "I met my wife here and we truly love Ole Miss and her people. This scholarship represents a way to come back and help Pontotoc County. There are a lot of good athletes over there."

At Ole Miss, Walls earned four letters and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He came to Oxford in 1985 as a defensive end, but also played tight end his senior campaign when he became one of the nation's few two-way players in 1988.

Following his senior year, Walls was selected first team All-America at tight end by the Associated Press. He was also a first team All-Southeastern Conference pick, was selected Mississippi's Amateur Athlete of the Year and was chosen as one of three permanent Ole Miss team captains.

Off the field, Walls compiled a 3.41 GPA in General Engineering, earned Academic All-America honors, was a three-time Academic All-SEC pick, was selected Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, was named to the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was selected as one of 11 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes and was chosen to give the response at the awards dinner in New York City.

Walls finished his NFL career with 450 catches for 5,291 yards and 54 touchdowns. Upon his retirement, he was considered one of the premier tight ends in the game.

PARK STEVENS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Park Stevens, a native of Columbus, Mississippi, and a graduate of New Hope High School, walked on to the Ole Miss football team in the spring of 2013 after spending two seasons at East Central Community College. He participated in spring drills with the Rebels and was looking forward to his first season with a Southeastern Conference team. Stevens' hopes were cut short by a tragic automobile accident July 3, 2013, when Stevens died instantly at the age of 20.

"Park had such a magnetic personality. He didn't meet a stranger," former East Central Community College coach Brian Anderson told The Clarion-Ledger. "He was just an outstanding young man. He just had personality for days."

"He was a tremendous young man that was loved by his teammates and coaches, and Rebel Nation will never forget him," said Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze. "Our thoughts and prayers are with the Stevens' family, his friends, our team and all those he touched during his life."

His parents, Dean and Gail, established the Park Stevens Memorial Scholarship Fund with the UM Foundation in his memory. Gifts may be made by sending a check with the fund noted in the memo line to the UM Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, Miss. 38677; or by visiting www.umfoundation.com/makeagift.

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM/HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

On the southeast side of the University of Mississippi campus stands historic Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, a landmark of Ole Miss tradition and an anchor for the strong future of Rebel Football.

The stadium has received several upgrades in the last two years and will undergo a significant expansion in the near future.

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium is in the midst of a facelift that will provide Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. As part of the $150 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone is being renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites are all being refinished.

While those updates will be in place for 2015, the facility's biggest changes are in store for 2016, when the north side of the stadium will be transformed into an exciting new "front door," complete with a plaza and bell tower.

A green space will also extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove all the way to the new plaza. Closing in the north end zone seating will bring stadium capacity to 64,038 and put the polishing touches on one of the nation's elite college football facilities.

Upgrades leading up to the 2013 season included removing of sideline platform and bricking the east and west side facade, a team halftime locker room and the addition of two on-field suites.

A major enhancement to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium was a $6 million integrated system featuring a large high definition video display that was installed at the open of the 2008 season. The Daktronics video display is one of the largest true high definition displays in the Southeastern Conference. A new sound system rounded out the upgrades.

In 2009, FieldTurf synthetic grass was installed on the stadium's playing surface (it was natural grass from its beginning until 1970; Astroturf from 1970-84; natural grass again from 1985-2002; and AstroPlay synthetic from 2003-08). Although Ole Miss was the first SEC school to install FieldTurf in its stadium, more than 100 top NCAA programs play or practice on the top-of-the-line surface, as well as 21 NFL and several MLB teams.

The stadium increased its capacity to 60,580 in 2002 with the bowling in of the south end zone, making it the largest facility in the state.

With the additional seating, the Rebels have set record-breaking attendance figures over the last nine years, drawing all 10 of the largest crowds in school history. The momentous Ole Miss-Alabama encounter in 2009 attracted a crowd of 62,657, the largest ever to watch a football game on campus in Mississippi. The Rebels' matchup with LSU in 2003 gathered 62,552 fans, and the 2004 Tennessee game drew 62,028.

The stadium, known as Hemingway Stadium for much of its existence, began its long historic life in 1915 when students at the University helped in the construction of the first football grandstand at the site of the present field. The construction of the stadium and its permanent foundation was a three-year (1939-41), federally-sponsored project. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24,000.

During the summer of 1988, the stadium received a major facelift, highlighted by a new press box, new aluminum sideline seating and a club level section for 700 people. Renovations continued in the summer of 1990 when lights were added to the stadium. A Sony JumboTron scoreboard/message center was added for the 1997 season.

In 1998, the Guy C. Billups Rebel Club Seating area was completed, placing an upper deck on the east side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The addition, which includes a special seating section with an enclosed concession and lounge area, pushed capacity to over 50,000.

The stadium is named for the late Judge William Hemingway (1869-1937), a professor of law and longtime chairman of the University's Committee on Athletics. On Oct. 16, 1982, John Howard Vaught saw his name added to the stadium. Vaught compiled a 190-61-12 record as head football coach at Ole Miss and brought the Rebels National Championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. At the 1998 season opener vs. Memphis, the field was named in honor of Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth for his continuing generous support to Ole Miss Athletics.

MANNING CENTER

Among the finest facilities in all of college athletics, the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center at Ole Miss is the crown jewel in the growing athletics compound surrounding Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss named the facility in honor of the Mannings in 2013, recognizing their extraordinary contributions to the University of Mississippi.

The renovation and expansion of the Manning Center was made possible by gifts to the Forward Together Campaign. In partnership with Ole Miss Athletics, the Manning family and the family of Billy Van Devender made significant contributions to the campaign in order to honor Olivia and Archie in this special way.

"The Manning Center speaks a great deal to our donor support, our athletics tradition and the future of our program," said Ole Miss athletics director Ross Bjork. "I have been all over the nation, and this is one of the most impressive out there. We are excited about the numerous enhancements we've made to this facility, and it will continue to serve as a tremendous recruiting asset for all of Ole Miss Athletics."

Located beside the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels moved into the spectacular $18 million multi-purpose structure in fall 2004.

As part of the Forward Together campaign, a $12.5 million renovation and expansion commenced in early 2013. The project was built in phases and completed in early 2014.

Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall that is part of the Ole Miss dining program and open to every student, faculty and staff member. The "Grill at 1810" provides a nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes. The Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room was constructed on the north end of the facility lawn between the building and the south end zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. It seats approximately 200, doubling the capacity of the previous team room, and the meeting area was outfitted with state-of-the-art audio/video equipment and coaching software. Adjacent to the team room is a new head coach's office, putting all of the staff on the same level in the renovated coaching suite.

With the construction of the team room, a new front door and recruiting room was erected on the site of the old team room and pays tribute to the contributions of Ben Williams and James Reed, Ole Miss' first two African-American football student-athletes. The Williams-Reed Football Foyer celebrates the rich tradition of Rebel football with recruits, alumni and fans with interactive exhibits and memorable images from the program's history.

The existing weight room was expanded on the east side of the Manning Center, widening the area by 2,000 square feet. On the west side, the locker room was overhauled and enhanced to include new player lounges and renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room. Also, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room has been renamed to honor the memory of the late Thomas J. Mattingly and his family. AECOM, CDFL and Tipton & Associates were the architects of the renovations and expansions to the Manning Center.

FEDEX ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

Since May 2007, Ole Miss student-athletes have benefited tremendously from their first-class on-campus learning environment - the FedEx Student-Athlete Academic Support Center.

FedEx Corporation announced on April 14, 2005, a $2.5 million gift over five years to the University of Mississippi to create such an elite academic support center for student-athletes.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

"FedEx has always been a strong supporter of educational initiatives at all levels," said Mike Glenn, executive vice president of marketing development and corporate communications. "This contribution to the University of Mississippi is an extension of our commitment to helping improve the academic resources available to students, and student-athletes in particular."

Glenn said FedEx and Ole Miss are committed to providing a strong academic foundation to enable students to reach their full potential.

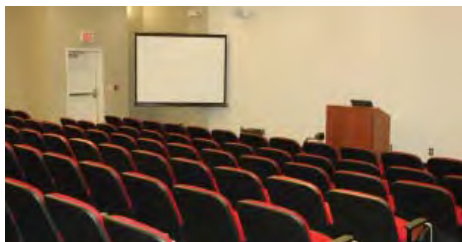

"The FedEx Center is one of the best academic facilities in college athletics," said Athletics Director Ross Bjork. "It is the lifeblood of our student-athlete development and the chief recruiting tool for Ole Miss Athletics. Students come first in everything we do, and we cannot thank FedEx enough for their leadership and commitment."

The money was used to renovate a portion of the Starnes Athletic Center—which formerly housed football locker rooms, a weight room and training facilities—next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on All-American Drive. The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In accepting the FedEx gift, university officials said the new center provides an important link in the university's goal to compete at the highest level in every aspect of its intercollegiate programs.

"American public universities are the best in the world largely because of the generosity of American corporations," said then-UM Chancellor Robert Khayat. "FedEx sets the standard for philanthropy by which others are measured. In this case, Ole Miss student-athletes are the primary beneficiaries, but all our students will benefit and, as a result, our entire state benefits."

In addition to its latest gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

STARNES ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Every aspect of Ole Miss athletics is geared toward the success of its student-athletes. The Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center provides a valuable role in the development and display of that success.

The multi-purpose Starnes Center has undergone many transformations through the years. It currently houses Ole Miss Sports Medicine, FCA and CHAMPS Life Skills headquarters and includes a 10,000-square-foot weight room and a sizeable memorabilia collection.

Formerly the Doc Knight Field House, the Training Center stands just north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and within walking distance of Tad Smith Coliseum, Swayze Field and the main athletics office complex.

The primary training room on the Ole Miss campus is used by several Rebel sports. The training area has four offices for the athletic training staff, room for at least 13 treatment tables, six taping stations and countless rehabilitation equipment. It also contains a wet room with a whirlpool that help make up an environment for top-notch care and injury prevention for Rebel athletes.

The facility extends to the east into a similar structure which holds a massive weight room, a lobby, a conference room and offices. Connected to the west end is the FedEx Academic Support Center, a state-of-the-art complex opened in May 2007.

Starnes, the building's benefactor, donated $1 million toward the facility as part of an extensive $2.5 million renovation in 1995. A 1968 Ole Miss graduate, Starnes is president of Tennessee California Express, Inc., a transportation company.

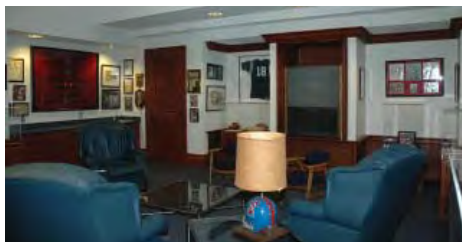

Much of the history and the many accolades of Rebel athletics are displayed in two rooms on the second floor of the Starnes Center that make up Hollingsworth-Manning Hall.

The larger room is divided into four zones, with the North Wing reserved to honor the nine Ole Miss Rebels in the College Football Hall of Fame. The East Wing spotlights the 46 Ole Miss first-team All-Americans as well as Hall of Fame Coach John Vaught and the legacy of Chucky Mullins. The West Wing is reserved for baseball, track, tennis and golf All-Americans as well as Bruiser Kinard, the only player in Ole Miss history inducted into both the College and Professional Football Hall of Fame. The South Zone honors Ole Miss All-Americans in men's and women's basketball as well as C. M. "Tad" Smith, who played and coached at Ole Miss and also served as Athletics Director.

The smaller room of Hollingsworth-Manning Hall is devoted entirely to an impressive memorabilia collection from the family of Ole Miss legend Archie Manning, which includes items of all three sons, Cooper, Peyton and Eli. The focal points of the exhibit are Super Bowl MVP photos of both Peyton and Eli hoisting the Lombardi Trophy.

Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth, an Ole Miss alumnus and general practitioner in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, joined forces with former Rebel quarterback Archie Manning to establish the recruitment/memorabilia center. It is faithfully maintained and updated by Langston Rogers, Special Assistant to the Athletics Director for History.

OLE MISS ATHLETICS FACILITIES

OXFORD-UNIVERSITY STADIUM/SWAYZE FIELD

Ole Miss boasts one of the nation's premier college baseball venues. Mike Bianco's Rebels have annually ranked among the top five in college baseball attendance, while hosting six NCAA Regionals and three Super Regionals.

THE PAVILION AT OLE MISS

Home to the Ole Miss men's and women's basketball teams, the Pavilion at Ole Miss is slated to open in January 2016 and is a 9,500 seat, state-of-the-art facility nestled next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

FORWARD TOGETHER: Ole Miss Athletics' capital campaign includes construction of a new basketball arena (nearing completion) and bowling in football's north end zone.

OLE MISS TRACK &amp; FIELD COMPLEX

Undergoing a complete renovation, expected to finish in 2016.

OLE MISS SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Ole Miss' impressive softball field and hitting facility played host to the 2011 SEC Softball Tournament.

TUOHY CENTER

Opened in 2010, this $13 million, 51,000-sq.-ft. facility includes team rooms, offices and two practice courts.

GILLOM CENTER

The center of the Ole Miss women's sports complex is a championship venue for volleyball and indoor tennis.

OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

Known for its immaculately kept pitch, Ole Miss soccer boasts a beautiful facility adjacent to the GilloM Center.

PALMER-SALLOUM TENNIS CENTER

Dramatic enhancements were made in 2012 to what was already one of the nation's top tennis facilities.

OLE MISS GOLF COURSE

The Rebel golf teams enjoy a recently renovated short-game facility adjacent to the Whitten Golf Center.

PATRICIA C. LAMAR CENTER

The Patricia C. Lamar National Guard Readiness Center is easily one of the top college rifle facilities in the nation.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Opened in 2008, this luxurious facility is home to most of the major departments within athletics administration.

REBEL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

MISSION

The mission of this strength and conditioning program is to prepare athletes to adapt and thrive under the stress load of practicing and competing in football - with specific consideration of the relevant biomotor abilities, metabolic demands, psychological factors and injury risk associated with the sport.

We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish. We will attack this mission with a scientifically supported, comprehensive approach and specific considerations of the metabolic demands and injury risks of our sport. Training must prepare the athlete for the specific competitive stress load of their sport.

Top priority is to improve high speed, loaded and unloaded, total body coordination and mechanical efficiency. We will imitate the demands of football by striving to produce as many maximal or near maximal contractions as often as possible in training. Our team must be conditioned to handle and thrive at a relentless, up tempo pace. Everything we do in training is done to help the athletes more efficiently execute the movement requirements of their sport. We will demand discipline, intensity and intelligent effort while we work towards improving physical capabilities. We will cultivate a high energy environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish.

The environment in the weight room must be one of high effort, intensity and excitement. An attitude will be established through training that will carry over onto the playing field. Discipline, hard work and vigor will become permanent traits of the athletes.

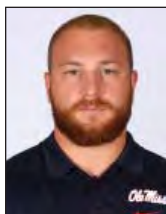

There are no greater facilities at which to train athletes than the majestic Manning Center. When entering the Manning Center's newly renovated 20,000-square-foot weight room, the Ole Miss players are quickly reminded of the championship philosophy that head football strength coach Paul Jackson and the Rebel staff set forth. The facility, which is entering its 11th year of existence, is enhanced with visual messages and houses state-of-the-art training equipment. Besides the hundreds of weights, the room also contains a variety of Hammer Strength machines, numerous Life Fitness cardiovascular machines and a fully-stocked nutrition center.

With the Manning Center's full-sized indoor practice field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

HEALTH AND SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Under the leadership of athletics director Ross Bjork, Ole Miss launched the unique and comprehensive Health and Sports Performance program in July 2012, which takes a holistic approach to providing optimal health care for the demands of elite student-athletes. Through a complete collaboration between all services provided in the Health and Sports Performance model, Ole Miss is ensured not only healthy student-athletes, but ones that can achieve peak performance. These services include strength and conditioning, athletic training, team physicians, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports psychologist and sports nutrition.

"Our team of Health and Sports Performance professionals strive to provide quality health and sports performance services based on the latest in health and strength training research," said Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate A.D. for Health and Sports Performance. "By doing this we hope to not only provide our student-athletes with a better chance of winning on the field but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

Ole Miss Health and Sports Performance has strong working relationships with student health services, local physicians and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi, which is located just miles from the Oxford campus. The department also taps into its own University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson for world-class treatment from multiple specialties including orthopedics, neurology and cardiology.

The Rebels enjoy a partnership with a team of orthopedic surgeons that includes: Daniel Boyd, M.D.; Kure Luber, M.D. and Cooper Terry, M.D., from Oxford Orthopedic and Sports Medicine, as well as William Geissler, M.D. and Bob McGuire, M.D., from the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Jeff Dennis, M.D., also provides primary care services as a part of the Internal Medicine Associates of Oxford.

Ole Miss' athletic trainers begin treatment and rehabilitation as early as 6 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is finished with practice or competition. There are currently six athletic training facilities on campus with the two main athletic training rooms located in the Starnes Athletic Training Center and the Manning Center. In addition, there are four satellite athletic training rooms located in Tad Smith Coliseum, Tuohy Basketball Center, Gillom Sports Center and Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

The main athletic training rooms are stocked with equipment such as digital x-ray systems, stationary bikes, laser therapy equipment, therapeutic modalities, underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care but also aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible.

OLE MISS ATHLETICS

VISION

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics at The University of Mississippi will strive to be the number one academic and athletics program through the strong emphasis of core values and the opportunity to experience athletic pursuits at the highest level.

PURPOSE

The ultimate purpose of the Ole Miss Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to develop students to their fullest potential through athletics.

CORE VALUES

Academic Excellence
Integrity
Social Responsibility
Student-Athlete Welfare

University Integration Community Engagement
Competitive Excellence

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics.

Led by Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development Derek Cowherd, the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support is committed to helping all Ole Miss student-athletes achieve academic success. Cowherd is assisted by two associate directors, three assistant directors, five full-time academic counselors, three learning specialists, one tutor coordinator, four interns and numerous tutors and academic mentors.

The mission of the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center is to promote academic excellence and provide quality developmental and need-based programs to help student-athletes become independent and self-reliant learners. In an environment that promotes student development, the staff provides programming and support for all student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus through graduation and beyond. The staff provides resources, experience and knowledge empowering each student-athlete to reach his/her academic, career and personal potential. The FedEx staff pursues this mission by promoting academic success with integrity, strict adherence to university, SEC and NCAA rules, and a dedication to excellence.

Ole Miss has a long history of academic success among its football players, ranking first among Southern schools in Academic All-America selections. Last year, Ole Miss football had more than its share of student-athletes named to the school's various academic honor rolls, while placing 27 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. A total of 20 football players graduated from Ole Miss in 2014-15, with three of those still retaining eligibility for the upcoming season. Deterrian Shackelford was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete semifinalist and was inducted into the Hampshire Honor Society.

The Rebel football program boasts 24 Academic All-America selections in its storied history, including most recently Rob Robertson and Cody Ridgeway in 2005. Robertson, a linebacker and team captain, was also named the H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The Rebel program has had a pair of players inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and most prestigious undergraduate honors organization - Chad Pilcher in 2004 and Ben Boatright in 2003.

Among all sports, Ole Miss had 165 student-athletes named to the SEC Academic Honor Rolls in 2014-15. With Ole Miss athletics taking its place amongst the best in the nation, the Student-Athlete Academic Support staff hopes that Rebel graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - LIFE SKILLS

Student-Athlete Development - Life Skills is a well-rounded program to challenge our student-athletes to be lifelong learners while pursuing continuous improvement academically, relationally, socially, personally, and professionally during and beyond their careers as student-athletes.

Jennifer Saxon
Assistant AD/Student-Athlete Development

Jessica Rizzi
Coordinator for Student-Athlete
Development

Under the direction of Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development Jennifer Saxon and coordinator Jessica Rizzi, the program consists of these five vital components:

- The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through a full range of services that include orientation, advising, tutoring, academic skills training and the recognition of academic excellence.

- The Commitment to Athletic Excellence is developed by the department's 10 women's and eight men's intercollegiate sports teams. The sponsorship is based on equity and compliance to all University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules and regulations.

- The Commitment to Career Development is a joint effort of the Ole Miss Athletics Department and Career Center. The goal is to prepare student-athletes for their transition out of sports and into the career development process. Career development components of the program include special workshops and programs for student-athletes and a senior resume brochure.

- The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through life skills and personal development seminars and sponsorship of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

- The Commitment to Service is promoted - in conjunction with the University Counseling Center - through many community service projects throughout the year. Ole Miss student-athletes are very involved in the community as the community service program continues to grow.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

BOOSTER

A representative of the institution's athletics interests (booster) is an individual, independent agency, corporate entity or other organization who is known to have been involved in promoting the institution's athletics programs, made financial contributions to the athletics department or booster organizations or provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes and/or their families. For example, you are a booster if you have donated to the QB Club, purchased season tickets or employed a student-athlete.

EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a booster to provide a student-athlete (or their family) a benefit that is not generally available to other University students or is not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of extra benefits include tickets to sporting events/concerts, reduced cost housing, meals, discounts on services, use of a car, etc. Extra benefits will jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility.

WHO IS A PROSPECT?

A prospect is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above (seventh grade for men's basketball), is attending prep school or junior college or who has withdrawn from a four-year college and plans to transfer. A prospect remains a prospect until they enroll and attend classes for a regular term (i.e. not summer) at the University. This means a prospect remains a prospect even after verbally committing or signing a National Letter of Intent.

WHAT IS INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL?

Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA legislation. A University is required to educate boosters on NCAA rules and regulations and monitor the athletics program for adherence to those rules. The University is responsible for the actions of its alumni, boosters and fans. If you have any questions or concerns please contact our office at 662-915-1594.

For current NCAA news and rules follow us on Twitter @RebelCompliance or visit the Compliance web page at www.olemisssports.com.

DR. MORRIS H. STOCKS | ACTING CHANCELLOR

Morris H. Stocks serves as acting chancellor and professor of accountancy. Immediately before assuming acting chancellor responsibilities, Stocks served the university as provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs for seven-and-a-half years. Stocks also served as senior vice chancellor for planning and operations.

From 2002 to 2006, Stocks held the position of dean of the Patterson School of Accountancy. During his tenure as dean, the Patterson School was ranked as one of the top 25 accounting programs in the country for the first time in its history. Before being named dean, Stocks was the university's associate provost for three years, with responsibilities for the academic budget and undergraduate curriculum. He received his undergraduate degree in accounting from Trevecca Nazarene University, his master's degree from Middle Tennessee State University and his Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina. He is a Certified Public Accountant in the state of Mississippi.

He has been a member of the University of Mississippi faculty since 1991 and remains active in the teaching and research missions of the accounting program. He is the 1998 recipient of the university's most prized teaching honor, the Elsie M. Hood Outstanding Teacher Award. Stocks' primary research interest relates to financial accounting issues on the decision-making process of users of accounting information. He has published in many of his profession's top academic and professional journals.

Stocks and his wife, Cindy, have four adult children.

ROSS BJORK | ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Ross Bjork was announced on March 21, 2012 as the seventh full-time Director of Athletics at Ole Miss and at age 42, is the youngest AD among power five conference institutions. In just three years, Bjork's tenure with the Rebels has produced energetic hires, structural progress, team success and a new spirit surrounding Ole Miss Athletics.

Bjork set the tone early by hiring one of the country's top rising coaches in Matt Insell (women's basketball) and has since brought Steven McRoberts (volleyball), Mike Smith (softball), Chris Malloy (men's golf) and Kory Henkes (women's golf) on board, while promoting Toby Hansson, one of college tennis' best assistant coaches, to head men's coach. He also appointed three executive level administrators for external relations, academic support and facilities/game operations.

The external relations post was a new umbrella position at the center of Bjork's reorganization of that area of Ole Miss Athletics, including the Foundation, ticket operations, marketing and communications and the relationship with Ole Miss Sports Properties. Progress has continued in that division with the re-branding of the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation and a partnership with new multi-media rightsholder, IMG Properties.

Bjork also created the unit for Health and Sports Performance, which combined sports medicine, strength and conditioning, nutrition and counseling services and added a local orthopedic sports medicine component that provides primary sports medicine care for all student-athletes.

Bjork's vision in facilities resulted in a development plan for the Manning Center, which was renamed to honor Olivia and Archie Manning. The $12.5 million renovation included the Grill at 1810 (a full service dining facility), the Williams-Reed Football Foyer, Burns team meeting room, VanDevender Family locker room, weight room, player lounge and visuals throughout the complex.

Ole Miss has enjoyed unprecedented support under Bjork. The 2015 campaign marks the third straight to sell out of football season tickets, while season attendance records have been shattered each of the last two seasons. Baseball finished second in the nation in attendance in 2015, extending a streak of 10 straight seasons in the top five. The athletics budget has risen from $62 to $96 million, and donations received for 2014-15 reached a record high of $35 million. As of June 2015, the Forward Together capital campaign has risen from $62 to $137 million in cash and pledges toward its goal of $150 million. Campaign plans include the Pavilion at Ole Miss to open during the 2015-16 season, a north end zone expansion and suite renovations at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, renovation of the Gillom Center, FedEx Academic Support Center and Starnes Athletic Training Center, as well as other future projects.

Bjork's leadership has also translated to immediate success in the competitive arena. In 2014-15, Ole Miss was one of only two schools in the nation to make a "New Year's Six" bowl and the NCAA Tournament in men's basketball and baseball. The football team's bowl berth marked their third in Hugh Freeze's first three seasons, which was preceded by a two-year postseason drought. The staff also assembled a top-five recruiting class in 2013, the highest ranked in school history.

Other highlights include the first College World Series appearance in 42 years, as the baseball team reached the final four in Omaha and captured the SEC Western Division title in 2014. After a 10-year absence, men's basketball has advanced in the NCAA Tournament two of the last three seasons, including 2013 when it claimed the SEC Tournament Championship. Baseball and men's hoops are among nine Rebel programs to earn postseason berths under Bjork's watch, along with soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's golf, women's golf, men's track and women's track.

Bjork's reign has also featured a pair of national championships, as Sam Kendricks took home the pole vault title at both the 2013 and 2014 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships. The 2013 SEC West champion men's tennis team also vied for a national title, as the doubles team of Nic Scholtz and Jonas Lutjen advanced to the final four. Men's outdoor track a field registered a program-best eighth-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Championships, while men's tennis finished top-10 in the national polls that season.

Off the field, Bjork's emphasis on academics resulted in a record 2.90 GPA among the student-athlete population in 2014-15, and he has established a goal of 3.0 moving forward. In the community, student-athletes participated in more than 30 service projects, and even bigger plans are on the horizon. Throughout his career, Bjork has placed a great importance on diversity, and in 2013, the athletics department partnered with the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation to establish a Racial Reconciliation Week which took place during the 2013 football season.

Bjork's first full week at the post in 2012 was spent on the inaugural Rebel Road Trip, a six-day, 16-stop tour of the region that served to unite the Rebel fanbase. In the first three years of the tour, Bjork and Co., visited approximately 12,000 fans. He carried the momentum from the first RRT into the launch of a major sales campaign for football season tickets, which included television and radio advertising, billboards, internet marketing and a new outbound telemarketing call center.

Bjork arrived in Oxford after a stint as Director of Athletics at Western Kentucky University, where he quickly established an atmosphere of success. After Bjork made a midseason coaching change, the Hilltopper men's basketball team went on to capture the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Tournament title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Women's Volleyball won the conference regular season and tournament in 2011 and reached the NCAA tournament each of his last two years, while men's and women's cross country each won conference team titles in 2011. WKU's football program posted the greatest one-season improvement in conference wins in the history of the Sun Belt in posting a 7-1 league mark and second-place conference finish. WKU football also signed the conference's top recruiting class each of his last two seasons.

During his tenure, each of WKU's men's and women's athletic teams exceeded the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR), and WKU had more individuals honored for their academic achievements by the Sun Belt Conference than any other institution in 2011-12. For the first time in program history, the overall cumulative average GPA was over 3.0 for all 391 student-athletes and 228 maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Ten of the university's 15 athletic programs posted a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better.

The youngest athletics director of the 120 NCAA FBS programs when hired at WKU, Bjork has an extensive career in intercollegiate athletics with two decades of experience as an administrator and student-athlete, having worked on the senior staffs at UCLA, the University of Miami and the University of Missouri. He began his administrative career at WKU as an Assistant Development Coordinator in 1996-97.

Bjork is a native of Dodge City, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from Emporia State University in 1995 where he was a two-year starter at fullback. He earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois University in December 1996. Bjork has quickly established a leadership role in the SEC by being appointed as Chair of the awards committee and selected to the NCAA basketball issues committee and the NCAA recruiting cabinet.

Bjork and his wife, Sonya, have two boys: Payton (9) and Paxton (5).

MEDIA INFORMATION

In planning your coverage of Ole Miss in 2015, you are asked to review the following information. Contact the Athletics Media Relations office at 662-915-7522 if you have any questions.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations.

PARKING

Gameday media parking passes should be requested at the same time as press box or sideline passes. Only a limited number of parking passes are available, and media may be confined to one pass per outlet. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery. Media parking will be located in the garage and in a lot near Tad Smith Coliseum, and media should check the pass to indicate which area for which they are designated. Please note that there is a specific numbered parking spot for each garage pass.

Media parking passes are only applicable on gameday. Media members that attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events during the week should make arrangements with campus parking by visiting olemiss.edu/parking/media.html.

MEDIA WILL-CALL

Credentials may be picked up at the media "Will Call" table, located next to the press box elevators at Gate 6 on the west side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, beginning three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must exchange their photo pass for an armband in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be done at the media "Will Call" table next to the press box elevators. Gameday flip cards will be available there.

Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive at media "Will Call" without proper equipment will not be granted an armband for sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

RECRUITS

Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial), including prospects in attendance at practice or games. In addition, media are forbidden from videoing or photographing prospects during their visit. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

2015 PRESEASON SCHEDULE

July 16 .....	SEC Media Days Session
Aug. 6 .....	Players Report
Aug. 6 .....	Rebel Media Day
Aug. 24 .....	First Day of Fall Classes
Sept. 5 .....	Season Opener vs. UT Martin

TELEPHONES

Personal phones for individual press box seats may be ordered by contacting AT&T at 1-800-945-6500. Please alert the Athletics Media Relations office if you are ordering a phone so your press box seat location will correspond with the work order.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

Members of the media covering Ole Miss will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a flipcard and a game program (upon request).

Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play, postgame notes and quotes from players and coaches will be available.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Hugh Freeze holds a weekly press conference each Monday during the season, beginning at 12:30 p.m. CT, in the team meeting room of the Manning Center, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field.

Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone. The number for the two-way teleconference may be obtained by contacting the Athletics Media Relations office at 662-915-7522.

SEC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Freeze will be available on the weekly Southeastern Conference teleconference every Wednesday, beginning week one and concluding the final week of the regular season, from 11:20-11:30 a.m. CT. The number is available through the SEC office at 205-348-3000.

COACH/PLAYER INTERVIEWS

During Game Week

Select players will be available Monday following Coach Freeze's weekly press conference. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. Members of the media who wish to interview players on Monday MUST send their request by 3 p.m. CT Sunday to kyle@olemiss.edu.

Select players will also be available after practice on Tuesday, while Coach Freeze and assistant coaches will be available after practice on Wednesday. There is no availability on Thursday or Friday.

Media may not contact current student-athletes directly under any circumstances.

AFTER GAMES

For home games, Coach Freeze will hold a postgame press conference with the media in the team meeting room of the Manning Center.

Athletics Media Relations office representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Complete postgame plans will be announced on gameday in the press box by the Athletics Media Relations Director (MRD). The MRD will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, beginning with five minutes remaining in the final quarter.

PRACTICES

Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early.

Video is permitted for individual drills only. Videographers and photographers should use tight shots and avoid formations. Use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day.

AUDIO/VIDEO

Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Ole Miss Sports Productions at 662-915-3407.

Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live without prior consent of the athletics department. Audio/video use of content from press conferences and media opportunities is limited to five minutes per individual (coach or student-athlete) per day, and use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Athletics.

RADIO RIGHTS

The radio rights to Ole Miss Football are provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. Visiting networks planning to originate from Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field are issued credentials by the Ole Miss Athletics Media Relations office. Broadcast lines should be ordered through AT&T (1-800-945-6500). Visiting networks may also wish to contact Cabell Philpott with IMG College (336-831-0719 or cabell.philpott@imgworld.com), concerning the SEC's network agreement.

OLE MISS RADIO NETWORK

One of the most popular means of keeping track of Rebel Football is tuning in to the Ole Miss Radio Network. The Network offers first-rate broadcasts of every Rebel football game, including a 90-minute pregame show and extensive postgame coverage.

Ole Miss football may be heard throughout Mississippi and portions of the Southeast through services provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. In addition, every game can be heard worldwide over the internet at OleMissSports.com, and on XM Satellite Radio.

"The Voice of the Rebels," David Kellum, returns for his 27th season handling the Ole Miss radio play-by-play call. The veteran broadcaster also serves as the play-by-play announcer for both Ole Miss basketball and baseball. In 1998, 2000, 2002 2004, 2010 and 2011, Kellum was honored as the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year, as voted on by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association members in the state. In August 2006, he received the "Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster" award from the All-American Football Foundation.

Kellum's first link with Ole Miss Athletics was in 1978. As a 19-year-old freshman, he began broadcasting Rebel baseball, and has handled the baseball play-by-play for the past 37 seasons.

Kellum hosts Ole Miss' weekly radio shows for men's basketball and football. He is married to the former Mary Evelyn Kuehn of Oxford. They have two daughters, Stefanie Marie and Staci Michelle.

Harry Harrison, a former All-America selection at safety for the Rebels, provides the color commentary for the broadcast. A letterwinner from 1971-73, Harrison is President of Harry Harrison and Associates in Oxford, Mississippi. He is the father of two sons and a daughter — Nick, Josh and Lyndee.

Richard Cross is the co-host of "Head to Head" on Super Talk Mississippi and a television play-by-play announcer for SEC Network. Cross has 16 years experience in radio and television and has launched two successful statewide, syndicated sports talk radio shows in Mississippi.

Raised in Oxford, and a graduate of The University of Mississippi, Cross is the recipient of two Mississippi Association of Broadcasters Gold Awards and has worked for Fox Sports Radio and the Sporting News Radio Network.

Cross is married to the former Jane Easley of Clarksdale, a pharmacist at The University of Mississippi. The couple has two children, Ava Montgomery and Oby.

Brett "Stats" Norsworthy enters his eighth season as co-host of the pregame and postgame show. Norsworthy began his radio career co-hosting Sportstime in September 1992 on WHBQ in Memphis and has remained a Memphis sports radio fixture throughout the following years. He has been all over the Memphis market hosting various shows with a number of different personalities.

In his radio career, Norsworthy has had the pleasure of covering the SEC beat extensively. He's also covered many of the nation's top sporting events as well as freelance reporting for major networks. He co-hosts "Fish N Stats" on AM 560 and FM 87.7 with Memphis Grizzlies sideline reporter Rob Fischer.

Rounding out the broadcast team is Houston McDavitt, engineer/producer. McDavitt has worked with the radio broadcast for 12 years in a technical role and has been in broadcast engineering for 18 years. This is his seventh year as game engineer/producer for Ole Miss football. He is Director of Engineering for Telesouth Communications and lives in Brandon with his wife, Laura. McDavitt has two sons, Thomas and Watson.

ON AIR WITH THE REBELS

The Reb Talk radio show and "The Season: Ole Miss Football" television program are distributed by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications.

The radio show is a weekly one-hour live radio broadcast that allows fans the opportunity to hear from Coach Hugh Freeze and other staff about Ole Miss Football. The show will air every Tuesday during the season at 7 p.m., live from Buffalo Wild Wings in Oxford.

REBELS ON TELEVISION

Ole Miss was one of the first football programs in the Southeastern Conference, as well as the nation, to have a game broadcast on television.

On Nov. 13, 1948, WMCT-TV in Memphis telecast the Ole Miss-Tennessee game from Crump Stadium in the "Bluff City."

The game, won by the Rebels, was reported to be the first football game televised from the Mid-South.

The Rebels' first network televised football game was in the 1952 season when they faced Georgia Tech in the 1953 Sugar Bowl on ABC-TV.

Since then, Ole Miss has appeared on 241 regional and national telecasts, and on every major sports network, including ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, SEC Network and FSN.

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform carry SEC content 24/7 and featured more than 1,000 live events in its first year.

The network televises more than 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming includes in-depth commentary and analysis in studio shows, daily news and information, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, and more.

In 2014, Ole Miss appeared on CBS three times, ESPN seven times, the SEC Network twice and FSN once.

The Rebels' history on television has been a storied one. The memorable 1969 Ole Miss-Alabama game, which had national record-setting performances by Rebel quarterback Archie Manning and Tide signal caller Scott Hunter, was one of the first college games televised at night.

Ole Miss has compiled a 111-128-2 record in TV games, and 156 of the telecasts have been to national audiences. The first Rebel game to be televised in color was the 1960 Sugar Bowl when Ole Miss shut out LSU 21-0.

Ole Miss IMG Sports Marketing is a division of IMG College, which is the marketing and multi-media rights partner for Ole Miss Athletics. This is the second year of a long-term partnership that grew IMG College's number of SEC properties to 10 last season. IMG College is America's leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company, representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S.

IMG College is the leader in connecting brands to 173 million college sports fans through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest independent sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites.

A Walter Camp All-American and Nagurski Trophy finalist, senior cornerback Senquez Golson became Ole Miss' first consensus and unanimous first team All-American since Michael Oher in 2008.

Graduate linebacker Deterrian Shackelford was awarded the 2014 Wuerffel Trophy and named AFCA Good Works Team Captain for his exemplary service to his community.

2014-15 HONORS

Mike Hilton was selected by the Ole Miss coaching staff as the 2015 recipient of the Chucky Mullins Courage Award. Hilton is pictured here with head coach Hugh Freeze and Hilton's parents, Michael and Cynthia.

From left, 2014 Ole Miss M-Club Hall of Fame inductees Ken Lucas, Armintie Price Herrington and Julie Link Clark; Lotterhos Service Award recipient Larry Johnson; hall of fame inductees Burney Hutchinson and Chip Sullivan; representing hall of fame inductee Chucky Mullins, Karen and Carver Phillips.

All-time greats Doug Cunningham and Deuce McAllister were enshrined in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame last year.
